

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Norborne Berkeley has asked a few friends to come in tomorrow afternoon for an informal little sewing party in honor of her mother, Mrs. N. E. Despain.

The dancing contingent is looking forward with much pleasure to the affair for which Mrs. Lester Harn, Miss Claire Haley, Miss Mildred Berkeley, Miss Beth Smith, Miss Sydney Somerville, Miss Evelyn Somerville, Miss Jenny Perry and Miss Lotta Livermore will be hostesses on Thursday evening, October 24, in Eagle Woodman Hall. The cards were issued today.

Especially interesting and timely was the program of the Thursday afternoon Club yesterday which met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Thompson, with Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Hattery as hostesses. Japan, its domestic life, amusements and drama provided the general topic. Mrs. George Hartman, Jr., reading an interesting paper on Japanese people, their home and community life. Mrs. G. I. La Dow telling of the feasts, festivals and ceremonies, while Mrs. Roy T. Bishop prepared a paper on "The Theater and Drama," which was read by Mrs. T. M. Henderson, because of Mrs. Bishop's absence from the city. Mrs. Ben Burroughs sang two very beautiful songs and Miss Kessi played a much appreciated violin number. One of the particularly charming features of the meeting was the Gelsa girl dance by six pretty maids in costume, under the direction of Miss Bailey. Those who took part were Miss Jennie Murphy, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Madeline Burgess, Mrs. Vera Temple, Miss Thelma Thompson and Miss Margaret Phelps. A delightful social hour followed the program.

Miss Margaret Raeder, attractive visitor from Portland, is being much entertained at a round of informal affairs, among the number being the pretty little sewing party for which Mrs. George Peringer was hostess yesterday afternoon. The guests included a number of girls of the younger set.

Mrs. Violet Morgan left this morning by automobile for Pendleton, where she abandons her machine and takes to the train on an inspection of Women's Relief Corps in Oregon. She will go as far as Ashland before returning from her official trip as corps inspector, but will be in The Dalles for the Parent-Teachers' meeting there this evening. She will be gone several weeks.—La Grande Observer.

Mrs. Otto Hohbach left today on No. 17 for Portland and California, where she will visit for a month or so.

The Civic Club will hold a meeting in the library club room Saturday (tomorrow) afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of studying the initiative measures which will come before the voters at the coming election. A competent lawyer will be present to give necessary explanations. The meeting will be strictly non-partisan and an earnest request is made that the members and all other women who are interested come to the meeting.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Harder (Miss Beza Duncan) is expected to arrive tonight en route to her home in Baker from a visit in Portland. She will be a house guest of Mrs. Lee Moorhouse for several days.

Mrs. V. G. Benvie, department commander of Oregon of the Ladies of the G. A. R., is now in Pendleton for the purpose of forming a local circle of that organization. For this purpose a meeting will be held in the council room at the city hall at 2:30 Saturday afternoon and all eligible to join are invited to attend. Membership is open to all blood kin of G. A. R. men, thus including wives, widows, daughters and granddaughters. The G. A. R. members are also eligible to membership in the woman's auxiliary. There are now 32 circles in Oregon, according to Mrs. Benvie, and she is anxious for an organization here. She visited the Milton circle on Wednesday.

Word has been received here of the birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Baughman of Newberg, but formerly of Pendleton. Mrs. Baughman was formerly Miss Helen Schroeder.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a cooked food sale tomorrow morning at Alexander's grocery store. An array of good things have been prepared for the event.

The members of the Civic Club are planning a dancing party for Halloween which will be given in Eagle Woodman hall. Appropriate and novel decorations will be arranged and it is anticipated that the affair will be one of the most enjoyable of the season.

The many friends of Mrs. W. M. Moore, mother of Will Moore of this city, who visited here for some time during the spring, will be much grieved to hear of her death which occurred yesterday at pneumonia at her home in Pennsylvania.

Carl E. Engdahl is in today from Helix in his car.

C. D. Johnson of Dayton, spent last night in the city.

Owen Constant, Albee hotel man, is a visitor here today.

L. K. Weber of Walla Walla is a business visitor in the city.

J. H. Wagner of Ukiah is down from the southern part of the county.

D. J. McLellan of La Grande, was a guest of the St. George last evening.

R. C. Crommelin, manager of the Pendleton roller mills left today for Spokane.

J. S. Beard and Mrs. Laura Beard of Colfax, were at the Pendleton last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Buchholz of Stanfield were among the visitors here last evening.

Joe Zipper, well known stockman and farmer of Ukiah, is spending the day here on business.

Mrs. W. H. Tompkins of Umatilla and Mrs. A. Zinc of the same place were overnight visitors in the city.

Mrs. Ben Hardy of Baker, formerly Miss Elizabeth Duncan of this city, is a house guest of Mrs. Lee Moorhouse.

Milton A. Miller, U. S. internal revenue collector for Oregon, is at Pendleton today. He is here in the interests of the candidacy of President Wilson for re-election.
