

Says Woman's Beauty Depends Upon Health

WEALTH AND VIGOR NECESSITATE REGULATION OF ORGANS OF ELIMINATION.

Skin foods and face creams and powders cannot make a woman beautiful because beauty lies deeper than it does in the skin. It depends upon the health of the organs of elimination and the action of the bowels.

MRS. GERTRUDE JORDAN

The headache, the lassitude, the yellow skin, and the lusterless eyes are usually caused by constipation. An ideal remedy for women, and one that is especially suited to their delicate organisms, is found in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild laxative compound, pleasant to the taste and free from opiates and narcotic drugs of every description. Mrs. Gertrude Jordan, 435 North Liberty St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "It is a fine thing I have never been able to find anything to compare with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I started using it for the baby and now it is my family standby in all cases where a laxative is needed."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle; a trial bottle can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. Resch, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

"Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?"

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

SERVANT PROBLEM IS BEING SOLVED AMONG WOMEN OF MONTCLAIR

HOUSEWIVES' LEAGUE HAS TAKEN UP TASK AND IS ON ROAD TO SUCCESS.

Much progress has already been made toward getting plenty of efficient house help of all classes, toward standardizing the pay and toward standardizing the pay and division of work.

- 1—Got the school board to establish free domestic science for girls and housewives.
- 2—Are writing 500 letters to housewives for data upon which to have a standard scale of servants' wages.
- 3—Plan a municipal testing station for all servants applying to housewives for work.
- 4—Seeking to classify and standardize the work of the "one maid to a family" plan most popular.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
MONTCLAIR, N. J., Nov. 12.—The Housewives' league of Montclair expects that a year hence this community's servant problem, that burthen to the women of almost every city in the land, will be solved.

Much progress already has been made toward getting plenty of efficient house help of all classes, toward standardizing the pay and the division of work for each servant. The haphazardness of these things done away with, thinks President Mrs. Chauncey H. Marsh, the servant problem will be solved and the thousands will lose one of their most vexatious sources of income.

Five hundred letters will be mailed today, in addition to the 200 already sent out, asking as many housewives a series of servant problem questions. Upon an analysis of the answers will be based the servants' standard of wages of Montclair. An analysis of the 200 answers already received shows that a girl doing housework, but no washing, for an average family of 5, should get $22 to $25 a month.

What the schedule will be for the maid who cooks, washes, makes beds, minds the babies, fires the furnace and scrubs will be determined later. Each community says Mrs. Marsh, should put its own servant service on an efficient basis the way Montclair is doing.

"We want," said Mrs. Marsh, "as every community should want, to pay a rate sufficient to attract capable, high-standard help; for by raising the standard of the servant, we will make life pleasanter for the housewife, husband, kiddies and the servants themselves."

"Since Supt. Bliss has opened the schools' domestic science classes to housewives and servants, the teachers have been swamped with students anxious to improve their cooking, sewing, etc."

Housewives may now catch their servants young and educate them to suit, without cost other than the tax they pay anyhow, in the public schools. A cooperative servants' organization to work with the Housewives' league, may also be organized later.

Don't think because you have taken many remedies in vain that your case is incurable. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and general debility. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Always fry with Cottolene

Whatever you fry with Cottolene is delicious and digestible. The true flavor of chicken, fish, potatoes, or any other fried foods is enhanced.

Cottolene has done much to do away with the old prejudice against fried foods. As it does not soak into the food, it performs fully the real function of a frying agent—it cooks the food and adds not only to its flavor but to its wholesomeness.

Cottolene

For more than a quarter of a century Cottolene has held its own place, in a class by itself. There is no substitute for it.

Always remember to use one-third less Cottolene than you would of butter or lard.

Stories From the War Zone

BY WILBUR S. FORREST.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
LONDON, Oct. 15.—(By Mail.)—Florence Nightingale, the Second, is Nurse Borlase, the woman who knows every British battlefield in Europe. She has nursed in England, France, Flanders, Serbia and the Dardanelles and is now in London to recuperate before she goes to Russia.

On the close cut, mannish jacket of this elderly, grey-haired Florence Nightingale there are two South African war medals; also English, Serbian, Belgian and French medals won in the present war.

In the South African war, Nurse Borlase was in the siege of Ladysmith. The first gun of the European struggle found her nursing in Canada from whence she went to Flanders to nurse the Belgian wounded, after a few months in France, news reached her of the sufferings of the Serbians and the ravages of typhus. Without hesitation she went to Serbia and remained until the scourge had passed.

It was after this that the British landed at the Dardanelles and she journeyed to Gallipoli in time to nurse some of the wounded who are now veterans of that campaign. Here Nurse Borlase's health failed and she returned to London. When this is read in America she will be on her way to Russia.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—(By Mail.)—A theater owned and operated by women is London's newest wartime feature.

Stagehands, scene shifters and other male workers at the Kingway enlisted one by one until the playhouse closed. It is now reopened by the proprietress, Miss Lena Ashwell and mere men plays no part in its conduct except as an actor or in the audience.

A comely young woman, well known in London stage circles as stage "manager" The limelights are worked by girls who sit aloft amidst the upper scenes, clad in mannish overalls and linen coats. The electric switchboard operator is likewise feminine.

All the scene shifters wear skirts and have always done so. A uniformed female ticket taker stands at the door while the ticket officers are devoid of men. A woman's orchestra furnishes the music under the footlights. There is even a woman press agent.

McAdoo's Son-in-Law Dies.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Charles Taber Martin of Los Angeles, son-in-law of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, died at the McAdoo home of pneumonia following a short illness. President Wilson called personally and offered whatever services he could render.

Falls Off Building.
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 11.—Jas. Williams, 33, fell from the roof of a two story building. He was seriously and perhaps fatally injured.

German Vessel Lost.
LONDON, Nov. 11.—The German coal-laden steamer Cordella, has been missing since Sunday. It is believed a British submarine torpedoed it.

Financial Fabric Threatened.
LONDON, Nov. 11.—The grim fact that her financial fabric is endangered under the iron rods of the war has made stark England in the face today. Baron Davenport was the man who sounded the warning before the house of lords. He pointed to the danger that a forced loan may be necessary after a time, if England's daily war cost continues mounting and the war proceeds. In the house of commons the same danger was pointed out by Unionist Member Evans. That the nation must exercise the most rigid economy was the advice given in the house of lords.

Home Baking Reduces Cost of Living

THE U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Experiment Station Bulletin No. 142 says that ten cents worth of wheat supplies almost three times as much protein and ten times as much energy as round steak, and with some other cuts of meat the difference is even greater.

If then, one really desires to reduce her weekly meat and grocery bills, she need only make more use of her oven.

Who ever heard man, woman or child complain that good home-made biscuits, muffins, cake and cookies appeared on the table too often? Instead the tendency is "to make a meal of them" and the variety is so great that something you bake yourself could well be the chief feature of every meal.

Home Baking is Simplified by the Use of K C Baking Powder

With K C, you can make things moist and rich yet have them light and feathery, wholesome and digestible. Biscuits may be baked the night before and baked fresh for breakfast. Muffins need not be dry and heavy. You can make a cake so light that you can hardly get it out of the pan whole, yet it will not fall.

K C is not like the old fashioned baking powder. It is double acting and continues to give off leavening gas until the dough is cooked through. K C is sold at a fair price—a large can for 35 cents. This would be no object if strength and purity were sacrificed, but every can is fully guaranteed under State and National Pure Food laws and to please. We take all the chances. Your money back if you do not get better results with K C than any baking powder you ever used.

Include a can in your next grocery order, try some of the new recipes that appear in this paper from time to time. Then you will have gone far toward solving this vexing "Cost of Living" problem.
