CHRIST GIVEN OPIATE AS HE SUFFERED, SAYS HAUP

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Christ was given an opiate as he suffered on the cross, Dr. Paul Haupt, professor of Semitic languages in Johns Hopkins university, told the American Philosophical society here.

Dr. Haupt's paper was entitled, "Opium in the Bible." He said the "gall with wine proffered the Savior," as told in Matthew xxvii.34, indicated by strict interpretation a bitter fluid and opium.

"Myrrh," told of in Mark xv.23 denotes the drug.

"The Talmud," the professor declared, "states that a 'cup of wine with lebonah,' was given criminals before their execution. Lebonah means incense, as a rule, but in this case it was used for opium."

MEMBER TAX COMMISSION TO DISCUSS VALUATIONS ON SATURDAY

J. E. EATON OF STATE BOARD WILL BE AT MEETING HERE ON SATURDAY.

For the purpose of meeting Umatilla county taxpayers and discussing with them the property valuations here, J. E. Eaton, member of the state tax commission and of the state board of equalization, will be in Pendleton Saturday. A meeting will be held in the Commercial association rooms at 2 o'clock and all taxpayers are invited to be present. Similar meetings will be held in Freewater and Milton Monday, the Freewater meeting to be at 2 p. m. and the Milton one at 7:15 p. m.

The meetings will be of importance inasmuch as the valuations ascertained by Mr. Eaton's personal investigation will become the basis of the next state tax. This is a new plan which the board of equalization is putting into effect and so far it is proving satisfactory, according to a letter received by Assessor Strain this morning from Mr. Eaton.

Mr. Eaton will have in his possession descriptions of various properties in Umatilla county, selecting them from the records. These properties will be distributed over the county so that they will be reasonably representative. At the meeting he will question the taxpayers familiar with the properties as to the correct valuations. These valuations he will compare with those on the assessor's roll to determine how near the latter are to full valuation.

The state tax of Umatilla county runs from $150,000 to $200,000 a year so that it will behoove the taxpayers to see to it that their property is not over appraised.

Trawler Is Sunk.

GRIMSBY, England, April 27.—The trawler Recolo was blown up Monday in the North Sea. Several of the crew are missing. It is unknown yet whether the Recolo was torpedoed or struck a mine.

Avezzano Again Shaken.

AVEZZANO, Italy, April 26. via Paris.—A strong earthquake occurred and lasted several seconds. It was preceded and accompanied by deep rumblings.

Great alarm was caused among the people, who have not yet recovered from the recent disastrous earthquake in this section.

It seems that the epicentrum was at Tagliacozzo, where several houses and a historic castle, already damaged by the last earthquake, were badly shaken. Some tottering walls fell. Assistance has been dispatched from this place.

Officials Are to Testify.

OREGON CITY, April 28.—Half of the officers of Clackamas county will testify in the suit of L. L. Levings, a Portland detective, against the county for $2000, which will be tried before Circuit Judge Eakin at Hillsboro, William A. Mulvey, special attorney for the county; Judge Grant B. Dimick and Thomas A. Burke, who will assist in the defense, left for the Washington county seat.

County Clerk Harrington, County Judge Anderson, Commissioner Mattoon, ex-County Commissioner Smith, ex-Sheriff Mass and probably District Attorney Hedges are among the witnesses.

Cotton Shippers Protest.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The fact that American cotton shipments totalling many thousands of bales and all destined to neutral ports are being held up by the allies is giving cotton exporters great concern.

It was learned here that the state department has been requested to make special efforts in the case of five steamers now detained in European ports.

Senator Smith of Georgia, who has denounced the subject at the state department, said that at least a half dozen ships were being held.

Yes, Cordelia, the female book-keeper may be a countess.

The spirit of war pervades everything in the fighting countries of Europe and even before it influenced styles in woman's apparel, it spread to the clothing of children. The photograph shows two English children, sons of Lieutenant-Colonel Concanon of the Royal Irish Rifles in Hyde Park London, with their nurse. They are dressed in khaki, the suits being replicas of the uniforms worn by the troops in their father's regiment. The children enjoy wearing their uniforms hugely and usually add to their martial appearance by carrying tin swords and popguns.

THIS TURTLE CAN PLAY PIANO; MAN WINS BET

OAKLAND, Cal., April 25.—Can a turtle play the piano?
Constable William C. Allen made a bet that he had one that could, and collected. Joseph Kreig, and a few others, are "laying off" Allen, however. Kreig remarked that he had a hen that ate nails when Allen mentioned his turtle that played a piano. Bets were made that Allen was a nature faker and all then trekked out to his house.

"Seated at the piano was a bearded stranger. At Allen's request he started playing.

"Pay me," said Allen. "This is John C. Turtle of Philadelphia."

ARRANGES PECULIAR WAY IN WHICH TO DIE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 25.—If stories told the police are true, Arthur Hearn Cowl of New York committed suicide in a most remarkable manner at the home of Miss Emily Wheeler in Stratford. Cowl died at midnight from the effects of a bullet wound in his head. Miss Wheeler, it is said, was handed a ring by Cowl and while she was admiring the trinket Cowl slipped a ribbon into her hand. The ribbon apparently was attached to his waistcoat. The girl asked what it was for, whereupon he requested her to pull it, saying it was a surprise. As she jerked the ribbon, a concealed revolver in Cowl's pocket exploded and the bullet entered his brain. Cowl recently suffered a nervous breakdown.

Road Work to Commence.

KELSO, Wash., April 26.—With the release of state highway funds by the decision of the state supreme court contracts for several pieces of construction work on the Pacific Highway and permanent highways in Cowlitz county will be let.

Bids will be received May 3 by the state highway commission for the surfacing of two miles of the Pacific highway north of Carrols and three miles south of Kalama with crushed rock. Bids will be opened at the Auditor's office at Kalama, May 17 for construction of about a mile of Pacific highway connecting the improvements south of Kelso with those north of Carrols. On the same date bids will be opened for the construction of more than a mile of concrete highway just out of Woodland.
