EASTERN OREGON WINS FIRST ROUND IN R. R. COMMISSION CHANGE

RITNER BILL IS PASSED IN THE HOUSE AFTER A HEATED DEBATE.

Measure Provides for Redistricting the State—It Will Now go to the Senate, and, if it Passes and is Signed by Governor Becomes Effective in Two Years.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 3.—Eastern Oregon won its fight for reorganization of the Railroad Commissioner districts.

The bill providing redistricting of the state to conform with the congressional districts was passed after a heated debate in which Representatives Ritner and Forbes of the Eastern Oregon delegation, charged that members of the present Railroad Commission have been active in lobbying against the proposed change. The house at the same time voted down a proposed substitute favored by Representative Wentworth of Portland, chairman of the committee on railroads and transportation, to elect all the commissioners from the state at large.

The present law provides for election of one commissioner at large, one from western Oregon exclusive of Multnomah, Columbia and Clatsop counties and the other from those three counties and eastern Oregon. Under this arrangement one commissioner comes from Portland, one from Albany and the third from Cottage Grove. Eastern Oregon is not represented on the present board and it was for the purpose of gaining representation that the bill passed was introduced by Representative Ritner.

The change—if it is passed by the senate and signed by the governor—will become effective in two years.

About forty ladies were very charmingly entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Thompson, 121 Monroe street. Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Mrs. James Thompson being hostesses. It was the first of a two-day party, about the same number of ladies being entertained this afternoon. Bridge was played during the afternoon and honors were won by Mrs. Laura Nash and Mrs. George Hartman, Jr. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served.

A very interesting afternoon was spent at the Washington school yesterday, the occasion being the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association. Inasmuch as "Child Welfare Week" in Oregon commences February 17, the program was largely a discussion of the work of the first grade and dramatization of the scenes from "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by the fifth grade entertained the gathering before the discussion was commenced. Mrs. T. M. Henderson, who presided at the meeting, read a very instructive paper on "Child Welfare, Its Aims and Purposes" and Mrs. Carl Power followed with an equally interesting talk on the "Big Brother and Sister Movement and the Juvenile Court." Dumplings

For Soups, Stews and Fricasseed Chicken

Left overs of roast lamb, veal or beef, the cheaper cuts of fresh meats, and fowls too old for roasting, make delicious and nourishing stews. K C Dumplings make them doubly attractive and the whole dish is most economical—an object to most families while meats are so high and must be made to go as far as possible.

K C Dumplings

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, the well known baking expert.

2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 cup shortening; milk or cream.

Sift together three times, the flour, baking powder and salt; into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough less stiff than for biscuits.

Allow the stew to boil down so that the liquid does not cover the meat or chicken. Add half a cup of cold water to stop its boiling and drop the dough in large spoonfuls on top of the meat or chicken. Cover and let boil again for 15 minutes.

Made with K C Baking Powder and steamed in this way, dumplings are as light as biscuits and are delicious with thickened gravy.

This recipe is adapted from one for Chicken Pot Pie in "The Cook's Book" by Janet McKenzie Hill, editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. The book contains 90 excellent recipes for things that are good to eat and that help reduce the cost of living.

"The Cook's Book" sent free for the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder. Send to Jaques Mig. Co., Chicago.

Belgian Dispute Discouraged.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Belgians who remained at home and the Belgians who fled to England have for some time been carrying on a discussion in Independence Belge (now published in London) as to which better served their country. WHAT the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions

EVELYN THAW AT PASTIME.

"Threads of Destiny" Is Fascinating Five-Reel Feature.

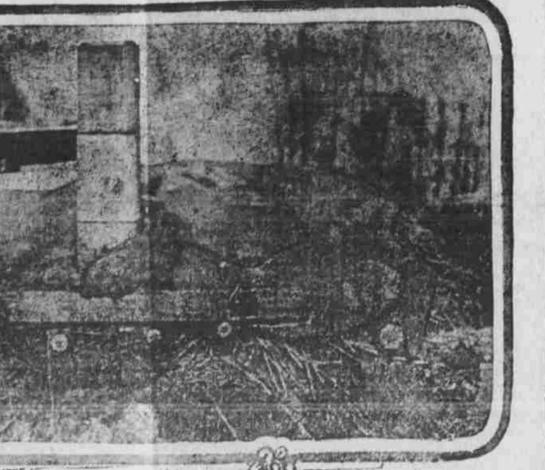

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the little woman on whom the country's eyes have been turned for years, comes to the Pastime today in a thrilling five-reel feature, "Threads of Destiny."

Less than a year ago the little actress appeared on the Portland, Ore., stage in a vaudeville skit on her first tour since the tragedy and trials that have blighted her life. For years she remained out of her profession until the storm had blown over and the people began to sympathize more than ever with her as the plaything of the fates.

In "Threads of Destiny" she makes what probably will be her last public appearance on the stage, whether before the footlights or the moving picture camera. For her part in the play she is said to have received $20,000. She almost has decided to abandon her profession and retire to some estate where she may live in quiet with her son.

William, the boy, is featured in the fascinating play with her. She is supported by an all-star cast, led by Jack Clifford. The picture is to be shown two days.
