Turks See German Plays.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 15.—A German theater has just been opened here, and bids fair to be as popular as any Turkish house. A cast of Turkish actors, under German leadership, is engaged in mastering and presenting classical German plays, as well as a number of comedies, in the Turkish language.

Parts of "Faust," "Schiller's," "The Robbers," and "William Tell," as well as an excellent translation of Goethe's "Egmont," have been successfully given thus far. Heretofore the modern Turkish theaters have presented almost exclusively French drama, and with small success. The great tide of pro-German feeling in Constantinople at present is materially aiding the new venture.

Naturally, Germany is looking forward to bumper crops having farmed out over a million prisoners.

Podapst Plays at War.
BUDAPEST, Aug. 15.—A new form of entertainment provided for the public here is a miniature battlefield in which a full company of invalided soldiers have built a series of trenches, with underground shelters, decorated and furnished as they are at the front.

Every afternoon at 4 o'clock the mimic enemy's trench is mined and blown up. Thousands watch this operation daily, the soldiers acting as guides and explaining all the details of the operations to the interested women and boys.

ITCHING, BLISTERED SKIN-ERUPTION ALL HIS LIFE, NOW CURED

Nov. 10, 1914.—"All my life, until about a year ago, I was troubled with itching and sores over my entire body. The itching and burning was terrible, and I could hardly sleep. I used many treatments that were unsuccessfull and did not give me any relief. I started using Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and they helped me wonderfully. I WAS RELIEVED AT ONCE, and after about two dozen applications I can say that I was free and cured of that awful disease. My skin now is as clear as anybody's." (Signed) Geo. Whitaker, Jr., R. F. D. No. 54, Caledonia, N. Y. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

IS YOUR TOILET SOAP SAFE?
Many toilet soaps contain harsh, injurious alkali. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and to it is added the Resinol medication. This gives it soothing, healing properties which clear the complexion, comfort tender skins and keep the hair healthy.

SPORTS

Has Paul Strand Arrived at Last?

That Pitcher Paul Strand, formerly with the Walla Walla team of the Western Tri-state league, promises to come into the spotlight this fall as a National league wonder, is indicated by an interview given recently in St. Paul, Minnesota, by Manager Stallings, of the Boston Braves. Stallings said that Strand, who has suffered for the past six weeks with rheumatism, is recovering rapidly, and that the young twirler is the basis for Stallings' high hopes.

Strand will be used regularly from this time on to counteract the loss of Pitcher James, whose retirement is one of the greatest tragedies of the national sport. James is but 24 years of age and was one of the best pitchers in the National league last year.

SAYS FRUITMEN SHOULD USE THE AUCTIONS MORE

Arthur M. Geary, representing the American Fruit and Produce Auctions Association, was a visitor in Umatilla county for a few hours last week on his way to Spokane. Returning, he will speak in Freewater September 2.

Mr. Geary's mission is to show how the auction sales are misused by apple-growers. He says they are not used at all, save for fruit that can be sold in no other way, and consequently they get only poor prices, and as a result the prices always are low. California fruit-growers, he says, and all of it, therefore, brings a good price.

Regarding the situation in orchards of the west, he says:

"The growers in each district that I have visited during the last two weeks each have their own particular difficulties, aside from the common one of proper marketing."

"In Hood River, the apple scab will seriously diminish their output of extra fancy and fancy apples. In Wenatchee a hailstorm injured badly the fruit of several of the orchards. The effect of the storm will not be felt appreciably by the valley as a whole, but several of the orchardists were badly hit."

"In the Rogue River valley the orchardists who have their orchards under irrigation are prospering. The others, unless they are very favorably located are feeling the effect of lack of moisture. The rainfall is 12 inches behind normal there."

"In both Hood River and White Salmon, the growers of cherries, pears and berries, particularly, are enthused over the opening of a large new cannery at The Dalles."

"The growers appear to be almost universally holding out for cash buyers for their apples. This system, strictly adhered to, may bring satisfactory results during the year, because of the light output of apples in view for this season. But the results of the last year, when the crop was larger, have shown that the large receiving apple jobbers of the country do not have sufficient outlets to handle the apples of full crops. Not only did the growers lose from lack of demand for their fruit, but the jobbers themselves lost money upon the apples in which they invested their money. It is with this tremendous problem of the immediate future that my talks upon the fruit auctions deal."

SAFETY AND NATIONAL EFFICIENCY.

By Ben H. Williams, Statistician, State Industrial Accident Commission.
Germany has been heralded as the nation of efficiency. Disregarding the wastes of the present war and considering solely the industrial side of the nation while at peace, it is found that she has been able to transform her national energy into results with the least possible friction. The world has been amazed at her strength and resources. It is no wonder, therefore, that as one of the phases in the movement for greater efficiency she has been foremost in the work of accident prevention.

Safety education has there become a national movement. It has been made a matter of constant popular interest. It has been taught in schools and colleges. Trade schools have instituted special courses for the development of safety engineering. The two best equipped safety museums in the world are located at Berlin and Munich. In these are to be found the latest scientific appliances for the prevention of accidents and disease.

The employer's mutual accident association under the supervision of the Imperial insurance office have long carried on campaigns of inspection and general safety work. The result has been to place Germany unquestionably first among the nations in the work of accident prevention.

Dr. Zacher, director of the German Imperial bureau of statistics, estimated the annual saving in wage-earning efficiency, resulting from prevention and insurance against accidents and sickness, as amounting to $238,000,000 per year.

German employers agree that this has been an important factor in the industrial advance of that empire.

America, in facing the now inevitable struggle for industrial supremacy, with its consequent severe competition, may do well to turn to her methods of proverbial waste and recklessness of life and limb and learn from Germany her secrets of industrial efficiency.

The greatest trouble will come when the war mules begin to retreat "for strategic reasons."

Grayson of Savannah, Ga., declared in accepting a Panama-Pacific medal for the Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which he was elected grand president at the recent national convention in Spokane.
