

Paragraphically Cold

The dance given by the Young Men's Club last evening was a grand success. A merry party of young people, numbering about twenty, surprised Joe Lane last evening. Card games and music were enjoyed until a late hour.

W. F. Kettenbach for the U. S. Fidelity Co. today furnished the bond for the incoming county treasurer, James R. Lydon. The bond is for $100,000.

Kay L. Thompson is in the city today. This week's issue of the Asotin Sentinel carries the notice of dissolution of partnership of Messrs. Thompson & Waldrip as owners of the paper. Mr. Thompson is now sole proprietor. Mr. Waldrip will go to Portland to take a position with an investment company.

Frank Brown, one of the new county commissioners and principal owner of the Jumbo mine at the Hump, returned from Spokane yesterday where it is understood he went to close a deal for the sale of his property. The Jumbo is reckoned as one of the most valuable properties in the Hump and the sale will be for big values.

Geo. Ferguson, who was arrested here last Saturday on the charge of cattle stealing, was yesterday tried before Probate Judge Smith's court at Moscow. The evidence given in showed that the cattle were sold to Chas. Morrison at the Cole ranch by Ferguson for $40. Ferguson offered no defense and was bound over in the sum of $2,000. Church Notices.

Church of Christ—Regular services. Mr. J. W. Whittkammer, of Moscow, will preach, and will continue all this week. You should hear this man. He is logical, clear, strong in his thought. You will not be excited but will be made to think. Special music is being arranged.

Haunch of Venison.

Two of Lewiston's prominent business men took a trip to Orofino recently, and while there purchased a haunch of venison, and thereby hinged the tale. While the boys were at dinner the jolly joker switched the haunch of venison for a beef roast which the Lewiston notables brought home with great care and enjoyed with great gusto till the joke was sprung.

County Division.

From the activity displayed among business men today, it is evident that there will be an organized effort made to defeat the ends of the county divisionists. The reports that are coming from Boise make it evident that something must be done and done at once to prevent the consummation of the deal that is said to carry with it the scheme of segregating the county. A called meeting will probably be made to consider ways and means of encompassing the defeat of the measure.

Nez Perce Paying Taxes.

Nez Perce is fast closing up her tax account with the state. Yesterday County Treasurer C. A. Hastings remitted $4,398.69 as part payment of the taxes due the state for the assessment of 1900. The county has now paid $5635 of the $13,057 due on property tax and $560 of the $1613 due on state wagon road tax. On next Monday or Tuesday when the final settlement comes from the outgoing assessor, Mr. Spekter will turn into the treasury about $30,000, of this $5,800 more will be remitted to the state on property tax and $600 more on state wagon road. Nez Perce still owes the state $1800 on the taxes of 1899. This is on delinquent taxes and is payable only as fast as it comes in. Mr. Hastings returned to the county auditor today eighty five coupons of the representative value of $30 each, a total of $2550 for the payment of semi-annual interest on the $85,000 of funding bonds of the issue of 1895.

"It was the presentation to Governor Steunenberg of a loving cup by the other members of the administration, including Secretary of State Patrie, Attorney General Hays, Treasurer Rice, Superintendent French and State Auditor Sinclair. The presentation remarks were made by Mr. Sinclair. He referred to the respect and affection of the governor's official associates for him and their appreciation of the uniform kindness he had extended to them."

The Rice Musical.

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather, both inside and outside the opera house last evening, the violin recital was well attended and was thoroughly appreciated by the audience. Mr. Elmore Rice is an artist with the violin and his recital offers a rare treat to all lovers of good music. The program was given as published and contained gems from Beethoven, Handel, Renard, Godard and Schubert. The selection from Schubert was Remenyi's Serenade which was received with very flattering applause. Mr. Rice was a pupil of Remenyi's one of the very few whom the great artist instructed and there was in the technique and impression given some touches of the master artist. The program will be repeated at the normal auditorium tonight.
