 The Fourth of July celebration to be given on the Exposition grounds at Portland promises to be one of the most notable events to be held at the exposition. Excellent music will be provided for the occasion, and a display of fireworks superior to any seen in Portland, will be the closing center of the day's attractions. Every one should take advantage of the low rates now in effect to the Lewis and Clark exposition. For further information call on or address E. C. Smith, agent O. R. & N. Co.

IN MEMORY OF JOSEPH.

Speech of Yellow Bull at the Unveiling of the Monument to Joseph at Nespellin.
 Pathetic and sad weep addresses of the old comrades and associates of Chief Joseph, at the unveiling of the monument of the departed chieftain at Nespellin, Wash., last week.
 Major Moorhouse secured an interpretation of the speech of Yellow Bull, which was delivered in the Nez Perce tongue before the assembled crowd of whites and Indians. Yellow Bull was one of Joseph's faithful followers and spoke as follows:
 "I am glad to meet you here, my brothers, sisters, children and white friends. When the creator created us on this earth, and he also put the flowers on this earth and he takes us all in his arms and keeps us in peace and friendship and our peace and friendship shall never fade but it will shine forever.
 "I am glad to see our white friends here attending this ceremony. It seems that we have the same feelings and it also seems like this thought would almost wipe my tears away.
 "Joseph is dead, but his words are not dead. His words shall live forever. This monument will stand—Joseph's word will stand as long as this monument. We (the red and white) are both here and the great spirit looks down on us both. If we live right, like Joseph, we shall see him. I have finished."
 Ess-kow-oss, another old friend and companion of Joseph, also made a touching speech in memory of his chieftain, reviewing some of the traits of Joseph's character as known by his intimate friends.

HAS REPENTED.

Echo Man Gets His Liberty by Giving the Necessary Bond.
 Word was received here last evening at the sheriff's office that a man at Echo named Hass, had become drunk and was creating considerable of a stir there by making hostile demonstrations with a pistol, and a request was made for an officer to come for the gentleman. As a result a deputy was sent down and this morning Hass was brought here. However, by that time he had become sober and fully repented of his bad conduct. Accordingly he was allowed to return to Echo on the 9 o'clock train, with the understanding that he give bonds to keep the peace.

Monster Strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. William Krassig returned this afternoon from a visit to the home of Mrs. Krassig's father, William Leach, on Weston mountain, and brought down a sample of strawberries picked on his farm. In a gallon bucket full there were dozens as large as a common hen's egg and the entire lot of berries were twice as large as the ordinary berry. The strawberry acreage on the mountains is rapidly increasing as the farmers find a ready market for them, since the mountain variety comes in later than the irrigated crop.

Known in Eastern Oregon.

Baker City, July 1.—Joseph C. Abbott, the man who killed his wife in a Seattle house of shady repute on last Tuesday and is put down in the news columns as an electrician, is known in these parts. Only such press were supplied as used the articles. The report shows 5000 replies were sent out to controvert unfair reports from Colorado, and many thousands in relation to ex-President Cleveland's recent article and to the address of Cardinal Gibbons at Trinity college commencement.

THREE NEW COUNTIES.

Union County Voters Will Make Demands on Legislature.

Union, July 1.—Since La Grande has taken the county seat of Union county from Union, it is reported in parts of the county that all candidates who would go to the legislature from this county must favor a division of Union county into three counties, with Union as the county seat of one, Elgin as the county seat of the second, and La Grande of the third.

At the last meeting of the legislature it was advised to have the division include two counties only, with the seats of government at Union and La Grande, but the Elgin force, which is all powerful, would not listen to this proposal, and now the creation of three counties is proposed.

La Belle Carmen, a performer in the Jabour animal shows, on the Trail at Portland, was nearly choked to death June 30 by a boa constrictor. It was necessary to kill the snake to break its coils from the woman's body and neck.

Sanctity is much more than stand-offishness.
