LOCALS AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

The Pastime.
An excellent program as follows for Friday's change. Two Biograph subjects.

"As the Bells Rang Out." Biograph drama. The daughter of a man in high finance is betrothed to a wealthy young broker. Just as the wedding is to take place the father receives a surprise in the way of an arrest for his connection with a crooked banking deal. The detectives allow the ceremony to proceed, the daughter and guests ignorant of their presence. The young people start off on their honeymoon while the father is taken to prison.

"Serious Sixteen." Biograph comedy. A delightful story of love's young dream.

"The Adopted Daughter." Lubin drama. A unique and thrilling story.

"Grandmother." Kalem drama. A dramatic production that will appeal to all.

The Orpheum.
An exceptionally good program for Friday's change, three big feature films.

1. A Postal Substitute. Mellies, drama, 1000 feet long. A thrilling story of an attempt to prevent the delivery of a certain letter which attempt is frustrated by a girl in very romantic way.
2. A Frontier Hero. Edison, 1000 feet. The picture illustrates the dangerous conditions which existed along in the 40's when Indian attacks were a constant menace to every family on the frontier.
3. Hako's Sacrifice. Vitagraph, drama, 1000 feet. A powerful Japanese drama, worked out with such careful attention to details that one feels that for the time one must be in Japan.
4. Lonesome Meyer.
