Mrs. Mary Lauffer secured the first prize a sweepstake for Berlin work. Her exhibit was an excellent one and represented a mountain scene with a pair of deer in the foreground.

The Garfield grain and feed separator was one of the exhibits on the grounds that attracted a great deal of attention and helped to promote discordant noise on the grounds during fair week. The Chatham fanning mill and sacker company of Wisconsin also had a like machine on the grounds and called on the management for a test of the two machines. Chas. Fairbanks and D. A. Benedict were appointed judges of the demonstration. The result it seems was too evidently in favor of the home machine to cause any doubt in the minds of the judges as to who should be awarded the diploma.

The most elegant prize awarded at the fair in the eyes of the ladies, was that of a set of Haviland China presented by McGilvery & Boston for the best collection of fancy willows. This prize was awarded to Mrs. Chas. Mix, whose collection of eight was decided to be the most original in design and execution.
