

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Great Expectations.

The opening up of a large body of land almost at the doors of North Yakima in the next year or two, which seems to be made certain by the approval of the Tietan irrigation project, will do a great deal for the city. Such an addition to the territory upon which business here relies for support, ought to be good for an increase of at least 50 per cent on our population. But other canals are to be built by the government without a doubt. Millions of dollars will be spent in the valley of Uncle Sam in the next four or five years, and the tide of land in Yakima, Kittitas and Benton counties will probably be trebled. Besides this, new railroads are to be built, and probably suburban lines will soon run out into the country in all directions. These improvements are going to make North Yakima a town of 25,000 people before the next census is taken.—North Yakima Republic.

Ruled Out the Japanese.

District Judge Stewart yesterday held that a native of Japan can not become a citizen of the United States. This decision was rendered in the case of G. C. Tanaker, a Jap, who applied for admission to citizenship of this country. Judge Stewart denied the application on the ground that a native of Japan does not come within the provision of the United States statutes relating to the admission to citizenship of foreigners. The statute provides only for foreigners of the white race and people of African descent. Admission to citizenship was therefore denied. Judge Stewart holds that the same rule would apply to a Chinaman. Mr. Tanaker is a well educated Japanese who has studied law in this country.—Boise Statesman.

Indian Killed on Track.

An Indian named Bill Owhila, was killed under unusual circumstances on Sunday morning, in Union Gap. A Northern Pacific train came through at the usual high speed and the engineer noticed that he had run over something, probably a horse, he thought. The train was stopped and going back to see what was the matter the body of an Indian was found, crushed and disfigured. His horse had been tied to the railroad track and the owner, evidently very drunk, had thrown himself down on the track to take a nap. Dr. Rosser, the county coroner, made a trip to the scene.

COMING FROM THE NORTH.

Over 500 Passengers on the Senator Arriving From Nome.

The steamer Senator, Pacific Coast Steamship company, arrived in port from Nome, Saturday morning, with 519 passengers and $58,999 in gold, says the Seattle Star. The gold dust was consigned to the different banks of Seattle.

The Senator reports excellent weather prevailing during the voyage from Nome. She was also in the same storm while en route north as the Valencia, Tampico and Olympia, during which all three vessels lost a portion of their cargoes.

The vessel brought out many prominent mining men and operators in the Nome section. There are, however, many more yet to come out. The last contingent, it is said, will arrive in Seattle on the Victoria.

Officers of the Senator report that at the time they left Nome, the ship Occidental had discharged only a small portion of her cargo.

The steamer Ina, L. H. Gray & Co., sails Saturday for San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Steamer Harold Dollar sails Monday for San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Steamer Rainier, of the same line, sails Monday from San Francisco for Seattle. The steamer Melville Dollar is now loading flour and wheat at Pier 3 for San Francisco.

CHICAGO SHEEP MARKET.
Lamb's Drop 25 Cents From Last Week's Prices.

Sheep were wanted, native ones had to sell 25 cents lower than Chicago World. Good prime lot of well fed natives made $7.75. The Idaho that brought $6.55 yesterday dropped 15 cents, a few sales of natives were made at $7.65 but they were sorted and strictly prime. Choice lambs, well-sorted, were quotable at $7.50-7.65, while $7.40-7.49 took well sorted good killing lambs. On everything the sort was more severe by 10 per cent than early in the week. Strong weight culls out of choice lambs weighing 60 to 70 lbs. made $6.65-6.50 and were as good as medium lambs selling at $6.25-6.30.

Sheep were wanted. Native ones of good to choice quality sold at $5.50-5.75, with fair to good killers anywhere from $4.75-4.95. An occasional bunch of wethers made $5.75-6.00, anything over the latter price being light weight.

Feeding lambs were 15-20 cents lower than early in the week, good ones going at $6.50. Feeding sheep were an unknown quantity.

and brought the body to North Yakima, where it was turned over to the relatives of the dead man today.—North Yakima Republic.

Dalton on Trial.
James Dalton, alias Edwin Westerman, was placed on trial yesterday in Judge Poindexter's court, charged with the murder of Policeman Henry A. Stotko on the morning of April 4. Dalton has been in custody since three days after the killing. He is regarded by the authorities as a hardened criminal and an all round bad man, having served two terms in penitentiaries.—Spokesman-Review.

Mountain Gem in Commission.
Yesterday the steamer Mountain Gem came down the river from Riparia and reached Arlington at about 1 in the afternoon. Wheat and freight have collected along the river on both sides to the extent that it was necessary to put on additional service, and the Gem will make regular trips. At a point opposite Arlington thousands of sacks of grain are awaiting shipment, as well as other freight at various points.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Kennebec Is Booming.
J. N. Scott returned to Kennebec Friday after spending a few days here with his parents. He is in business in Kennebec, which city, he says, is just now taking on a new boom and before very long there will be considerable movement in real estate. The building of the new railway down the north bank of the Columbia will make times lively around the place.—North Yakima Republic.

Parker Out Under Bonds.
Parker, the man who was brought back from Wyoming charged with resisting an officer while an attempt was being made a year ago to arrest him and the man Irvine, charged with stealing wheat from a Wingville farmer, was yesterday released on a $500 cash bond, furnished by his father at the preliminary hearing in Justice of the Peace Carrey's court.—Baker City Democrat.

Grant County Sheep Sales.
William Swick sold Wednesday 1809 head of ewes and 36 head of bucks to James Mayon, of Burns. The price in the highest paid, being $4.50 per head for ewes and $12 per head for bucks. Sheep to be received at Monument at once.—Monument Enterprise.
