MAN IS TOO LAZY TO WIND HIS WATCH
Superintendent Briggs of the Linnton rockpile will have to deal for the next 30 days with the laziest man in Oregon. His name is Bert Wright, and while he confesses that he is 31 years old, he has never during his life-time held a job for more than a week at a time. Policeman E. E. Lyons arrested him yesterday afternoon at Union avenue and Holiday street, as he was sauntering along with his hands in his pockets.

"Why don't you go to work?" Lyons asked him.
"Oh, it's too much trouble," Wright answered with a yawn.
Lyons did not wait for further parley but hurried the fellow off to the police station. When he was searched a watch was found in his pocket which had been allowed to run down.
"Why don't you wind your watch?" Lyons demanded.
"Oh, it's too much trouble," the vagrant again responded.
In the Municipal Court Wright thought it was too much trouble to even say a word in his own defense, but when Judge Gebhardt sentenced him to 30 days on the rockpile he looked somewhat disturbed. Briggs has a way of getting work out of the most hardened offenders, and while he has never had to deal with a man too lazy to wind a watch, he believes he will find a way to make Wright break rock as long as he remains at Linnton.—Portland Telegram.

TOP PRICES STILL MAINTAIN IN YARDS

HOLD FIRMLY IN ALL LINES OF LIVESTOCK

Good Run in All Lines Except Sheep and Lambs; Every Branch of Local Trade Is in Good Condition.

Portland Union Stockyards, North Portland, Or., Aug. 11.—With the exception of the sheep market there were liberal arrivals today of livestock. Prices paid were in all instances up to former values, and if better quality had been offered top figures would easily have been reached. While no sales of steers were made beyond $5.35 during the 24 hours, none of this stuff was first class.

In the cow pens there was nothing offering that was worth over $4.50 and this was the best price obtainable in that branch of the North Portland market today.

Lambs sold up to $5.75, this being the high mark for anything except eastern Washington stock. Some very poor ewes were disposed of at $2.25 today.

Another lot of eastern hogs came forward from Nebraska this morning. The shipment consisted of six cars and was sold prior to arrival.

Among the Shippers.
Cattle—McKinnon & Chandler, Willows, two loads; W. B. Ross, Meacham, one load; Kidwell & Caswell, Baker City, one load; Bauman & Johnson, yess, three loads; Steward & Burkhardt, Payette, Idaho, two loads cattle and calves; M. J. Brown, Dilley, one load.

Hogs—Armstrong & Son Nebraska, six loads.

Sheep—G. Relling, Woodburn, one load.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:
Hogs, Cattle, Sheep.
1910 490 378 89
1909 31 112 245
1908 60 240
1907 200
1906 37 249
1905 116 73 344

A year ago today there was a firm tone in all lines of livestock with no change in prices.

THE WHEAT MARKET

GERMAN WHEAT IS HURT SAYS REPORT

Causes Sharp Advance in All World's Markets; Chicago 1-1-2 to 1 3-4c Up.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Damages to Germany's crop was the cause of today's sharp advance in wheat market prices, both here and abroad. Closing here was 1 1-2 to 1 3-4c a bushel above yesterday.

While there was a fractional decline in first cables, the market abroad improved later in the day. Liverpool opened 1-8d lower, but closed 7-8 to 1d above yesterday.

This market started 3-8 to 1-2c higher, and from that moment the market was of bullish disposition.

Broomhall cabled that Argentina shipments for the week would indicate 1,200,000 bushels wheat and 4,000,000 bushels corn.

NEW YORK DRAMATICS.

(By William S. Brewer.)

New York.—It will be two or three weeks before the new theatrical season is well launched—perhaps longer—but the Messrs. Shubert are preparing to start the ball rolling next Monday night with Charles J. Ross in "High Life in Jail," the attraction reopening the Hackett theater. It is described as a musical farce in three acts by Walter Hackett, with lyrics by Ben Shields and music by P. D. Costa. Mr. Ross plays the stellar role of a banker who gets into jail under such comfortable conditions that he never wants to live anywhere else. In addition to Mr. Ross the cast includes Frank Byron, Louis Langdon, Ray Cox, Elsa Ryan, Althea Francis and others. The production is being staged by William C. DeMillo.

Louis Mann, having defied all traditions successfully, is now in the midst of a highly successful and prosperous engagement at the Lyric theater under the management of William A. Brady, appearing in his own three-act farce comedy, "The Cheater." This farce has turned out to be especially appropriate at the present time as it deals with the predicament of a reformer who inherits an all-night saloon of the sort now being investigated by Mayor Gaynor. "The Cheater" enjoys the distinction of being the only comedy now running without music and is voted to be the funniest thing in town.

"Life is a Merry-go-round" as sung by Joseph Cawthorn in "Girles" is a very good indication of the spirit of Frederick Thompson's big summer show at the New Amsterdam theater. The chorus of sixty is as attractive as ever, and its units continue to display an enthusiasm in their work that furnishes grounds for the belief that they enjoy the show as much as the people on the other side of the footlights.

"Reminiscent Ragtime Revue," the latest added novelty to the Follies of 1910 at the Jardin de Paris, gives promise of being the most important feature of the entertainment. It is made up of ragtime songs from other Ziegfeld shows.

The Criterion theater will also reopen next Monday evening under the direction of Mr. Henry B. Harris, who will present James Forbes' new comedy, "The Commuters." Mr. Harris has engaged Orrin Johnson to create the part of Larry Brisco in the new piece.

"The Gamblers," the first of a number of plays presented by the Authors' Producing company, will be brought into New York, after a short preparatory tour, for an extended engagement. "The Gamblers" is Mr. Charles Klein's latest effort.

Walter Jones, the comedian who appeared last season in "Going Some" under the management of the Messrs. Shubert has been added to the company which is to present "The Simple Life" at the Hackett theater, which is the same as "High Life in Jail."

Another early season production, "The Drummer," which will be produced by the Messrs. Shubert and William A. Brady. The play is a musical version of "What Happened to Jones," with book and lyrics by George Broadhurst, author of the original and music by Augustus Barrett.

POKER CRAZE SEIZES NEWPORT BRIDGE HAS LOST ITS CHARM
New York.—Bridge having lost much of its charm in the eyes of excitement loving society folks, the rumor now afloat about that safety valves for young bloods and the matrons and young girls in this city's social colony and Newport, Lenox and Naragansett Pier have contented themselves with bridge. A few clandestine poker parties have so charmed society women that bridge will be discarded at Newport and poker will take its place.

Poker parties are all the craze now in London. Lady Page gives one every week, and it is whispered that more than ten thousand dollars in stakes often change hands at one of Lady Page's calm and placid poker entertainments.

RACE PROBLEM IN CUBA IS SERIOUS

WHITES AND BLACKS CLASH CONTINUOUSLY

Negroes Believe They Have Not Received Equal Representation in the Government Which They Helped to Secure.

Washington.—Reports of outbreaks in Cuba, which are of the intermittent and unceasing variety, are but the reflection of a problem which threatens the new republic with the most serious consequences according to the experts who are in touch with affairs in the island. This problem is the race question, and the situation is more acute than in the United States.

It is for this reason that the government at Havana takes no chances with small outbreaks. Troops are at once rushed to the scene as soon as a disturbance is reported. In every instance, so far, the disorders have been suppressed but the difficulty of which they are but a manifestation is not materially diminished.

At the time of the war of liberation when the island undertook to lift the yoke of Spanish dominion, fully 60 per cent of the army came from the province of Santiago. A large portion of this army was made up of negroes. Whether or not they were given promise of equal representation with the whites beside whom they fought, or promised a share of the public offices under the new government, the negroes have not received any of the offices, and their privileges are in fact not so extensive as those of the white element of the population. They feel that they have not been treated fairly, and since the establishment of the present government, there have been numerous small outbreaks of a revolutionary character—disturbances which presage a more serious revolution later if conditions do not change.

Until recently the outbreaks have been lead by negroes themselves. The last affair of this sort, which was promptly suppressed, was led by General Miniet, a discontented white officer. Under white leadership the agitation becomes much more serious. The danger becomes greater as the number of malcontents and agitators increase. The negro element of Santiago has been trained in military experience. It is very numerous. As it needs to become a serious menace to the leadership of competent white officers. The prediction is freely made that trouble originating from this source will lead to the overthrow of the republican government, and necessitate the third interference of the United States in the affairs of the island.

QUEEN MOTHER IN DENMARK.

Will Not Return to England Before Christmas.
Copenhagen.—Queen Alexandra of England and Empress Dowager Marie of Russia are now at their villa near Klampenborg and will remain there until fall, when Alexandra returns to England. It is probable her majesty will make brief visits in Norway and Sweden during the summer.

Princess Victoria, who is with her mother, is going to Christiania on a visit to the king and queen of Norway, and will probably be their guest until the beginning of October, when she will join Queen Alexandra in Denmark. From Copenhagen Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria will proceed towards the end of August to Christiania to spend a few weeks with the king and queen of Norway and will return to this country about a month later. Her majesty is not likely to be seen much in London until she comes up to town from Sandarling to do her Christmas shopping.
