Royal Mother Loves Her Baby

CROWN PRINCESS OF SWEDEN AND HER ONLY DAUGHTER...

Some day this home-loving English woman will be queen of Sweden, for she was married to the crown prince of that democratic monarchy five years ago. She has two boys and this bright-eyed baby girl, born last April. She was the daughter of the duke of Cambridge...

WILL HAVE OPEN HOUSE THIS AFTERNOON.

Members of the Woman's club will hold open house in their new club building on Ninth and Walnut this afternoon. Members of all the woman's clubs in the city have been invited to inspect the appointments of the new quarters, and receiving hours will be from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Tomorrow evening the club will officially open the cottage at 8 o'clock, and at that time entertainment for the members and their husbands and a few friends will be provided.

ATHENAEUM CLUB MEETS TODAY.

At the regular meeting of the Athenaeum club today at the home of Mrs. Henry B. Hart, 21314 Fifth avenue, Rev. Yoshioka of the Japanese mission of this city will speak upon the subject, "The History of Japanese Religion." Mr. Yoshioka will also touch upon the religions of his people as they exist today.

WOMAN'S BOOK CLUB TO HAVE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The Woman's Book club will hold its annual Christmas party on Monday, December 12th, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Harvey, 1417 Seventh avenue. At this year's event each member will bring three gifts, one for the children's home, one for the old people's home and one to exchange among themselves. It is planned to have some fifty or more gifts of preserves, jellies, etc., for the children and the same number of useful gifts for the old people. Each member will, in addition, bring a gift wrapped profusely in paper for the purpose of disguise, and the total will be handed out to the guests dealt out a package in order. This exchange is promised to be of the most delightful order.

CHARITY BENEFIT IS FINANCIAL SUCCESS.

A very successful benefit was that given Saturday night at the Auditorium theater. Miss Hornburg estimates that the proceeds will be in the neighborhood of $1000, and will greatly aid in caring for the sick and needy throughout the winter. The program Saturday night was of lively interest to the audience, the young people on the program provoking storms of applause.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS TO MEET

The Royal Neighbors of America, Spokane camp, will meet in upper Pacific hall tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to elect officers for the coming year. A full attendance is desired.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR OPENS TODAY.

The Christmas bazaar given by the ladies of the Hebrew Benevolent society at 427 First avenue will be opened this morning. The members have succeeded in placing a wealth of articles on sale and the booths are very attractively arranged and decorated.

SCHUBERTS MEET TODAY.

Members of the Schubert club will meet in the Lillian Courtney Snow hall, Hotel Touraine, this afternoon. Results of the charity recital given last Friday and plans for the future will be discussed. While satisfied in a measure with the attendance at the concert, members feel that on the whole the turnout should have been larger, but this will not discourage them from future attempts.

Observations of a Bachelor Girl

A MAN IS ALWAYS A PESSIMIST when shirt collar pinches his neck.

END-SEAT HOGS aren't half so bad as the women who don't even grunt when men give them their seats.

MAN'S TRUEST EPITAPH is always written in his wife's face.

IF ADAM HAD EATEN the apple first, he would still have said: "She tempted me." All his descendants inherited this tendency.

- EMBLEM FLOWERS.
Roses blushing red and white.
For delight:
Honeysuckle wreaths above,
For love;
Din sweet scented heliotrope,
For hope;
Shining lilies tall and straight,
For royal state;
Dusky pansies, let them be
For memory;
With violets of fragrant breath,
For death.

A Great Undermuslin Establishment's Surplus On Sale at About Half!

Our Mr. Seitenbach, on the same New York trip which sent to Spokane such great values in suits and dresses, bought under-muslins at figures as low--the pick of the surplus stock of one of the brightest establishments in New York City; a house noted the country over for the excellence of its garments--the quality of its muslins, longcloths, nainsooks and cambrics, the beauty and serviceability of their trimmings--the excellence of their finish. He put in an extra day making his selections, sorting the garments into two lots, for each of which he paid a flat price, and we can sell tomorrow:

One Lot, Worth up to $5.00 per Garment, at $1.35

Gowns Almost all of low-neck style with short sleeves, the model for which there is greatest demand, with round or square yokes, trimmed with very fine lace or embroidery medallions, or yokes all of lace with lace sleeves. The high neck gowns have prettily embroidered yokes, long sleeves.

Skirts with cambric bodies, deep flounces of embroidery or tucks or wide lace insertion and edging. Some have wide ribbon drawn through. All have lace edged underflounces.

Slips Fine nainsook, the wide lawn flounces with lace insertion and edging. Tops are finished with wide lace edges--a little yoke of imitation hand embroidery.

Suits Combine drawers or skirts with corset covers, the latter made with lace or embroidery yokes and embroidery panels. Drawers and skirts are cut full, lawn ruffles edged with lace.

Drawers of very fine nainsook--open or closed, trimmed with embroidery ruffles, tucks and ruffles of lace insertion joined.

Corset Covers present a large variety of styles, very fine materials, superb embroidery medallions encircled by lace. Others are all over embroidery or tucks. They are worth up to $5. We can give you your choice of them all at $1.35

Sturdier Garments, Prettily Trimmed; Worth up to $2.50 for 89c

The long cloths, cambrics and nainsooks somewhat heavier than in the other lot--they are made first to wear. All the garments are trimmed with lace or embroidery but are not so elaborate.

Gowns are of low or high neck style with short or long sleeves. The high neck yokes are trimmed with embroidery and tucks, and finished at the wrist with embroidery edging. The low neck ones have round or square yokes of lace or embroidery--bell or puff sleeves.

Skirts have tops of good cambric; the wide flounces with tucks and ruffles or trimmed with wide lace and insertion, and all are made with extra protection flounces underneath.

Slips are of lawn and made plainly--princess style with hemstitched ruffle at the bottom. There are lace edges around the top and armholes. They fit perfectly.

Suits are either skirts or drawers combined with corset covers. The latter have yokes of lace or embroidery beading with ribbon. The lower garments are cut full with lawn ruffles at the bottom, and some are edged with lace.

Drawers are here in a variety of styles--cut full with wide ruffles of embroidery or lace insertion and edging. The quality of their muslin is good.

Corset Covers are trimmed with lace insertion and embroidery medallions, tucks, beading and ribbon. There are, of course, all sizes. They are by far the greatest values we have offered at the price--worth up to $2.50. For your choice, tomorrow 89c

The Thousands of Little Folks of Doll Town Are Waiting for You to Come!

IF you were down here some night after everybody has left the store and everything was quiet--and you understood doll language--perhaps you'd hear the little colored doll say to the little German boy doll--"Ah do wish some little white girl wif yaller hair and blue eyes would adopt me--Ah'm so lonesome!

And the French doll would make very much the same remark to the American doll, only perhaps she would like to have a little mother with brown hair and black eyes adopt her.

If you knew how all these Dolls are yearning to be adopted, every little girl in Spokane would have a thousand in her Doll family.

See, When You Come, How Different Each One Is From Her Neighbor!

That's the most interesting thing about Doll Town. You go up one street and down another. You see the thous and little Doll girls and boys, no two of them alike, or if they do look alike, they're dressed differently! And we can tell you that it is worth coming farther than from Coeur d'Alene just to see them smile their welcome tomorrow. And if you want to see your mamma just as delighted as you are, tell her to look at the figures on the ends of the boxes!

See the Dolls Dressed in Silks and Satins, but Don't Neglect the Ones in Simple Little Muslin Frocks.
