THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford car can well be called the "peoples car," because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about four to one of the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. LYTELL'S SCREEN FAME EQUALS THAT OF STAGE

Bert Lytell, the clever and versatile young Metro star of "Blackie's Redemption," to be shown at the Alta Theatre on Sunday and Monday, enjoys a stage and screen popularity attained by few.

He is one of the youngest of dramatic stars and comes from a long line of theatrical celebrities, among whom was J. K. Mortimore, his grandfather, for years one of Augustin Daly's biggest players.

Mr. Lytell is well known as a leading man in Broadway productions, his last before leaving the stage for the screen being "Mary's Ankle" in which he was co-starred with Irene Fenwick.

The young actor was determined to confine himself exclusively to the screen and all his successes in this line have been with Metro where he has starred in "The Trail of Yesterday," "No Man's Land," "Boston Blackie," "Little Pal," "Hitting the High Spots," "Unexpected Places," "The Spender," "Faith," and "The Blind Man's Eyes."

Born in New York, Mr. Lytell was educated at Upper Canada College where, among other things, he excelled in athletics.

BARBARY COAST WAS THE UNDERWORLD OF OLD SAN FRANCISCO

Famous Boss of Criminals Pictured in "The Poppy Girl's Husband"

What and where is the Barbary Coast? To be exact, there are two. The original was the "Coast of the High Barbarees" of old piratical days. The other and more modern, is the underworld of San Francisco. Today it is more of a name than anything else for cleaning up days in the Golden Gate City have been frequent and the denizens thereof have mostly been scattered to the four winds of heaven.

The Barbary Coast of San Francisco is comparable only with the old Five Points in New York or Whitechapel in London. It is or was—though it is still there as a shadow of its former self—the resort of the worst element of the city. Yet some of it was outward show and the horrified alumnus sometimes saw things that were really only there for his especial benefit. Yet there were tragedies in the district and it was never a pleasant place to find oneself in after dark.

The new William S. Hart picture, "The Poppy Girl's Husband," which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre Sunday and Monday, is laid partly in the section of San Francisco. It is said to be one of the most dramatic stories ever supplied the star. Juanita Hansen is the leading woman, and in the cast will be found Walter Long, a famous character actor of the screen, recently released from service as the army's Captain Long. Jack Taylor wrote the story and it was adapted by C. Gardner Sullivan.

NEW AND NOVEL PICTURE AT THE ARCADE SUNDAY

Not everyone would care to lean into a Florida stream in order to catch a "bill green" alligator alive. Yet there are those who are willing to try such an experience at least once.

Manager Matlock of the Arcade Theatre announces that Sunday his patrons may witness this most exciting sport through the medium of Prizma's latest picture, "Gators."

Alligators, like chickens, come from eggs which are laid in nests built of leaves and sticks. The heat of the tropical sun and the decomposition of the vegetable matter hatches the eggs.

For the first two years the alligators grow very slowly. Even when they are 5 months old it is possible to hold a number of them in your hands at one time. They live to be very old and some have been known to be strong and active at the age of 275.

These and other equally interesting scenes of the alligator farm in Florida are reproduced in Nature's color motion pictures.

The alligator hunt in the Everglades is especially exciting. Two men in a canoe paddle up a beautiful creek, keeping a sharp look-out for alligators.

When they see one, the man in the bow of the boat without hesitation dives into the water. A struggle follows and for several minutes the str of the water and the man's hat are the only indications of the conflict. Presently, however, the alligator is overcome, brought to shallow water, tied up with a strong cord, placed in the canoe and taken home.

"HOD" ELLER

Hod Eller is having a good time in his winter home at Danville, Ill. Hod has taken up a new sport—trap shooting. Admiring home town fans presented him with a gun as a token of esteem for his wonderful work in pitching the Reds to two wins over the Sox. ELDERLY WOMAN ROBBED OF LIFE-TIME'S SAVINGS BY DAYLIGHT BURGLARS

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—Daylight burglars robbed Miss Ellen Kelley, an elderly, white-haired nurse, of $2500, her lifetime savings, during her absence from her apartment, 1193 Fifth avenue.

"It's a lucky woman, I am," said Miss Kelley to detectives Thursday, "that I was downtown at the time and not in my apartment. I might have been killed, for lying on my bed after the robbery I found a small hand ax where the intruders had left it."

Miss Kelley's $2500 was mostly in currency. About $500 was in gold coins. The whole amount she had left in a small black leather purse concealed in her trunk.

MAJORITY OF ONE VOTE INDICATED FOR WETS

COLUMBUS, Nov. 8.—Figures indicate the wets have a majority of one vote out of nearly a million cast on Ohio's ratification of the national prohibition amendment, with practically complete, though unofficial returns for the entire state.

If it weren't for the poor little attorneys the doctors would have to fix the blame elsewhere.
