

WORLD SERIES DOPE ALL WRONG

ATHLETICS UPSET CALCULATIONS

(By United Press Leased Wire.) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Reversing the judgments of scores of baseball critics all over the country, the Philadelphia Athletics won from the Chicago Nationals by a clever all-round exhibition of the national game, by a score of 4 to 1. Overall, on whom the Cubs relied to annex the opening game, was bumped hard in the first three innings and was replaced by McIntyre. The Athletics outbatted the Cubs, and although Kling nipped several runners, the Cub catcher was by no means invincible and the Athletics were faster on the paths than their opponents. Bender was in superb form and had the Cubs grounding or skying. He let down slightly in the ninth when two of Chicago three hits were made, after errors had spoiled a perfect record for the Athletics. McIntyre held the American to one hit after entering the game. The national commission met at 11 o'clock and discussed photographers' privileges. Ban Johnson favored excluding all but representatives of a Philadelphia concern. The commission, however, reported in favor of allowing newspaper photographers within the enclosure. The press occupied 248 box seats. The weather was ideal for the game. The rowd was the noisiest of the baseball year and ground rules were necessary owing to the overflow from the stands. A hit into the crowd was good for only two bases. The newspaper photographers, over whom there was some dispute, were allowed to roam the field at will. The umpires ordered the motion picture men from the field. The reel men appealed to the national commission and the umpires were overruled. Four umpires worked. Connelly was behind the bat; O'Day in the infield and Rigler and Sheridan in the outfield. When the game began the Cubs were the favorites at 10 to 7. The total receipts for the game were $37,424. Fifty players will share $20,509.23 and the national commission will receive $3,742.45. The official attendance was 26,891.

LEADERS IN "RAGTIME"

Following are the scores of the six high teams in the two-man "ragtime" tournament at the city bowling alleys: Aherns-Tripp, 1118; Johnson-Aherns, 1107; Franklin-Jenkins, 1080; Tracy-Aherns, 1079; Jenkins-Tracy, 1065; Tripp-Doebler, 1046. The tournament ends November 2.

GROFFS VS. CLOTHIERS

The Groff Tailors will buck up against the Chicago Clothing company team in the City league at the City alleys at 8:15 this evening, and a fast game is expected. Both the Groffs and the Clothiers are going well this season, and this is the first time they have met. Thursday evening the B. & M. Tamale team goes against the Casino team at the City alleys.

FAST TEAMS WILL BOWL

The Smith Dope team of the City league will roll against the Great American Laundry quintet at the Pfister alleys tomorrow evening, and one of the most interesting games of the season is anticipated. The Smith Dopes have rolled the biggest total score piled up by any team this season, and the Great American bunch is one of the best working teams in the league, so they should be evenly matched. Reservations have been made for a large number of ladies and it is expected that the laundry girls will turn out en masse to root for their representatives, while a bunch of Smith dope followers will be on hand to boost their pets to victory if possible.

STORE FLOODED

The Whitehouse department store was flooded by the rainstorm this afternoon. Water deluged the basement and portions of the first floor. It caught crowds of people in the store, and a merry and picturesque scramble resulted.

BEFORE THE GAME

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Father Penn is far from a sober gentleman today. His Quaker hat is tilted to one side; his spectacles hanging to one ear; his wig awry and his general appearance resembling extreme perturbation. And well he may look this way, for his pet Athletics are to begin battle today with the terrible Cubs from Chicago for the baseball supremacy of the entire mundane sphere and the inter-stellar space. Which is generally conceded to be going some" for such a staid and proper village. Shibe park was the center of the baseball world today and the very heart of Philadelphia, and it was to this great playground that the tens of thousands poured in a mad rush to lend their moral support and vocal cords to the all-important object of returning Mack's men a winner in the first game of the momentous series. There was no other thought in the minds of Philadelphia, from Mayor Reuburn down to the gamins on the streets. The best that may be said for the Athletics and their supporters is that they are hopeful of winning the greatest honor that can come to a ball team. A week ago Manager Mack and his men were extremely confident but as the moment of the initial clash drew near, it was only natural that apprehension should make its appearance and the inevitable nervousness crop out. "Maybe it's a good thing, too, for "determination" is now written all over the Athletics' camp. "AMERICAN LEAGUE YEAR." The feeling is general that this is the American league's year. Not since the Chicago White Sox surprised the baseball world by beating practically the same team of Cubs that will line up this afternoon has an American league team won the prize banner. As the present crop of Athletics is by far the strongest that ever represented the younger organization, and as it is hard to see how the Cubs can be stronger than in their friskier years, it is argued that it is the former's time to come to the top.

CHICAGO LOSES FIRST OF WORLD'S SERIES

(By United Press Leased Wire) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—The gates of Shibe park were thrown open at 11 o'clock this morning and before that time 10,000 fans stood in line to see the opening game of the world's championship series between the Chicago Nationals and the Philadelphia Americans. Hundreds of persons slept on the sidewalks near the ball grounds and others in doorways so as to take leading places in the line when the gates should be thrown open. The park holds 24,000 persons at capacity and it became apparent that the limit would be stretched long before the game began. MACK CONFIDENT. Manager Connie Mack was confident of his team's final success. "Unless the Cubs are better than ever we will win," he said. "The Athletics are 25 per cent stronger than were the Detroit Tigers of 1909." SO IS CHANCE. Captain Chance of the Chicago, on his way to the field, said: "We are opposing a swell line of pitchers. The Cubs play best when so confronted. They've got nerve, and I'll be surprised if we do not win this series. I will pitch Overall this afternoon if he warms up all right." THE LINEUPS. THE "OFFICIAL SCORERS"

FRANCIS RICHTER. TAYLOR SPINK. The scoring of the world's series games has been assigned to Francis Richter, editor of Sporting Life, and Taylor Spink of the Sporting News. For some reason scores of past games is presumed to be more important than the scores of regular championship contests, hence the choice of the two experts.

FIVE JUDGES HEAR SULLIVAN'S APPLICATION FOR RESTRAINING ORDER AGAINST COUNCIL

After trying to sidestep the pressing cross-examination directed toward him by Attorney Fred C. Robertson, Acting Chief of Police Sullivan admitted that he was really acting chief, and that he did not take the position of chief outright for the fear that he might face just some such contingency as has now arisen, in which he might lose his official head. The hearing of the case of Sullivan against the city council to prevent that body from hearing the charges against him began this morning before the full bank of the superior court, Judge Holcom of Ritzville sitting for Judge Kennan. Judge J. Stanley Webster sat as the presiding judge in the hearing, with Judges Huneke, Sullivan, Hinkle and Holcom as associates. Attorney Frank H. Graves was Continued on Page Two.

BOMB WRECKS HOME OF SARAH BERNHARDT

(By United Press Leased Wire.) PARIS, Oct. 17.—Paris virtually is under martial law today, following bomb outrages believed to have resulted from a refusal by Premier Briand to allow administration of railroad strikers in the Bois de Vincennes. One bomb partially wrecked the home of M. Massard, director of La Patrie, a newspaper opposing the strike. The explosive also damaged the home of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, which adjoins that of Massard. By a coincidence none was injured in the explosion. A second bomb was exploded in the Ternes quarter and one man was injured. On Massard's door was found a card reading: "This is the strikers' first warning." The police have arrested 120 anarchists on suspicion of having plotted the outrages.

"WE'LL WRING THE BLOOD FROM CHRISTMAS NECKTIES"

Look at Your Necktie, There's Blood on It! The Blood of Weary Women and Little Children—Mollie Hamer Tells How and Why This Is So, and How It Is That 18,000 Necktie Makers Are Striking for Working Conditions in Accord With Common Standards of Sanitation and Decency.

Two months ago Mollie Hamer, a New York necktie maker, went to her employer and demanded that working conditions in his plant be improved to the standard of common decency. Mollie Hamer was promptly discharged. The other day 20,000 New York necktie makers went on a strike to enforce the same demand that cost Mollie Hamer her job. For the necktie makers, who were unorganized when Mollie Hamer lost her job, are well organized now. When Mollie Hamer lost her job they were apathetic and resigned. Now they are awake and full of fight. They have been working for years under conditions that are intolerable. Now they are determined to have at least sanitary rooms to work in. Thoroughly organized and affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, they are prepared to make a stern fight for their cause. All this because Mollie Hamer demanded better working conditions and was fired for daring to make such a demand. For it was Mollie Hamer, 23 years old, who organized the necktie workers.

That Madame Nasimova, who played at the Auditorium the latter part of last week, could not speak English until three years ago? That McKee Rankin played in Spokane's first opera house? That the busiest room in the county courthouse is the record room of the county auditor's office, where a regular battery of typewriters grinds out the daily record of real estate transfers and mortgages? HAVEN'T FOUND REAL FACTS ON KETCHEL TRAGEDY AS YET

(By United Press Leased Wire) SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 17.—The inquest over the body of Stanley Ketchel was set for tomorrow. Walter Dibley, alias Hurtz, the slayer of Ketchel, will be called as a witness, although he is expected to refuse to testify. Dibley today made a statement explaining his flight after shooting Ketchel by saying he was a deserter from the navy and feared his desertion would be exposed if he were arrested. "I shot Ketchel in self defense," said Dibley. The authorities do not believe his statement regarding the shooting, but consider it likely he was a deserter. They are somewhat puzzled over the woman's connection with the case. She had repeatedly made contradictory statements, first saying she was the slayer's wife and then saying her name is Goldie Smith. Fitzsimmons, Corbett, Johnson, Sullivan, Papke and hundreds of others have wired telegrams of condolence to the dead fighter's parents.

SAYS KETCHEL'S SLAYER KILLED IN TEMPER FIT

(By United Press Leased Wire) WEBB CITY, Mo., Oct. 17.—"I believe my son killed Ketchel in a spirit of rebellion against the prize fighter's dictation," said J. F. Dibley, father of Ketchel's slayer, today. The elder Dibley is a farmer near here. "I understand the woman in the case was my son's wife," Dibley said. "I know he was living under the assumed name of Hurtz to escape arrest for deserting from the navy. "Walter always was resentful and his temper was unmanageable."

Johnson in a room in the New Grand Central hotel on the afternoon of June 20, and later tried to conceal the deed by cramming the body into the trunk of his companion, Mrs. Carrie Kersh.
