SOCIETY

Unrivalled of the season's social events in brilliance, beauty and charming hospitality was the reception and dancing party given last evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall by Mrs. Leon Cohen, Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny, Mrs. Wilson E. Brock, Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield and Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock to a large coterie of their friends. It was one of those rare occasions where close attention to appointment and detail produces an effect of completion which immediately finds response in the social soul of man.

The big hall never looked more attractive than it did last evening. The decorations were at once beautiful and artistic. Long strings of Japanese lanterns and inverted Japanese parasols, festooned from the center, cast an oriental glow over the scene, while the profusion of cherry blossoms brought further memories of the land "where the sun is like gold." Japanese screens shut off the emptiness of the corners.

In one corner of the hall refreshment punch was dispensed to the thirsty dancers, while in the balcony above savory coffee and delicious cakes were served. The north alcove had been fitted up as a smoking room to which the gentlemen could repair between dances. The music was of a most inspiring quality and was one notable element of the success of the occasion. Many evening gowns of richness and beauty were worn by the ladies present.

The reception was held between the hours of 8:30 and 9:30 and was attended principally by those guests who did not care for the number found a way through present and when the last strains of the "good-night" number had died away it found the guests reluctant to depart. One of the features of the evening was the moonlight dance to Hawaiian music just before the final number. The lights were turned off and a single searchlight from the balcony turned its rays over the floor. At the same time a shower of confetti descended from above the heads of the dancers.

Tomorrow afternoon the ladies of the city are asked to assemble in the Commercial club rooms at 2:30 to listen to a short address by Tom Richardson who is touring the state in the interests of the development of Oregon. He has a message to convey to the ladies and his messages are always told in a most interesting and entertaining way. At the close of his address the ladies of the Civic Club will hold a meeting in the same rooms.

Miss Edna Myrtle Smock of Weeton and Harry J. Driscoll of Dayton, Washington, were married yesterday in Walla Walla by the Rev. C. E. Howard, pastor of the Marvin M. E. church, at the parsonage, 206 North Fourth street. Only the necessary witnesses were present. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll will make their home near Dayton.

Miss Olive Gwinn will leave this evening for Berkeley to resume her studies in the University of California after spending the holiday month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gwinn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Adams were in Pendleton last evening to attend the dancing party at the Eagle-Woodman hall.

Miss Maud Miller of Portland is visiting with friends in the city.

SHORT LINE WANTS NOW TO WIPE CAMP OFF MAP ENTIRELY

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 9.—The unkindest cut of all for Copperfield is the request of E. C. Manson, general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line, made to the state railroad commission for authority to abandon the railroad station at Copperfield. "Now that the saloons are closed," and handle what little business there is from Homestead. Superintendent Manson wants to reduce service on various branch lines because of the general slump in business.

"We want to close our agency at Copperfield, where there is practically no business, Homestead being able to take care of all of it," writes Superintendent Manson. "What little business we did have at Copperfield probably will be a thing of the past, due to the telegram from Governor West, which I quote: 'The town of Copperfield, Oregon, has been placed under martial law, and all shipments of intoxicating liquors into said town over the Northwestern branch are hereby forbidden until further notice.'"

Mr. Manson asks permission to reduce the train service between Robinson and Homestead to one or two trains a week, and on the Vale branch between Vale and Brogan to tri-weekly runs.

FORTUNATE PARENT.
"Why, Mrs. Murphy, you look quite festive today. What's up, then?"
"Well, 'Aven't you 'eard my Bill comes out today?"
"But I thought the judge gave him seven years."
"Yes; but they're letting him out nearly two years earlier 'cos 'e's behaved so well."
"Lor', Mrs. Murphy, what a comfort it must be to you to 'ave such a good son!"—Tit-Bits.

dresser, and after the combs, hair-pins, etc., are placed on it, it is drawn up and hung by the side of the dresser. The bone rings which take the place of a casing, make it very easy to manipulate, and it is not only an aid in keeping the dresser spick and span, but serves as a receptacle for the hair dressing necessities.

Worth Knowing.

Ordinary baking soda is an excellent cleaning medium for mud stains. Dampen a cloth, dip it into the soda and then rub the offending spots. If pressing is necessary, do it on the wrong side of the material.

When next putting a meringue on a pie or pudding, sprinkle the meringue with sugar just before putting into the oven. This gives a sugary coat that is a pleasing change.

If the bamboo furniture has a tendency to crack, rub it over with a polish made of equal parts of spirits of turpentine and linseed oil, using a soft rag.

Often discolorations on enamel ware may be removed by rubbing with cloth dipped in vinegar.

To polish gilt frames rub them over with a cloth dipped in the water in which onions have been boiled. —Newark News.

Boil the Wicks.

Most housekeepers are careful about keeping the burners of coal-oil lamps clean and bright by frequent boiling, but how many know it is of greater importance to keep the wicks clean? If lampwicks are boiled for 15 minutes once a month in vinegar and then dried before using, they will give a clear, bright light.—Mothers Magazine.

A Possible Reason.

Boreleigh (at 11:40 in the evening)—I love that dreamy look in your eyes. I have never seen it in any other girl's.

Miss Bright (stiffing a yawn)—Perhaps you don't stay as late with them as you do here.—Boston Transcript.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer a great deal from pain in the back, bearing-down feeling, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

TWO OF A KIND.

A man walked on the railroad track. But didn't hear the whistle. And all they found of his remains. Was whiskers on a thistle. Just like the man who with cement Put up a building tall. He was on top when the building fell.

And wasn't found at all. The moral is—when you've got to walk Walk on a brick paved street And when you build, build out of brick For brick are hard to beat.

DRINKS OBTAINED EASILY BY BOYS

COPPERFIELD, Ore., Jan. 9.—Three militiamen under Sergeant Renard of Portland are maintaining the martial law in Copperfield that was declared last Friday by Governor West. An unsuccessful attempt to induce the deposited city officials to resign was made by Lieutenant Colonel Lawson and Sheriff Rand before they quit the district. Mayor Stewart and some of his lieutenants held out, however, and until they see fit to give up the military will control Copperfield. Colonel Lawson returned from Huntington, accompanied by Sheriff Rand and Attorney Frank T. Collier. The sheriff knows everyone in Copperfield and tried to induce the recalcitrant officials to give up peacefully and permit him to appoint a deputy sheriff to handle the situation there so that martial law could be withdrawn. Ex-Mayor Stewart and ex-Recorder Clark would not budge from their stronghold in the rear of Stewart's liquorless saloon, however, so they gave it up for the time being, contenting themselves with examining some of the citizens of the place to get at conditions as they were before Miss Hobbs and the troops came.

Among the witnesses examined by Collier were several boys ranging from 14 to 18 years old, who testified they had bought drinks at both Stewart & Warner's stand and at Wiegand's saloon as often as they wished, including Sundays. Harold Burns, son of one of the new committeemen appointed by Lawson, testified that he had taken $2.50 from his mother, had used it up in gambling and slot machines and then had got drunk in the mayor's saloon.

Other youths testified they were able to procure drinks when they wished, some by entering the furnishing store maintained by Wiegand in the rear of his saloon and asking for a pair of "shoes." The shoes, in the shape of a bottle of beer or flask of whiskey, would be waiting for them on the shelf, they said.

Mrs. A. W. Parker told how, because she lived next door to Martin Knezevich, who was hated by the mayor and his clique, she feared to go to bed at night, expecting she would be burned out a third time.

TOT SWALLOWS CHAIN, BAR STICKS IN THROAT
LA GRANDE, Jan. 9.—Swallowing a watch chain with a bar at the end, the six month old child of Jeff Gilman caused a commotion on train No. 6 when the father tried to recover the chain by pulling and the bar lodged crossways in the little one's throat. The chain was gradually disappearing down the little one's throat as the train reached here and the tot was hurried to a doctor, who by prompt work dilated the throat and removed the bar, which was one and a quarter inches long, saving the child's life. The family was traveling from Nevada, Wash. to Kentucky.

Stanfield Resident Dies.
STANFIELD, Ore., Jan. 9.—W. C. Spencer, of this place, died from a complication of diseases. He became ill only the evening before with a gripe, which, it is said, caused a complication of heart and lung trouble. Mr. Spencer was a native of the Province of Ontario, Canada, and came here three years ago. He has been working as a carpenter and contractor. A widow survives. It is planned to send the body east for burial.
