

BLACK WORRIES HUMPHREY

Judge W. W. Black of Everett, democrat, candidate for congress in the first district, has Will E. Humphrey, former standpatter, and his workers frightened out of their political breath.

JUDGE W. W. BLACK

pretty fairly "in bad" in the district. Black's progress in the republican stronghold, has to date been so astounding that the Humphrey managers are more or less at outs with each other.

SOME COUNTY EMPLOYEES SERVING AT ELECTION, GOT PAID FOR BOTH JOBS

Attention of the board of county commissioners has been called to the fact that a number of county employees served as election officials in the two elections held last month, drew pay both times, and never were docked a penny by their heads of departments either time.

Some of the clerks in the county treasurer's office also served as election officers, but were docked one day's time. One man in the auditor's office served on an election board, drew the extra pay, but announced that he afterward made up the time.

lect a full month's pay from the county. Usually the jobs of serving as election officials are reserved for Grand Army men or other retired citizens not on the regular payroll of the city or county.

THE PROBLEM OF THE MULTI-MILLIONAIRE AND HIS SON

Cleveland Moffet's play, "The Battle," at the Auditorium theater last night, deals with the ever present and ever growing struggle between capital and labor, in which capital comes out ahead.
