

AUG. HEINZE MUST STAND TRIAL

COURT DECISION IS REVERSED

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Efforts of the department of justice to bring F. Augustus Heinze to trial for misapplication of the funds of the Mercantile National bank were successful today, when the supreme court reversed the action of the lower court in quashing several indictments against the Montana copper magnate. The decision means a re-trial. The first indictment in 1909 contained 16 counts, of which 15 were quashed by the federal court at New York. It is alleged that Heinze discounted notes in his own bank on insufficient security, thus obtaining money with which to manipulate the stocks of the United Copper company.

Eddy at Chestnut Hill is freely made today by leading protestant churchmen of Chicago. Employers' Liability in Arizona. PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 5.—A provision providing for an employers' liability law was adopted today by the constitutional convention. The measure places no limit on the amount of damages that may be awarded for violation of the law. Will Consult Senate Judiciary Committee. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Before naming the two men who shall fill the vacancies on the supreme bench, President Taft has decided to consult the members of the senate judiciary committee regarding the appointments. It is reported that the president intends to name one democrat and one republican.

MAYOR PRATT'S 11 TH HOUR PLAY

Prominent union labor men, members of the city council, and many business men today commented unfavorably upon Mayor Pratt's eleventh hour grandstand play to help American labor out by barring foreign labor from public contracts. "If Pratt had wanted to do some real good," remarked one prominent councilman today, "why in the dickens didn't he do it a year or so ago, after the council had passed two resolutions and urged that American labor be favored? Here he has let the plan run along until the end of his administration, when it ought to have been one of the first things he took up." "Another point about it is that this is the worst season of the year to do any good in the matter. Jobs are scarcer now and scores and probably hundreds of foreigners have made their little 'pile' and are leaving for the 'old country,' according to what the railroad offices state. These foreigners are perfectly willing to quit now, when they have either got through working or when there is no more work to be obtained at present."

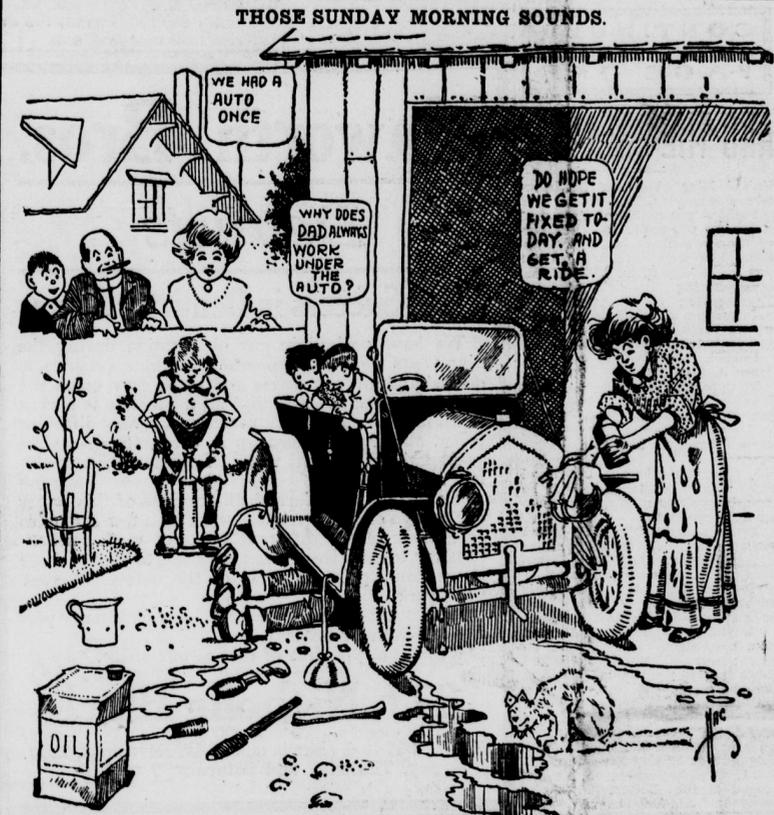

STRIKE TIES UP STORES IN CHICAGO

(By United Press Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Three hundred delivery drivers of department store delivery wagons went on strike today, and, with Christmas shopping just reaching its height, a complete ready has begun, and unless the differences are adjusted at once the stores, it is predicted, will lose millions, while the holiday shoppers will be put to great inconvenience.

IS THIS RECORD FOOTBALL KICK?

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Dec. 5.—What is believed to be a new drop kick record for western football teams was made here by Quarterback Hiles of the Illinois Wesleyan university team in a game with the Eastern Illinois normal school. Hiles booted the ball over the goal from the 48-yard line.

The company is now capitalized at $10,000,000. It is agreed that stockholders should have until July 5 within which to file subscriptions.

40 INJURED IN WRECK

(By United Press Leased Wire.) LONDON, Dec. 5.—Some 40 persons were seriously injured, a number of them fatally, in a collision on the London Northwestern railway at Willenston Junction today. The second section of a train from Watford plowed into the first section, which was standing at the junction. The train was occupied chiefly by clerks who were coming to their offices in the city. The three rear coaches of the standing train were wrecked. Many persons suffered broken limbs and there were several fractured skulls. In many instances the victims were so pinned beneath the wreckage that there was difficulty in extricating them.

SULLIVAN SURPRISED AND IS PUT ON THE DEFENSIVE

Ex-Chief's Suit for Libel Against The Press Postponed Because Attorney Winston Finds He Isn't Ready. Today the $20,000 damage suit of John T. Sullivan against The Press was continued in the superior court, probably to the January term of court. The cause of the continuance was the filing of an amended answer to the complaint by Attorney F. C. Robertson for The Press, in which he more fully set out the basis of his defense in the case. The answer took the counsel for the defense by surprise, as matters and facts were alleged that put the plaintiff, Sullivan, in a very bad light, if borne out by the testimony. Attorney A. M. Winston, for Sullivan, objected to going ahead with the trial without being given an opportunity to reply to the new answer, and by agreement Judge Sullivan permitted the case to go over. Among other things it is alleged that Sullivan, while acting chief of police, permitted officers under him to commit gross immoralities; that this conduct was called to his attention, and that he took no action thereon. This charge is based on the Elliott case, in which connection Sullivan was found guilty recently by the city council. Attention is further directed in the answer to the arrest of many

NO, DEARIE, THAT WASN'T SANTA CLAUS

"Mama," asked a small boy, as he came down the stairs of the city hall this morning, "did you tell the man that I wanted a drum and a sled and a rocky horse and a bicycle and a pair of skates and a gun and—and—a lot of things for Christmas?" "An' did you tell him that I want a dolly and a doll buggy, an' a set of dishes, an' a umbrella, an' lots of candy," piped up little sister. "No, dearies," answered the mother, as she took each little youngster by the hand. "Mama wasn't talking to him about Christmas. That wasn't the Santa Claus man." "Then, what did you tell him?" persisted one of the small kiddies. "Ssh, dear, don't talk so much," admonished mama, as she hustled them hurriedly out of the front door, for mama had just been up to register and had answered several very impertinent questions.

"AND THE GREATEST OF THESE IS CHARITY"

Thanksgiving day, 1910, there were 16,000 women and children STARVING AND FREEZING in the Greensburg district of the Pennsylvania coal field, because, eight months ago, the husbands and fathers decided they would no longer be the wage slaves of "big business," and went on a strike. It was a graphic story, telling of the pitiful condition of the women and children, who were living in tents in the winter time, because they had been forced out of the houses they called home. Vivid word pictures of a number of cases, where boys and girls were going around in the half-frozen slush of the strikers' camps, were drawn, and AN APPEAL WAS MADE TO YOU AND TO ME to help make the Christmas of the families of the strikers more happy than their Thanksgiving by sending anything we could spare to John McCartney,

MORE DELAY

(By United Press Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The supreme court of the United States today granted a petition for review of the sentences of Frederick A. Hyde and Jost Schneider, who were convicted in connection with the Hyde-Diamond-Benson land frauds in California. The decision means that the cases will be re-opened.

TOMMY BURNS QUILTS RING

(By United Press Leased Wire.) TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 5.—In a letter received here today, Tommy Burns, former heavy-weight champion pugilist, announces his permanent retirement from the prize ring. Burns, who is at present making an exhibition tour through central Washington, says that when he finishes his engagement at Cle Elum Wednesday night he will never again appear as a boxer before the public. He has asked Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, to substitute Jack Lester, his Cle Elum protege, to fill his engagement with Sam Langford in London. He gives as his reason for retiring the injury to his knee, sustained in Vancouver a few months ago while playing lacrosse. In his letter Burns says: "I am through with the boxing game as a pugilist. I have retired and this is final. My knee will not stand hard training any more. I received a cablegram from McIntosh today. He wants me to box Lang in January and Langford in February, but I answered that my knee is still bad and that I will retire as a pugilist. I am trying to arrange with McIntosh to fight Lester against Langford in February. I am sure Lester can beat Langford right now, but, of course, I don't want Langford for him just yet."

MRS. MARY BAKER EDDY IS DEAD

(By United Press Leased Wire.) BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 5.—The funeral of Mary Baker G. Eddy, discoverer and leader of Christian Science, will be held from her late residence Thursday morning. The services will be private. Only the members of her family and the leaders of the Church of Christ, Scientist, which she founded, will be in attendance. Where the body will be buried has not been announced. In response to the wishes of the founder of the faith, leaders in the church have declared that only a simple service shall be performed. The thousands who have accepted Mrs. Eddy's creed will not be called upon to pay their tribute of respect at their leader's funeral. BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 5.—A million Christian Scientists scattered throughout the land are sorrowing today for the death of Mary Baker G. Eddy "mother" of the faith, as she originally was called, but of recent years "our leader." While the body of the leader of Christian Science awaits consignment to the tomb, her closets followers prepared a brief statement for the public, which was issued today by Alfred Parlow of the publicity committee of the mother church here. Followers' Statement. "We lose the counsel of our leader."

BIG STRIKE NEAR END

(By United Press Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—The end of the great garment workers strike was foreshadowed this afternoon when 400 cutters voted to accept the peace proposals of the firm of Hart, Schaffner & Marx and return to work. Ten thousand tailors assembled this afternoon to vote on the issue of peace and war.

LITTLE FISH ARE SOAKED

(By United Press Leased Wire.) SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Eight fish dealers, members of the so-called San Francisco fish trust, were fined $250 each today by Judge Cabaniss in the superior court for violating the restraint of trade law. The offenders were the least important members of the combine. Seventeen others who were indicted along with them escaped punishment through a technicality, having testified before the senate investigating committee which assured them of immunity. The maximum penalty for the offense to which the offenders pleaded guilty is $5000. Because, he said, he believed they were only tools of the men who escaped, Judge Cabaniss made the fines light.

MANAGER JIM BARRETT. "Young blood, that's the dope," is the way Silent Jimmy Barrett, new manager of the Milwaukee American association club, views the situation. "No big league graveyard for ours. We'll corral all the youngsters in sight, but never a man will we take that has outlived his usefulness in the big show." Jim Barrett, retired from the big league because of injuries, has succeeded John J. McCloskey and is preparing for 1911. The new leader is after players to make up the 1911 squad. He could get any quantity of players who have started in the major leagues, but he doesn't want them. They do not fit in with his ideas of a club. Barrett knows that players who start downward go fast. Barrett is of the Connie Mack order. He is a thinker, knowing the game from beginning to end, and is seldom in evidence before the public. Harrett has had a wide experience on the diamond. Starting with the Mill league in Athol, Mass., he rose until he was enrolled with the pennant winning Tigers and was dropped only on account of his injuries. Oh, what a gossip a certain clerk in the office of City Clerk Fleming could be—if he wanted to, and dared. For this clerk has been busy all day registering the new women voters of Spokane, and the way he has had to pry into their private history is really a sin and a shame. He has had to learn all about their birth and life and even how old they are—actually, but not for publican. But, or, gee, girls, what he could tell about some of us. Only he dares. His wife won't let him.
