FAN FODDER

SPOKANE-PORTLAND GAME MAY YET BE PLAYED

That much talked of game between the champion Spokane Indians and the Portland Beavers, leaders of the Coast league, seems to be a regular "off agin", on agin", gone agin". Finnegan's proposition. First we hear that everything is all right and the game is all arranged, and then comes the word that the deal is all off and there is nothing doing. And now comes the latest to the effect that the game is on again and the Portlanders are hollering over with anxiety to get at those redskins of ours. It is proposed to play the game next Monday, and the probable lineup—if the game isn't called off again—will be: Spokane—Coney, ss; Cartwright, 2b; Frisk, rf; Nurdyke, 1b; Davis, lf; Netzel, cf; Helling, 3b; Shea, c; Baker, p; Portland—Ryan, cf; Olson, ss; Kreuger, lf; Casey, 2b; Sheehan, 3b; Rapps, 1b; Fisher, c; Ort, rf; Garrett, p.

BIG PURSES AT NORTH YAKIMA

Four purses of $1000 each hung up by the directors of the North Yakima Fair association, are attracting a large number of well known horses to the race meet which will be held in that city beginning Monday, September 26, and continue six days. Four of the big purses are for harness races, and one is a running stake, the Washington derby. Horses entering in these races will be through in time to participate in the Interstate fair at Spokane.

CAMP SAYS WEIGHT COUNTS

Talking in Chicago yesterday of the effect of the new rules upon football, Walter Camp, the famous coach and football expert, declared that in his belief, "beef" is still to be a strong factor of success. The new rules, Camp says, while providing for a more open game and giving a fast, light man a better chance to make a team, still leave the game in such shape that weight will be a heavy factor in the line.

ATHLETICS HAVE PENNANT CINCHED

The Philadelphia Athletics have clinched the American league pennant beyond the possibility of losing it, even though they dropped every game for the balance of the season. The Athletics now have a 16 game lead, with only 16 games to play, so Detroit can win every game while Philadelphia loses all and the Athletics will still head the list by one game.

GOZGAGA HAS A GOOD SCHEDULE

Gonzaga college football schedule for the season is announced by Manager Meagher as follows: October 8—Davenport high school, at Spokane. October 13—Newport high school, at Spokane. October 22—Houston school, at Gonzaga. October 27—University of Montana, at Spokane. November 3—Spokane college at Gonzaga. November 10—Colville at Spokane.

JOE HEINRICH AFTER O'CONNELL

Joe Heinrich, former Spokane wrestler, and now athletic instructor of the Baker City, Ore., Athletic club, has declared his intention of challenging the winner of the O'Connell-Singh bout which is to be held in Portland next Monday. Heinrich, who holds the northwest middleweight wrestling championship, has been trying to get a match with O'Connell for some time, but the Portland grappler has managed to evade him. He now announces that if necessary he will challenge both O'Connell and Singh and agree to throw each one twice in an hour.

BOYS TRYING HARD FOR PLACE

Hard practice is the rule with the high school football squad, which is working out at Natatorium park, and candidates for the team are having a hard fight for places in the first game, which will be played against Coeur d'Alene October 1. The lineup of the team, according to present showings, will probably be: Fullback, Kyte; halfbacks, Edtis and Wilson; quarterback, Darham; center, Adams; guards, Henderson, Seagraves and Runner; tackles, Gallagher and Thompson; ends, Fancher, Pynn and Wilson.

FINE HUNCH, EH? JULIUS TAKES A CANDY RAT DOWN TO CHINATOWN--HE WANTS THAT SHIRT!--BY FRANK LEET

SPORT SPICE AND DIAMOND GOSSIP

My, my, my, what things those Turks did to us yesterday. It would be to "have the pain" if the game counted anything in the pennant race.

Just imagine what kind of a patched up lineup the Indians must have had when they worked a pitcher at first base, another in center field, the second baseman and left fielder traded places. A real shakedown, that, eh?

Vic Holm, who has been on the sick list, went on the mound for five innings, and then Bonner relieved him of the job.

The game was certainly a joke, several of the hits secured by Seattle being directly chargeable to mental lapses on the part of the redskins.

At the same time, Joss, who was on the firing line for the Turks, was pitching one his highest class games, and Joe Cohn said it would have been impossible for his regular team to have won yesterday. Some philosophy, that.

Claffin had never played the first sack before and it was nearly the end of the game before he discovered that he was supposed to get on the bag after handling a ball. At the beginning he would field a ball and then look for someone to cover the bag.

Tacoma took Vancouver down the line yesterday in a listless game. The only tally the Beavers scored was when Swain slammed one over the fence for a homer in the first.

Hal Chase, the great New York first sacker, has been unofficially exonerated from the charges made against him by Manager George Stallings.

S. A. A. C. has decided upon Chris Gesek and Joe Ball as the boxers who will represent the club at the first smoker, against the Vancouver club, October 21. Gesek is a 150-pounder, and Ball goes on at 115.

Italian game hogs, who have been killing Chinese pheasants near North Yakima, are to be prosecuted.

Tekoa high school football team meets Oakesdale high at Tekoa October 1, for the first game of the season.

Soldiers at Fort George Wright have organized a football team and are out for games.

The Spokane Rifle and Revolver club having only been able to shoot over the 200-yard range last Sunday, the Pacific league meeting, which was to have been shot on that date has been postponed until October 9.

World's Series Stars, No. 12

Here he is, the man who will match wits with Johnny Kling in the interleague games between the Athletics and Sox. Connie Mack has said that Ira Thomas will probably catch the series. Thomas is not considered a wonder, but all the same he is not a dud, and he may surprise the wise ones by putting up a splendid game back of the plate from start to finish. It has been predicted that the Cubs will run wild on the paths with Thomas catching, and maybe they will—and then again maybe they won't. You never can tell.

VICTORIA WANTS TO JOIN LEAGUE

Victoria, B. C., wants in the Northwestern league next season, and she wants in so badly that if she doesn't get in it will not be because of lack of effort on the part of the fans and promoters of that city.

Ever since the Spokane and Vancouver teams played a game in that town the Victoria fans have been wild to be represented in the next pennant race, and they are now so anxious about the matter that several promoters are contending for the honor of financing a team, in the event of the Northwestern magnates allowing the ma berth for next season.

Coming, as it does, in conjunction with the announcement from Portland that that city will be open for a Northwestern team next year, the Victoria application is receiving decidedly favorable consideration from the Northwestern league leaders, and it is more than probable that 1911 will see the second northern team listed in the league roll.

CRIPPLED INDIANS ARE BEATEN 8-0

The Indians were all shot-to-pieces yesterday, and the Turks had no trouble hanging it onto them by an 8 to 0 score. Nurdyke and Shea were out of the game, having been given a vacation by President Cohn, and pitchers were used to patch up the team. Claffin being at first, Kratzberg in the field and Vic Holm and Bonner working on the mound. Helling was out of the game after one time at bat and Levy went on the third sack, while Netzel played short and Cartwright went to left garden, Davis running the Keystone sack.

The game was a joke from start to finish and the Seattle fans who witnessed it got their money's worth out of joshing the Indians. The agony book tells us: Seattle 0 2 2 3 0 0 1 0 x-8

"ONE ROUND HOGAN" TO CHALLENGE WOLGAST

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—"One Round Hogan" today announced his intention of challenging Ad Wolgast for the lightweight championship, and his friends are willing to back him because of his showing last night against Frankie Smith at Dreamland rink. Hogan put it all over Smith from start to finish. In the final round Smith was hanging on and barely escaped a knockout. Smith is the fastest boy Hogan has yet been sent against and his stock today is soaring.
