NELSON DECLINES TO PLAY SECOND FIDDLE

(By United Press Leased Wire) KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 6.—Battling Nelson of Hegewisch, Ill., refuses to play second fiddle to any pugilist alive. Although he dropped his title when he fell before Ad Wolgast at Point Richmond, Cal., he can't see why he should be less popular with followers of things pugilistic and for that reason he refused to fill his local theatrical engagement last night because Tom Sharkey was billed as a headliner in an athletic exhibition at the Kansas City fall carnival.

PORTLAND BOY LICKS JACK DOLAN

(By United Press Leased Wire) PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 6.—The "sponge" saved Jack Dolan of San Francisco from a good licking last night when he hooked up with Guy Lee, Portland's champion lightweight, for a scheduled 10 round go at the St. Johns rink. The bout ended at the end of the fifth round, when Dolan's seconds tossed the sponge into the center of the ring.

For the first three rounds the youngsters went at it "hammer and tongs," then Lee began to punish his man badly. Tommy Tracey has been training Lee for some time. It was today announced that Lee would go to California soon and attempt to get a match with some of the San Francisco youngsters.

CY WON'T QUIT GAME THIS YEAR

Cy Young has reached that stage in his remarkable career as a major league pitcher when he will of necessity have to devote a few moments semi-occasionally to denying that he is making his farewell appearance. Every baseball manager and owner in the American league outside Cleveland will take occasion when the Naps are on the road to intimate to reporters that Cy is going to retire at the end of the season. The reporters will surly away, write reams of copy about the grand old man of the game and how the fans shouldn't overlook their last opportunity to see him in action, and the turnstiles will get hot boxes.

Reports to the contrary, old Cy has no immediate intention of quitting baseball, and the fact that he has won five games in a row when the Naps were losing more than half their games, indicates that the old boy is in good form.

SPORT BREVITIES

Connie Mack will rest his star heavies, Coombs, Plank, Bender and Morgan, from now on, to get them into condition for the world's series.

The Athletics will finish the season about a week before the Cubs play out their schedule. The week will do the tribe of C. Mack a world of good.

Fourteen Poses of a New Woman Diver

Miss Myrma goes through all these gyrations while taking her daily bath before the footlights. All are real poses, at the water's edge or on the way in, for, unlike Annette Kellerman, this new French diver has many different displays on her program. Just now she's entertaining London audiences, but she hopes soon to make a splash in America.

BILL LANG LASTS SIX ROUNDS, BUT FAILS TO SHOW ANY CLASS

(By United Press Leased Wire) PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—The long discussion regarding the relative merits of Bill Lang, the Australian heavyweight, and Al Kaufman of California is settled today, following Lang's decisive defeat by Kaufman here last night. Lang only showed to advantage in one round, the second, when it looked for a time as if he would hand the Californian a sleep potion. Then Kaufman got busy, and to the end of the sixth round, to which the bout was limited, had everything his own way.

SPORT SPICE AND DIAMOND GOSSIP

Twenty-three errors were made by the four Northwestern league teams in the four games played yesterday. Not very classy ball, perhaps, but you can just bet it was exciting at this end of the line.

Of the four games played yesterday in this league, not one was the same number of innings as any other. Here we had a seven and an 10 inning game, and on the coast they played a nine and an 11 inning contest.

Joy Miller, the Michigan football star, who was expelled from college and found later in Walla Walla, is said to be recovering his mind.

Barney O'Neil, who may be the next governor of Idaho, was in the grandstand yesterday with a party.

Gus Hettling's first hit in the Spokane grounds was sure a pippin, and a timely one. It was a triple, to the center field fence, and started trouble for the Beavers in the tenth. Hettling scored on a long sacrifice fly, and Cooney and Keener broke up the game with Texas leaguers.

The Chicago rah rah boys split even with KallsPELL yesterday in an exciting double header, the afternoon game going 10 innings and being won by the squeeze play.

The check that Joe Cohn handed Bob Brown last night was larger by far than any Cohn has received from any of the other ball towns this season.

Bob Brown played right field and second base yesterday, and got a great reception when he stepped to the plate. On each occasion he was received with a mingling of cat calls, hisses, hand clapping and shouts of "Protest it, Bob." Every time the umpire called a strike on him the crowd would advise him to protest it.

HAZELWOODS WIN WITH BIG SCORE VARNEYS BADLY LICKED IN IDAHO

The Hazelwoods clinched the city league pennant and tramped all over the Dodd team at Natatorium park yesterday afternoon, by a score of 15-1. The other game was by the Gold Coins who licked the Brownies 11-3. There was a bumper crowd in attendance despite the counter attractions.
