Mens Hats Sacrificed

Among the greatest sacrifices will be hats. Hats of all kinds are reduced. We don't mean to say that every hat in our stock is reduced, because there are some that have come in within the past two or three weeks that are already marked so closely that no reduction can be made on them. But most of our stock has been cut to the limit. We have divided our hats into four large divisions and they are marked as follows:

- | Nos. O. A. and B.                       |        | Nos. E. and F.                          |        |

Trunks and Valises Reduced

We could not go into the market and buy these trunks and suit cases for the same price we paid for what we have but we have resolved to cut the prices just the same. These goods have gone up in the eastern markets as much as 10 per cent to 15 per cent. But we must make room. We're overstocked on traveling goods. They must go. Trunks will sell at these price reductions.

- |                                                             |         |                                                                                             |         |

Speaking of the ball given for Queen Muriel in Portland Thursday night, the Journal says:

The Royal Rosarian ball at Gillingham hall last evening was one of the most notably successful affairs ever given in Portland. Over 500 guests were assembled. Queen Muriel and her maids, with King Joy, led the grand march at 9 o'clock. The affair was colorful and exceptionally well appointed. Many of the older society matrons gathered in the balcony to watch the dancers and punch was served on the roof garden, where an enchanting promenade offered a charming diversion. The presence of many officers in their uniforms added a note of gaiety to the scene. Mrs. Henry Lack Corbett assisted the committee from the Rosarians in all the arrangements, and among the unique features she introduced was the punch, which was in crushed fresh strawberries. Mrs. Guy W. Tabbot, chairman of the floral parade, also assisted in greeting the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scribner of Lindsay, California, and their young daughter, arrived yesterday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stype. Mrs. Scribner is a sister of Mrs. Stype and this is the first time in seven years that the two have seen each other.

Quite a number of ladies were entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Arle C. Hampson and Mrs. Merle B. Chessman at the home of the former on High street. The rooms were decorated with roses, bachelor buttons and other flowers of the season. Honors in the play were won by Mrs. Thomas Thompson.

Mrs. Lawrence G. Frazier and little daughter, Jean, arrived home this morning from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Winans of Walla Walla are weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Royal M. Sawtelle.

Miss Zella Thompson, who has been attending the University of Washington, is expected to arrive home this evening. She will be accompanied by one of her college friends.

Among the Rose Festival visitors returning this morning were George E. Peninger, Guy Matlock and Fred W. Lamplin.

Milo Ganson and Dr. R. E. Farnsworth returned this morning from Portland where they had been for several days.

Lester Hamley returned this morning from the Rose Festival.
