"THEN IT HAPPENED"

(Our Daily Discontinued Story.) Little Harold, mother's darling and papa's joy, was frolicking along the railroad track. Suddenly he noticed a small, round tin object fastened to the top of the rail, left there evidently by some careless trainman.

The Press herewith presents "King Gorilla, champ of West Africa, as the next contender with Champion Johnson for heavyweight honors. He doesn't know much about boxing, but fight? Why, he eats 'em alive! During the Reno fight Jack remarked to Jim: "You may be a bear, but I'm a gorilla."

NOT MUCH ON "I TOLD YOU SO"

Says Champion Jack in Statement—Knew He Could Win.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) RENO, July 5.—"I am not much on the 'I told you so' business, but you know I said all along I would win this fight, and when I said it I was not just making the usual talk that some pugilists make when they enter a ring claiming that they are confident and in perfect condition."

HE KNEW NOTHING ABOUT IT

Jeff Was Nervous Wreck When He Entered Ring—Doesn't Remember Start of Fight.

BY MAX BALTHASAR. RENO, Nev., July 5.—James J. Jeffries, defeated heavyweight champion of the world, is still a theatrical attraction. Today he received a number of offers for bookings for theatrical trips.

GAME GOT TOO HOT FOR WEYMOUTH

Water Commissioner Weymouth, who has been absent from the city for two weeks on a vacation, returned to his post this morning. The complaints from the water shortage grew so nerve racking for a time that Commissioner Weymouth concluded that it would be a reasonable time for a vacation.

JEFF WAS PRACTICALLY BLINDED IN SECOND

By Max Balthasar. RENO, July 5.—Perhaps it was a case of youth being served, perhaps it was something psychological; perhaps it was a piece of luck. At any rate, Jack Johnson today stands forth as the greatest heavyweight in the world, with none to dispute his title unless it is Sam Langford, equally black and fully as confident as Jeffries was yesterday, that he can take the measure of Tommy Burns' conqueror.

THE DAY'S GOOD STORIES

Taft Tells This One. In illustration of the futility of any person's being a democrat, President Taft is fond of telling this story as it was told to him by an Irish judge, says the Popular magazine. A prisoner was brought before the judge on the charge of murder. He was convicted, but the jury recommended clemency because physicians who had gone on the stand testified that the murdered man would not have died from the blow he had received had he not had

MENTAL PHOTOS--NO. 2

CHARLES STEWART U. S. Weather Forecaster

"Great Scott," exclaimed Mr. Stewart, the weather prophet; "my idea of happiness is not to have any trouble. My aim in life is to get the best I can but of it in a reasonable way." Thus we began the mental photograph of this well known man. Mr. Stewart would have you beware of the inquisitive woman, especially if you are a married man. The idea of a woman prompted by curiosity to go through her husband's pockets, to him, has always been a terrible thing. He detests the inquisitive and curious woman. The trait of character he most admires in the fair sex is charity, especially in this case, also, if she is married. The traits of character he likes and dislikes in men are hard to generalize. He admires men who are honest and brilliant and detests in them dishonesty and cowardice.

JACK GETS $120,500 AND JEFF $117,066

(By United Press Leased Wire) RENO, Nev., July 5.—When the last bit of money in the house is counted it is believed that Johnson's victory over Jeffries will only net him $3600 more than the defeated white man will receive. It is believed that Rickard and Gleason will split approximately $110,000 in addition to their interests in the motion pictures. It is estimated that the gate receipts were $230,000. The purse was $101,000, with $10,000 bonus for each fighter. The cost of the arena approximated $30,000. The estimated attendance was 18,500. Johnson's share of the purse will be about $60,600, his bonus $10,000 and his picture rights $50,000, making a total of $120,600. Jeffries is to receive $40,400, a bonus of $10,000 and $66,666 for his motion picture rights, or a total of $117,066.
