WAS ANOTHER BIG DAY

Attendance Yesterday, 4450—Today will Probably be as Large in spite of the Heavy Rain.

Yesterday was even a greater success at the big fair than the two previous days, the attendance rolling up to 4,450 admissions. Again the weather was ideal and Lewiston turned out en masse to view the races in the afternoon and take in the various sights on the fair grounds.

The Odd Fellows, who have been in Grand Lodge session several days here, came over to the grounds in a body to witness the afternoon programme.

All the Lewiston business houses were closed from one o'clock to five to give their employees a chance to take in the fair.

The city was gaily decorated. Large crowds swarmed at the Midway show and the exposition pavilion during the afternoon. The grand stand was fast becoming filled and was one sea of faces when the first heat was run in the 2:18 pace.

The Walla Walla Military Band entertained the audience with choice selections of music at intervals during the afternoon, and to the appreciation of the big audience.

After the big Gate City purse race of $1000 in which Pathmark won the pace, a special race was called for one mile trot, best 3 in 5. Spot, Vinmont, Babe Chapman and D. C. S. were entered and started and won in three heats by D. C. S. Babe Chapman took second money and Vinmont took third money, time: 2:24 1/2, 2:27 1/2, and 2:27. The next race was a mixed trot for pace and roadsters for a purse of $50. Nancy Wilkes, W. H. Baughton's horse; Laura W. owned by Chas. Russell; Klondike, owned by Wm. Caldwell; Nancy Hanks, owned by W. F. Kettenbach; and Mollie Magure owned by B. F. Morris, entered and started. It was a spirited race. Molly Maguire proved an easy winner in the two heats run, Laura W second, and Nancy Wilkes, third. Time: 3:05 in the first heat, and 2:59 in the second.

The next race was 1/2 mile dash for maidens, weight for age, purse $100. Maid of the Mist, Molly Riley, Harpoon, H. Johnson, Pauline, Mark Hanna and Willowa started. The race was won by Hiram Johnson, owned by Del Fountain; Mark Hanna, second; Willowa, third. Time: 51.

The fourth race was 1-4 mile running, catch weights; purse 100. Alto, Populist, Steamboat Bill, Miss Miller, Rosa B, and Pat Tucker, started. Pat Tucker was a favorite all through and at the bookmaker's stall. He ended first, Miss Miller, second; and Populist, third. Time: 23.

The next and last race was the 1-mile running and repeat, for Indians. This was an interesting one. Six Indians from the reservation showed up, riding their horses bareback. The youngest rider in the bunch was David High, an Indian boy who rode his father's horse. Everybody in the grand stand arose to their feet and the "little fellow," Dave High, became the favorite, though at the first quarter he was far behind the bunch. The Indians rode on like wild fire, Sidney Rankens riding his horse under the wire for the first mile, fully six lengths ahead. Again they started at the back stretch. The "little fellow" could be seen using his whip, and amid the steady cheers from the grand stand, he crawled up slowly towards Rankens' horse, leaving the bunch to follow up, at the 1-2 mile post it was neck and neck. Down the home stretch they came for dear life. The "little fellow" spurred on; the crowd shouted in their delight. Their favorite came under the wire a full two lengths ahead, Sidney Rankens' horse second, and Fogarty's horse third. This ended the races for the day.

Today, the fourth one of the fair, bids fair to be another big success, in spite of the rain which came down at intervals. Large crowds wended their way early this morning to the grounds and by 10 o'clock, when the parade of prize stock on the grounds made their way down the track, thousands of people were there who witnessed it. The big exposition hall was crowded to its fullest capacity. Awards were made today in the womans' club exhibit, also the mining exhibit. Prof H. T. French, of Pullman, today completed the awarding of prizes on the live stock.

Soon after dinner the spacious grand stand began to get crowded and by the time the first race was called from the judge's stand, it was filled from top to bottom. The enclosure back of the quarter stretch, in spite of the rain, was crowded with many handsome equipages. The track was in fine shape, the slight wetting it received being to its advantage.

The Walla Military Band played the following selections during the afternoon: March, "American Cavalry," Holst. Overture, "Lustseil," Kellar Bela. Coon Schottische, "Parson Johnson's Chicken Brigade," Lee Johnson. Waltz, "Danube Waves," Ivanovic. "Cornercracker Dance," Meacham. March, "Great Western Band," Gruenfelder. "Star Spangled Banner,"

J. A. GIBSON, Director.

At 1 o'clock today the sky cleared and it looked as if the remainder of the day would be clear, but at the end of the second heat the rain poured down, and all harness races were declared off until tomorrow. The first race a 2:20 trot, association purse, best three in five, for purse of $1000, was called.

Nettie Ham, Road Boy, Sunrise, Phil N, and Oviata started. The first heat started off with Road Boy taking the lead and at every pole held his own. Sunrise was a good second all round until the home stretch was reached when Nettie Ham overtook him. Road Boy came under the wire a good length ahead. Nettie Ham, second; Sunrise, third, three lengths behind; Oviata; fourth: Phil N, fifth. Time, 2:19 1/2.

Second heat—They all started together with the exception of Phil N, who was a length behind. Road Boy held the lead all the way round again. But at the stretch Nettie Ham came up up to him and at the wire was a full wheel ahead.

Result—Nettie Ham, first; Road Boy, second; Oviata, third; Phil N, fourth, Sunrise, fifth. Time 2:21.

One heat in the second race was run, but owing to the heavy rain which was falling all races were declared off until tomorrow. The running races will take place at 10 a. m. and the harness races at 12:30 p. m.

Paraphrastically Cold

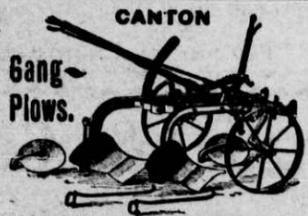

The big Midway tent blew down today, but no damage done, more than a good wetting.

The Odd Fellows Grand Lodge in session this week introduced an innovation which might be followed by all similar bodies in session everywhere. They appointed from among their members an official reporter. A. E. Gibson acted in that capacity during the session and the excellent reports of the proceedings given by the press from day to day is due to the "copy" furnished by Mr. Gibson. We commend the practice to all grand lodge bodies everywhere. The results are highly satisfactory, both to the press and the public.
