

OLD LOVE TRIUMPHS WHEN YOUTH WEDS MANICURE GIRL

(By United Press Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The announcement of the wedding of Miss Stacia Walsh, a manicure, to Thos. H. Wells, Jr., whose father was an "iron king" in Pittsburgh, revealed a story of a triumph of love over many obstacles.

Here's a New Invention for Toasting and Cooking Stuff

"To what strange uses may we not return," remarks the Melancholy Dane in Shakespeare's great tragedy of Hamlet, and that the Dane was right was amply illustrated this morning.

THE WOMAN IN THE CASE

there was more prospect than pay to his work. He was advanced rapidly, and in five years was receiving teller man's salary, handling thousands, hundreds of thousands of dollars, while his salary—

Well, perhaps we'd better explain. Bank presidents make big salaries, have fine houses, autos, yachts. But bank clerks are paid on the same principle that other kinds of working people are: "Get them as cheap as you can."

So that Fuhrman, according to his associates in the bank, after five or six years there, reaching to the teller's office, guarded thousands of dollars of other men's money for $75 a month.

However that may be, it was generally known to his friends that at times he would quit the bank and work on the docks or in a logging camp.

The iron was being slowly driven year by year, into his soul. So much money in his care, so pitifully little his to keep.

For $75 a month doesn't go very far these days. His father, after a long battle with illness, had died. There were big doctors' and undertakers' bills to meet.

Now if Fuhrman had been one of Tacoma's 500 biggest business men all he'd have had to do would be to go into any bank president's office, explain the situation, sign a few papers and walk out with money enough to swing the deal.

The Temperate Man

Who is the temperate man? Is it he who cannot take a glass of beer without a desire to swallow a distillery or by treating to induce his friends to become insane with him by over-indulgence of intoxicants, and because this misuse of beer is a detriment to his health he wants his fellowman who knows how to use it to quit it also.
