WOMAN PHONES HOUR AND IS ARRESTED

DELAWARE, O., Sept. 10.—Mrs. W. D. Pritchard, wife of a farmer west of this city, is said to have persisted in calling all of her friends over the telephone and engaging in conversation as long as the party at the other end of the line would permit.
After warnings had been disregarded, Sheriff Leonard took the woman into custody. She had talked more than an hour when the officer arrived, it is alleged.

ENGLAND IS FACING BIG STRIKE

More Than 100,000 Will Be Idle If Dispute Is Not Settled.

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.—England today is face to face with the danger of a national strike.

The reputation of the boiler-makers' union today of the efforts of their leaders to settle the strike between the boiler-makers and the Shipbuilding Employers' association means a prolonged lockout, affecting 50,000 men. More than 100,000 others will be idle if the strike is not soon settled.
The cotton mills of Lancashire are threatened with further trouble with their union employes, while at Cardiff 12,000 coal miners are restless.
Employes of the Great Northern railroad are reported to be planning to make demands for better wages and hours. These demands, it is said, will be presented within the next two weeks.

HAMILTON IS READY TO FLY AGAIN

(By United Press Leased Wire.)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 10.—"I'll fly again as soon as I am able to sit in my seat," was the determined statement today of Charles K. Hamilton, the aviator, who was seriously injured last night when his aeroplane tumbled to the ground from a height of 50 feet.
Hamilton's first thought on awakening this morning was about his big machine. "How are the engines?" he asked a visitor who had been at the grounds when the accident occurred. "Are they broken?" Hamilton's face lighted with pleasure when he was told they probably were not seriously damaged.
Hamilton is much better today, and unless injuries were received yesterday.
Hamilton's fall followed an unusually good flight, which was witnessed by a large crowd. He had raced with an automobile, easily outdistancing the car. As he was making a spiral descent his rudder jammed and his machine turned over. It was the second accident of the day to the machine, the one last night probably being due to the earlier mishap.
Hamilton's head was badly cut, his left leg was scalded and he was crushed about the hips. The physicians in attendance say it will be several days before the exact extent of his injuries can be determined.

DAYTON, Wash.—"Grandma" de Beaumont, widow of a French count, and who is 90 years old, is supporting herself on a farm near here, selling produce to merchants in town.

WOLGAST MAY LOSE MANAGER WHO MADE HIM CHAMPION

CHAMPION AD WOLGAST.

Because he has announced his willingness to meet Packy McFarland, permitting the latter to weigh in at 183 at 3 o'clock, the fight to start at 10, flight followers believe Ad Wolgast is about to break with his manager "Cherokee Tom" Jones.
Jones has always refused to let Wolgast meet McFarland unless the latter made the lightweight limit at the ringside, something the stockholder couldn't very well do without sawing off a leg.
New Wolgast is said to have posted $500 forfeit to bind the match, the pair may get together in Milwaukee without the sanction of Jones. Or it may be all this talk is a little more of that press agent stuff.

VIOLET-SCENT CIGARETS FOR SPOKANE WOMEN

"My Lady's" breath may smell of violets, and yet she may smoke cigars.
What do you suppose is the latest? The Spokane cigar stores are carrying a special cigar for lady smokers. They are a small smoke and resemble very much the Metachino cigar sold to men, only they are highly perfumed with violets. They have a paper or cork tip so the tobacco does not touch their mouth and thus discolor their ruby lips. Oh, yes, and they are only half full of tobacco, so they really have to smoke two to get as many puffs as the men who win one.
They come in neat little boxes with pretty covers and sell for 25 cents. Twenty cents for 10 of these breath perfumers. They call them "milos." Some of the local cigar store clerks claim they sell the other cigars to many ladies.
These have the cork tips, but have no perfume and they sell for only 1 cent each.

KING MAD OVER ELKINS AFFAIR

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
LONDON, Sept. 10.—So incensed has King Victor Emmanuel become over reports sent out concerning the Elkins-Abruzzi affair that he has ordered the premier to impound all dispatches relating thereto. It is stated on good authority that King Victor is highly incensed at the continued flow of reports, rumors and contradictions about the engagement of Miss Elkins and the duke of Abruzzi.
Six marriage licenses were issued yesterday.

SPOKANE SCENE OF BIG RALLY

Auditorium Theater Will Be Packed Monday Night.

Next Monday evening the Auditorium theater will be the scene of the closing rally of the progressive republican campaign in this state. Judge Poindexter will arrive in his home city Monday, and will spend the day in meeting people from all parts of the Inland Empire.
In the evening the great rally will be held in the theater. It is expected that the capacity of the house will be taxed to the utmost, as 6,000 greeted the senatorial candidate at last night's meeting in Seattle.
Corporation Counsel F. B. Morrill has been chosen to preside over the meeting, and the executive committee of the Poindexter Senatorial club will occupy the stage.
Bowen's band has been secured for the afternoon and evening, and will play before the meeting.

SHE FORGOT $1,000 IN ROOM

Woman Calmly Takes Train, Leaving Neat Roll of Money Behind.

Not many women except the free spenders of Gotham, Newport, or Pittsburg could take a trip of several hundred miles and leave behind, forgotten, on the dressing table of an hotel room a roll of bills totaling close to $1000, but that was the trick done today by Mrs. J. H. Repp of Endicott, daughter of Fred Reinke, wealthy retired capitalist of Snohomish.
Mrs. Repp and her father took the Oriental Limited this morning for the Coast and from indications at this end of the line the woman became rather excited when she found that she had left a small fortune at the mercies of bell-boys and chambermaids. So the wires buzzed and shortly before noon Mrs. Repp's mind was relieved, the clerk at the Hotel Halliday, where Reinke and his daughter had been registered, had expressed the chateleine and roll to Snohomish.
The clerk of the Halliday doesn't believe there was quite $1000 in the roll, but admits that the sum was close to that. He says that he didn't count the wad, but sent it, in fact, to the address named in the frantic telegram.
They allowed old Sultan Abdul Hamid only 12 of his wives, and now he has disappeared from Salonica. Just think of the brute deserting 12 wives, wholesale!

REGISTRATION IS HEAVIER

Inquiry at a dozen or so precincts scattered throughout the city indicated this morning that registration is heavier than on any previous day, but not yet sufficiently so to make a startling or even big total probable. Monday is the last day on which the citizens can register for the primaries, although registration for the charter election, September 27, will continue until September 17.

BOOKS BACK TO CITY HALL

After 9 o'clock tonight, the registration books will be returned to the city hall from the various precincts. Until then voters can register in the precincts at the various polling places.
Registration will close before the primaries at 5 o'clock Monday evening.

? WHICH ?

If you have registered—and if you haven't you'll have a miserable feeling when you see all the rest of your fellows express their will at the polls—you will vote next Tuesday in the most critical primary ever held in the west. Almost literally speaking, the eyes of the nation will watch you go to the polls.
Are the people of the great state of Washington going to stay with Aldrich and Cannon and Hill and Weyerhaeuser and Guggenheim, or are they going to join the great progressive movement, which is preparing the way for the real rule of the people?
That is the question which YOU are going to answer next Tuesday.
Are you going to vote for Burke or Ashton, who are

EVERY TIME FIRE CHIEF TAKES A BATH HE BREAKS THE LAW

Spokane people—nearly every one of us—violate the laws of the city every day.
Yep, we're all law breakers and don't know it. But if the police enforced every one of Spokane's 40,000 or so statutes, they'd have to turn every downtown building from Division to Meador into a jail to hold us all.
It's even a question whether there would be enough policemen to "pinch" us or judges enough to fine us, if all the laws were enforced. Maybe they'd all be in the coop, too.
For instance, did you ever stop to look at a dog fight? You broke the law if you did. Law says anybody who witnesses or encourages a fight between animals or birds is a malfactor.

Did you ever spit on the sidewalk?
Ever shake dice for cigars? Play bridges for real money?
Ever throw a banana peel or an empty envelope or scrap of paper into the street?

Did you ever use profane language?
Did you ever pick flowers in the park or in somebody's yard?
Ever keep more than one gallon of petroleum in your house?
Ever write or cut your initials on a fence or tree or building which you didn't own?

There are a lot more, but did you ever do any of these? If you did you broke the law and the police had a right to run you in.
Every time Fire Chief Meyers takes a bath he breaks the law. If some prurish person wanted to, he might get Meyers removed from office under strict construction of the law.

For the law says that the "fire chief must AT ALL TIMES wear on the lapel of his vest an appropriate badge designating his office."
