

RUSSIANS CLAIM FRESH VICTORIES TOWARD GALICIA

Violent Fighting Still Underway in Region of Illuxt; Germans Claim They Hold Town.

SLAV SUCCESS ON STRYPA

While Kaiser Is Busy With Serbians Forces of Czar Take Offensive Elsewhere—Claim Germans Are Driven Back in Disorder—Prisoners Taken.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 14.—Russian successes continue. From Dvinsk to Galicia new victories are gained constantly. It is officially announced. Illuxt in the Dvinsk region is still the center of violent action. Though the Germans claim to hold the town proper, the war office reported a Slav victory on the heights to the northwest, followed by the repulse of the German counter attacks. South of the Pripet river on the left bank of the Strypa, north of Rafalovka, the Germans were driven out in disorder. Several villages and hundreds of Teutons were captured. The Slav successes along the Strypa are complete.

CZAR'S FORCES MAY LAND ON BULGARIA

PARIS, Oct. 14.—Bucharest reports that the Russians are concentrating at Odessa, strengthening the belief of those who think the czar plans to land forces on the Bulgarian coast.

LONDON COMPLAINS OFFICIALS DON'T COUNTERACT RAIDS

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Besides leaving in their wake eight dead and 24 wounded, the Zeppelin raiders over London last night left the Britons angered at the government for not providing a better aerial defense. The indignation found expression in denunciation of the government's delay in making ready to drive off the air invaders. "People who went to their business this morning amid the spectacle of shattered window fronts," said the Globe, "may be forgiven if they wonder how long this sort of thing will be allowed to go without effective measures to check it."

Almost Hit Arsenal

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The last great Zeppelin raid on England, previous to last night's raid, started a fire near the biggest arsenal in London and burned five million dollars worth of property, an American traveler known as reliable said. He said during the last raid a bomb missed the arsenal by one hundred yards.

ELECTRIC DRIVE FOR BATTLESHIP IMPROVES SPEED

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The keel for the dreadnaught California, one of the most formidable yet planned for the American navy was laid at the Brooklyn navy yard today. The vessel is the first battleship to be entirely propelled by electricity. Secretary Daniels, principal speaker at the ceremony, hailed this advance in naval science as epochal. "The installation of the electricity drive," Daniels said, "ushers in a new epoch in navigation just as far reaching and important as that in which steam succeeded sail power. The vessel will have an increased cruising radius of about fifty per cent. A combination of electric drive and oil fuel will enable her to steam nine days longer, or 2,500 miles further than a coal burning dreadnaught."

RUSS WILL COOPERATE WHEN THEY GET THERE

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The cooperation of Russian troops with the allied forces in the Balkans the "moment they are available" was promised today by Foreign Minister Grey in common. It is supposed he meant the moment the road is opened for getting them to the fighting.

Man Charged With Murder With Victim in Local Lodging House

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 14.—Before a court room crowded with curious people, the trial of Cornelius W. Campbell, well-known farmer of the Touchet district, charged with the murder of 15-year-old Ethel McDonald, on June 30, last, at his home near the Snake river by poisoning with strychnine, began at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Attorneys Everett J. Smith and John L. Sharpstein are representing the defendant, while prosecuting attorney E. W. Benson is being assisted by Attorney J. C. Hurspool, who is conducting the cross examination of witnesses. Good progress had been made in the case by adjournment last night, the selection of a jury taking but a short time. Mrs. Campbell sits by her husband's side in the courtroom. Campbell closely followed all the evidence yesterday. Whether he will go on the stand today is not known, his attorney stating last night that he was undecided. Evidence given yesterday was somewhat contradictory. According to the evidence of the state, as outlined in the opening statement of prosecuting attorney Benson to the jury, Ethel McDonald went to reside with the Campbell family near Touchet, about two years ago, working for her board and lodging. Her father and brothers worked for Campbell during this time. Soon after going there, the state charges, Campbell began taking liberties with the girl, frequenting and caressing her in the presence of others. They took many trips together and one time she went to Pendleton to visit a relative but the relative was not at home and she remained in the city for several days, Campbell having been seen with her at a lodging house, it was charged.

ST. HELENS MAN KILLS WIFE AND SISTER THEN SETS FIRE, SHOTS SELF

ST. HELENS, Ore., Oct. 14.—W. E. Stout, aged 45, shot and killed his divorced wife and her sister, Mrs. S. M. Todd, then set fire to the Stout home. He fled at City Marshal Chittim and then killed himself. Accompanied by Mrs. Todd and the marshal, Stout, with his former wife went to his old home to divide the property. Chittim remained outside. Soon shots were heard upstairs. Stout appeared at the window a moment later and fired at the marshal without effect. Stout then set fire to clothing in the closet and shot himself. The fire was easily extinguished and the three were found dead. People who indulge in extravagant talk are apt to be economical when handing out coin.

GREATER DEEPER PLANS ARE UNDER CONSIDERATION

Two Hundred and Forty Million May be Expended for Improved Navy During Year.

20,000 MORE FOR ARMY

President Wilson and House Chairman seek to Reduce Estimates of Department — Army May Have Shorter Enlistment Period, Creating Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The army's part in the national defense program was discussed today by the president and Chairman Hoy of the house military affairs committee. Garrison's army reorganization plan is before them. The financial consideration is uppermost, as both are understood to regard Garrison's previous plans as too costly. What the limit should be was tentatively considered. The increases figured at from fifty to sixty million above last year's appropriations. The proposed addition of twenty thousand men to the present force of regulars will cost twenty million. More guns for the coast and field artillery add another ten or fifteen million. The increase in ammunition, supplies and reserves will cost five million. Officials hope to keep the army budget under a hundred and seventy-five million, an increase of from fifty to sixty million over last year's figures. The proposed short term enlistments to increase the number of trained citizens, who will form a reserve was also discussed at today's session. The amount to be asked for navy appropriations this year it is understood will be around two hundred and forty million.

AUSTRO-GERMANS WIN AGAINST SERBIANS BUT VICTORIES ARE COSTLY; ADVANCE IS DELAYED

Serbians Claim Bulgarian Invasion Has Been Checked But Preparations are Made to Defend Nish; Rumanian Ready for Rumanian Warfare.

ATHENS, Oct. 14.—Although Serbian reports claimed the Bulgarian invasion is repulsed, Nish advices admit preparations are being made to defend the city. In a terrible battle at Ripa, near Semendria, the Austro-Germans are admittedly victors but at tragic cost, for the battlefield is strewn with cadavers and the Teutons have since been unable to renew the advance because of enormous losses, it is claimed officially.

GERMAN RUSH DELAYED.

VIENNA, Oct. 14.—The Austro-German progress in Serbia is continued despite a desperate resistance, it is officially announced. Several trenches south of Belgrade were captured. Serbian counter-attacks were heavily repulsed. The Teutonic onrush southward is delayed by the defense, it is admitted.

READY FOR RUMANIA.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 14.—Bulgarian cavalry and Austro-German troops are concentrated at Vidin on the Bulgarian bank of the Danube, opposite Rumania, apparently ready for either offensive or defensive fighting against Rumania, and possibly to meet Russians reported crossing Rumania to aid Serbia.

ALL PLANS READY FOR RECOGNITION OF CARRANZA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The American recognition of Carranza as provisional president of Mexico is impending. The proclamation is drafted and Lansing plans to issue it during the day. He will send copies to all American diplomats abroad and the foreign embassies here. The proclamation is understood to include an embargo against arms crossing the American line to Carranza's enemies, coupled with the announcement America will regard as rebels all anti-Carranzista factions. Delay in receiving the approval of Guatemala is the only hitch in the recognition plans. Minister Calderon of Bolivia reported to Lansing today his government has assented to the recognition of Carranza.

TIME NOT RIPE FOR EFFORTS TO BRING ABOUT PEACE MOVE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The president is not disposed at present to call a peace conference of neutral nations, according to those in the confidence of the White House. Appropos resolutions of the International Peace Congress at San Francisco, yesterday, seeking such a conference, it is pointed out that similar suggestions from the Scandinavian officials and the pope had not met with a favorable response from the president. Further, it is understood, he has not changed his opinion that time is not now opportune to make a decided move toward peace.
