Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Baby Boy Is Born.
Dr. J. C. Temple reports the birth of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dyer of 703 Lewis street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Former Policeman Injured.
"Phil" Waters was seriously injured today while hauling wood near Meacham. He was formerly employed on the police force in this city.

Stapish Case is Ended.
The argument in the W. J. Stapish case was ended yesterday afternoon and Judge Phelps has the matter now under deliberation.

Warden Of Pen Here.
J. W. Snooks, warden of the state penitentiary was in Pendleton last evening to secure an escaped convict who was picked up at Umatilla several days ago.

Players Get Cowboy Hats.
The Pendleton ball players are now looking like real buckaroos, some of their friends having presented them with big sombreros. By way of advertising the Round-up, they will wear the hats during the first inning of each game in Boise next week.

Plenty of Grain Sacks Here.
Though a shortage in the grain sack supply is being felt in some farming communities, local dealers declare that they have plenty to run the farmers here through the season. The price of sacks in the local market now is 12 1-2 cents.

Police Court Offenders.
E. A. Williams and William Daley were arrested last night for racing their horses on the streets and this morning forfeited five dollars bail each by way of atonement. Two drunks, William Baker and Jerry Flambaugh, each took three days in jail.

Phone Number Changed.
Instead of being Main 99, the phone number for the Accommodation committee of the Round-up, will be Main 219, according to a notice given today by Chairman Paul Sperry. Parties wishing to call the committee are asked to call this number.

Fourth Wedding in Week.
Rev. Nathan Evans of the Methodist church, has been an arch conspirator with Dan Cupid during the past week. Last night at 7 o'clock when he pronounced William W. Day of Columbia county, Washington, and Miss Jacqueline Corkery man and wife, it was his fourth ceremony in a week. The Day-Corkery nuptials occurred at the Methodist parsonage and was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Brown, friends of the couple.

Round-Up Folders Arrive.
One of the most comprehensive descriptions of the Round-up ever given is contained in the folder just taken off the press by the O-W. R. & N. company and now being circulated over the Harriman system. It is a fourteen page affair, illustrated by splendid cuts and containing a description of the various events written in very readable form. The cover design, done in colors, shows a cowboy on a bucking broncho.

Mortgage is Foreclosed.
Judge Phelps yesterday handed down a decree in the case of Susan F. Adams vs. A. H. Sunderman et al by which the $1500 mortgage held by the plaintiff on the defendant's south Main street property is foreclosed and the sheriff ordered to sell it at public sale, the proceeds to be used in defraying the cost of the suit, satisfying the claim of the plaintiff and the accrued interest on the $1500 from August 11, 1909, together with a $150 attorney fee.

Medford People Are Coming.
M. A. Rader, formerly well known furniture dealer of this city and father of the Pendleton third baseman, writes from his present home at Medford that there is already a carload of people made up to attend the Round-up next month and that he thinks before the time comes the thriving little southern Oregon city will have two cars filled. People there are enthusiastic about the Pendleton show, he declares, and he wants some posters and literature sent to him in order that he may do more missionary work. Mr. Rader declares both he and his wife will be here for the Round-up.

erson is a prime favorite in Freewater where, even his democracy is not held against him and his humorous stories and witty, though good natured thrusts at both parties and the speakers who had preceded him evoked roars of laughter and frequent applause.

He said that knowing Judge Lowell for the clean, upright and manly citizen he is, he did not see "for the life of him" how he could stay in the party he so staunchly upholds; that he would make a good democrat and ought to come over into the fold without delay. As for Senator Mulkey, he said that he reminded him of a mermaid, who was "not woman enough to hug, and not fish enough to fry;" and as he had gone half way, he had better finish his journey into the democratic ranks. He talked entertainingly on the issues of the campaign and predicted success for the democratic ticket, from president down to county officers throughout Oregon at the coming election.

He paid a high personal tribute to Dr. Lane who, he said would make Oregon "a mighty good senator."
