TIGERS HOT AFTER INDIANS

BATTERIES:

M'CAMENT-BLANKENSHIP KILLILAY AND SHEA

Where, oh where are those fans? A dinky little crowd saw today's game, but perhaps a big bunch of fans are saving up their pennies for Saturday's and Sunday's bouts. The game started off with a flourish, with Tigers and Indians snarling and whooping in most approved style, and holding each other down pretty hard.

FIRST INNING.

Tacoma—Warren grounded, Cooney to Nurdyke. Mott walked but was caught swiping second. Rockenfied skied to Frisk. Spokane—Netzel flew out to Bassey. McFadden made a nice pickup of Cooney's liner. Frisk knocked one to McCament.

SAYS BURKE WILL RETIRE FOR WILSON

But Senatorial Candidate Declares Report Isn't True.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SEATTLE, Aug. 19.—Thomas Burke will withdraw from the race for the United States senate and throw his support to John L. Wilson, published of the Post-Intelligencer and bitter political rival, in an effort to beat Miles Poindexter, according to the Seattle Star today. The formal announcement of Burke's withdrawal, says the Star, will not come for several days. It is known that Poindexter's campaign in western Washington and his reception has alarmed the Wilson-Burke forces and it is said they believe the withdrawal of one or the other is the only possible way of stemming the insurgent tide. BURKE DENIES IT. BELLINGHAM, Wash., Aug. 19.—"As an item of misinformation your telegraphic report from Seattle that I am to withdraw from the senatorial race in favor of John L. Wilson is full and complete. This statement was made by Judge Thomas Burke here today after being shown the dispatch in question. He left at noon today for Vancouver, Wash.

SECOND INNING.

Tacoma—Stevens doubled to left and went to third on Coleman's sacrifice. Blankenship stopped one with his backbone. Bassey struck out. McFadden ditto. Spokane—Nurdyke skied out to Stevens. Cartwright grounded out to Mott. McCament. Davis grounded out. McFadden to Mott.

THIRD INNING.

Tacoma—McCament whiffed and Warren doubled to center and then took third on Mott's sacrifice. Rocky flew out to Cooney. Spokane—Keener walked. Shea flew to Bassey. Keener caught trying to sack second. Killilay fanned the ozone.

FOURTH INNING.

Tacoma—Stevens tripled to right and scored on Coleman's long fly to Davis. Blankenship flew to Davis and Bassey flew to Frisk. Spokane—Netzel singled through second. Cooney's liner forced Netzel at second. Frisk doubled to right. Cooney going to third. Nurdyke flew to McCament. Cooney's attempt to steal home was abortive.

FIFTH INNING.

Tacoma—McCament out, Nurdyke to Handsome Jack. McCament singled to left field. Warren skied to Keener. McCament forced at second on Mott's grounder to Netzel. Spokane—Cartwright out. McFadden to Mott. Davis flew to McCament. Keener starts wild one to center for single, but caught try for second.

SIXTH INNING.

Tacoma—Cooney grabbed Rockenfied's high fly. Stevens fanned. Cooney missed Coleman's fly. Spokane—Shea flies to Rockenfied. Killilay safe on first when Mott fumbles his grounder. Netzel doubles to right, scoring Killilay. Cooney sends a hot liner to McCament that the youngster finds is too hot to handle. Netzel scores on Frisk's long drive to right. Cooney caught trying for second. Cartwright grounded out.

SEVENTH INNING.

Tacoma—Bassey lies to Cartwright. McCament sends a high liner that looks as though it would go back to the plate. Cartwright touches the ball with his glove, reached ahead of him and then grabbed the ball before it dropped to the ground. Spokane—Nurdyke walked and was forced at second on Cartwright's liner. Cartwright forced at second on Davis' searcher to McCament. Keener flew to Mott.

"THEY CAN'T BEAT LA FOLLETTE"

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SALINA, Kan., Aug. 19.—That Senator Robert L. La Follette of Wisconsin will be renominated and re-elected is the belief of Senator Joseph L. Bristow of Kansas, who has just returned from a tour of Wisconsin. "I don't believe they can beat La Follette," said Bristow today. "I think he will win the renomination by a plurality of 75,000 votes."

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 19.—According to Hudson Maxim, the inventor, the aeroplane is already fitted for warfare, and a gun he has just perfected, he says, will meet the demands of aerial fighting. Maxim has been working on the gun for a year and he believes it will meet every demand. The gun will fire from every point of the compass through what Maxim calls the "celestial concave."

TOO MUCH POLITICS

Owing to the fact that a big percent of the deputies in some of the county offices where the chiefs are opposed for re-election, are giving their time to campaigning on the outside, instead of looking after public business, the county commissioners are considering the adoption of some measure for keeping check on the men. The commissioners believe that when a man is paid for eight hours work by the people, he should put in the time the same as if he were working for a private employer. An investigation is being made with a view of ascertaining how many of the deputies from the different offices are actually engaged in campaign work.

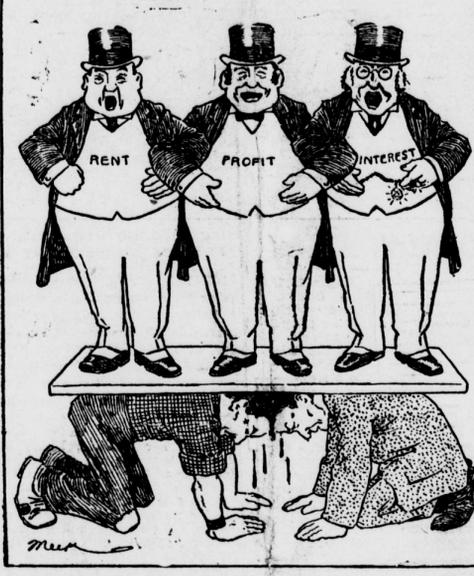

110 MORE SOLDIERS FIGHT FIRE

(By United Press Leased Wire.) MEDFORD, Ore., Aug. 19.—A special train bearing 110 soldiers and officers of the regular army, arrived in Medford this forenoon, and the cars were immediately transferred to the Pacific and Eastern tracks and sent out to Eagle Point, where the troops were disembarked and started for the front of the big fires raging in the forest south and west of Butte Falls. The Cat Hill fire is reported to have climbed the range and is now threatening the watershed of Four Mile lake, from which Medford receives its water supply. West and north of Four Mile lake a timber belt extends for miles on the north and east. The country is covered with snow brush, while on the southern side the slopes of McLaughlin mountain carry a heavy growth of pines, under which are the accumulations of decades of leaves from the trees. Should the fire get into this region, it will make an almost clean sweep.

SAVED BY A HUMAN CHAIN

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Aug. 19.—News of the saving of J. B. Wollas of Bellingham from death in the swirling waters of Wells creek near Mount Baker Wednesday night by a human chain, reached here today. According to members of a camping party, Wollas was walking along the banks of the stream. He stumbled and fell into the creek where the current runs like a mill race. His coat caught on a snag and he was held in midstream, his head beneath the water. Clapping hands, a living chain was made and Wollas rescued. He was unconscious for three hours after being dragged out.

SCORE OF LIVES ARE IN DANGER

A score of lives were endangered this morning when a charge of dynamite exploded under Great Northern passenger train No. 44, due in Spokane at 11:30 a. m., rocked the Pullman and dining cars, blew the glass out of 19 windows, and smashed part of the wood-work in the diner, one mile west of Nippon, Wash. The catastrophe occurred at 2 o'clock. It is not yet known whether it was the result of an accident or a pre-meditated attempt of train wreckers to derail one of the Great Northern trains. One theory is that a stick of dynamite—or several sticks—rolled down on the track and that No. 44 happened to be the next train along. One of the crew on the passenger train volunteered the guess that the dynamite was meant for No. 28, the mail train, which always carries registered letters and parcels with a value running up to the thousands.

ACCIDENT NEAR NIPPON.

The accident occurred near the summit of the Cascades, a little more than a mile from Nippon. Four negro waiters, shot in the diner and about 15 or 16 passengers were leaping in the one Pullman on the train. There were two day coaches, a smoker and an express and baggage car. The diner was in charge of Conductor T. Parkinson of Seattle, who was sleeping in the Pullman when the accident happened. The conductor in charge of the train was J. E. Corcoran, also of Seattle. He was awake at the time and thus tells the little that is known of the occurrence. "I was awake at the time it happened and was in the smoker talking to two or three passengers. Suddenly there was an explosion as if we had run over a cannon crater, and the coach rocked quite a little bit. All the 10 or 15 persons in the car jumped up and yelled to them to sit down. I sat down for a minute, found that we weren't running along the ties, and then put my head out of the window. As far as I could tell, all the train was there, we were on the track, and so we didn't stop. We stopped a mile further along at Nippon, reported the occurrence, an undamaged No. 27. "I don't know whether it was a plain accident or whether it was an attempt at train-wrecking. Any way it didn't work, and no person was hurt."

NINE MARRIAGE LICENSES WERE ISSUED YESTERDAY.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) NORTH YAKIMA, Wash.—Because Mrs. Beulah M. Love feels she can no longer love Arthur Love, she is asking for divorce. She alleges there is no love in the Love family. She asks custody of the five minor Loves. ...

BUSINESS BLOCK IS BURNED

(Special to The Press.) NORTH YAKIMA, Wn., Aug. 19.—Fire broke out in the heart of the city at 2 a. m., wiping out a whole block and completely destroying the brick warehouse of the Yakima Grocery Co., the only wholesale grocers in the valley. The loss is $114,000, and the insurance $46,000. Firemen confined their efforts to saving the neighboring wholesale houses. Ten cars of fruit, ready to go east on a side track adjoining the fire were saved. The Yakima Grocery company, and the Yakima Produce Co. lost all their books and papers, and $1,000 in the safe.

Middies Can Drink Juice of the Grape

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Rising to the protest of the Women's Christian Temperance union against the acceptance by the officers of the cruiser California of 100 cases of wines presented by the California Wine association, the navy department has politely announced that there is no naval regulation to prevent the ensigns and middies trifling with the juice of the grape. In the communication to the department the temperance advocates referred to a regulation said to have been issued by Secretary of the Navy John D. Long some years ago, forbidding the use of wine on warships. The present secretary has been unable to locate this order and intimates doubt if it ever existed. The announcement by Secretary Meyer has brought joy to the hearts of the junior mess on the various warships, where a drouth would, they think, have seriously impaired the efficiency of the fighting men.

POACHERS GET $50,000 WORTH OF BIRDS' PLUMAGE.

HONOLULU, Aug. 19.—Ready for troubles with poachers, the revenue cutters Thetis and Corwin left Honolulu today in search of a Japanese schooner which has been reported as lying off the islands of Lisiansky and Laysan, northwest of the Sandwich group. The vessel that brought the news also brought word of a raid made upon the birds of the island, by which the alleged poachers are richer by some $50,000 worth of plumage.

IT IS TIME TO PUT A STOP TO "OFFICIAL" SHOOTINGS

The people should unite and break the combination that exists between the police department, the prosecuting attorney's office and the sheriff's office. The sooner this is done the sooner the lives of private individuals will be safe in Spokane city and county. The only way to put the fear of God and respect for the law into the heart of the officer, armed with a big gun in his hip pocket, is to place some man at the head of these departments and in the prosecutor's office who will invoke the law against a murderously inclined policeman or deputy sheriff the same as he would against a murderously inclined citizen. Elmer Thackston, a deputy sheriff living at Lone, in Stevens county, killed an Austrian laborer in attempting to arrest him because of a saloon brawl. This week the coroner, the prosecutor and the sheriff of that county held a high conference and applied a coat of whitewash to the offense of Thackston. All of the forces of the law were on the side of Thackston; the dead man and the people of the state of Washington had no friends in that hearing, from all accounts. The sooner policemen and deputy sheriffs are taught that people are not indiscriminately to be made targets of for the guns of brutal and cold blooded officers the better it will be for the administration and respect of the law. A policeman or a deputy sheriff is permitted by law to carry a gun, but has no more right to pull a gun or shoot a citizen than anyone else. Case after case has come up in the last few years in Spokane city and county where citizens were shot under questionable circumstances by officers of the law. The people have had no way of determining the facts, as the avenues of information are in the hands of the officials who did the shooting. In the last year there have been several cases of the shooting of citizens by police officers, the most flagrant cases being those of the killing of the Italian, Tremont, by Policeman Joe Daniels, September 30 last, and the shooting of the Curry boy June 23 by Detective Lee Downey. The Tremont shooting was hushed up. A verdict was brought in by the coroner exonerating Officer Daniels, without even giving the brother of the dead man, who was one of the three eye witnesses of the shooting, a chance to testify. The only punishment inflicted on the policeman was that he was reduced in rank from a detective to a patrolman. This man, Elmer Thackston, involved in the Stevens county tragedy, is the Thackston who some months ago caused the arrest of Alfred Horton, a Spokane Englishman, on a charge of wife desertion, convicted him at a drum head trial, took his money and then sent him back to Spokane. Charges against Thackston had been lodged in this case with the British consul at Portland.

READY TO COMPLETE FLIGHT

(By United Press Leased Wire.) UPPIHURCH, England, Aug. 18.—John Moissant completed the repairs to his aeroplane today and said that he hoped to complete his flight from Paris to London this evening. A stiff breeze delayed his departure after the machine had been made ready for flight.

Skyrocket Local Cost of Living

Cost of living continues to go merrily upward. Here's the latest "dope" on local prices: Butter has gone to 45 cents for the best grade and 40 cents for the second grade, in the regular association grocery stores. The retailers were forced to advance to meet a number of raises by the wholesalers. What is called the war-time price in butter, 50 cents, was reached last winter, and present figures are only 5 cents short of that. Fall apples, called wind-blown stock, are a drug on the market. They sell from 75 cents to $1 a box, and the economical housewife is cooking them up into stewed apples to save butter, or canning them for pies in the winter. Tomorrow at 10 o'clock the funeral of Hannah M. Roberts will be held at her late home, 537 Bridgeport avenue.

POINDEXTER RALLY TONIGHT

A rally in behalf of the candidacy of Judge Poindexter for the senate will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Jones' hall at Hillyard. The speakers will be Judge J. P. Perkins and Fred B. Morrill, corporate counsel, who will talk on progressive republicanism. Professor Vertreux, principal of the Hillyard school, will act as chairman of the meeting.
