SWINE IMPROVES IN PORTLAND MARKET

(Courtesy Friday's Journal.)

PORTLAND, Ore.—Hog market is retaining some of the strength lost here during recent days and two loads went this morning at $8.20, or a nickel above the previous top. The market in general is not considered higher, the two loads that brought the nickel advance being of slightly better quality than stuff that has been selling in the yards during the last few days at $8.15.

There was a slightly better feeling in the hog trade at leading stockyard centers east of the Rockies for the day, indicating that the severe liquidation of the last few days has about forced values to the low point.

General hog market range: Best light $8.15 @ $8.20; Medium light $8.10; Good and heavy $8.00 @ $8.05; Rough and heavy $6.00 @ 7.00.

Cattle Market is Slow.

Market for cattle continues slow at North Portland with killers showing little interest in arrivals. Most of the recent sales in the local yards were forced and at the expense of values. Nearly all leading killers are "long" on cattle and therefore purchase only when there is something extra offering in quality or they are able to force a lower quotation.

General cattle market range: Selected steers $7.00 @ 7.15; Good to prime $6.85 @ 7.00; Good to choice $6.50 @ 6.75; Ordinary to fair $5.75 @ 6.00; Fancy cows $6.00; Good to prime $5.75 @ 5.80; Ordinary $5.25 @ 5.50; Selected calves $8.00 @ 8.25; Fancy bulls $4.50 @ 4.75; Ordinary $4.00 @ 4.25.

Sheep Continue Strong.

Market for mutton continues to reflect a very strong tone at North Portland. Most of the stuff, as during recent days, came forward direct to killers this morning, therefore there was little stock available for the open market at North Portland during the day. The situation is fully as strong as yesterday in all lines.

General mutton range: Best yearlings $5.50 @ 5.60; Old wethers $5.25 @ 5.35; Best ewes $4.35 @ 4.75; Best east mountain lambs $6.00 @ 6.25; Valley light young lambs $5.65 @ 5.85; Heavy spring lambs $5.00 @ 5.50.

Livestock Shippers.

Hogs—S. G. Jordan, Oakesdale, Wash., 1 load; Thornton, Wash., 1 load; E. J. Donnelly, Weller, Idaho, 1 load; J. D. Jones, Tillamook, 1 load; W. E. Everett, Wasco, 1 load. Cattle—J. Fisher, Oakridge, three loads. Sheep—E. F. Bennington, Lyle, Wash., 8 loads direct to killers; T. R. Howitt, Bend, 1 load. Mixed Stuff—Patton & Overton, Halsey, 1 load cattle and hogs; H. A. Yocum, Whitson, 1 load cattle, calves hogs and sheep; C. F. Luck, Molalla, 1 load hogs and sheep direct to Union Meat company.

CHOPPY MARKET FOR WHEAT

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 26.—It was an unsatisfactory wheat market, as prices were choppy. Several times during the session December had sharp dips under $1.10 and the May $1.16 1-2 or lower, bottom prices being $1.09 1-4 and $1.15 1-4. This was followed by a rally of about 1c for both months. The market near the close was about 2-5c lower than Thursday. Cash wheat was quoted easier. Primary re-

Market had a half cent reaction later on with a bearish turn in which. Near the close prices were only about 1-4c under Thursday's. Shipping sales, 240,000 bushels.

Export houses were active in the oats trade all day and sales were reported at 375,000 bushels, chiefly to exporters. There was an early rally in futures to 50c for December and 53 1-4c for May. The market is now 1-2c changed from Thursday at 1-2c under these prices.

John Wanamaker, the noted merchant, who believes that prosperity for American manufacturers is very near at hand. After a careful study of the situation he has stated that he believes conditions will take a turn for the better within the next few days. "The scaffolding is now up for the new building," Mr. Wanamaker says. "This includes the adjustment of the cotton situation and the easing up of the strain in financial obligations, in the way of bonds, although the rate of exchange is now higher than normally and will probably be reduced. And so everything, I think, points toward easier times."
