

THE LOVE KNOT.

Tying her bonnet under the chin,
She tied the raven ringlets in;
But not alone in the silken snare
Did she catch her lovely floating hair,
For, tying her bonnet under her chin,
She tied a young man's heart within.

They were strolling together up the hill,
Where the wind comes blowing merry and chill;
And it blew the curls a frolicsome race,
All over the happy peach-colored face,
Till scolding, and laughing, she tied them in
Under her beautiful dimpled chin.

And it blew a color bright as a bloom,
Of the plukiest fuchsia's tossing plume,
All over the cheeks of the prettiest girl
That ever imprisoned a roaming curl,
Or, tying her bonnet under her chin,
Tied a young man's heart within.

Steeper and steeper grew the hill—
Madder, merrier, cheerier still—
The western wind blew down and played
The wildest tricks with the little maid;
As tying her bonnet under her chin,
She tied a young man's heart within.

Oh, western wind, do you think it was fair
To play such tricks with her floating hair?
To gaily, gleefully do your best
To blow her against the young man's breast,
Where he has gladly folded her in,
And kissed the mouth and dimpled chin?

Oh, Elly Vane, you little thought
An hour ago, when you brought
This country lass to walk with you,
After the sun had dried the dew,
What perilous danger you'd be in,
As she tied her bonnet under her chin.

The Sanitary Fund.

PORTLAND, Feb. 17, 1864.

DEAR SIR:—Rev. T. H. Pearne has just handed me your note with $106 12 in coin, and $80 in currency—the generous contribution of the citizens of your patriotic city, in aid of the philanthropic purposes of the Sanitary Commission. It is a most welcome proof that the liberal donors do not "grow weary in well doing," coming as it does from a community which has repeatedly manifested its patriotic sympathy with the brave and suffering defenders of our free institutions. I will forward this with other sums, collected during the last ten days, amounting to nearly a thousand dollars, by the next steamer, to the proper officers of the Commission, who, I am sure, will gratefully receive such renewed proofs of confidence on the part of the people of Oregon. Very truly yours, AMORY HOLBROOK, Associate Member of U. S. Sanitary Commission for Oregon.

Rev. B. C. LIPPINCOTT, Dalles.

THE NEW CONSCRIPTION BILL.—By the amendment of the conscription bill, as proposed by Senator Wilson, in the Senate, the following persons are exempt: Such as are mentally or physically unfit for military duty; the Vice President, Judges of Courts, Governors of States, heads of Executive Departments; the only son of a widow, wholly dependent on him for support; the only son of aged or infirm parents wholly dependent on him for support, and in case all are drafted of several sons, the parent or parents may select which shall be exempt; the only brother of orphan children under 12 years old; where two sons have deceased or been disabled in military service the residue shall be exempt. The division into classes in the enrollment is abolished. Substitutes for persons enrolled exempt such persons.

PRESIDENTIALLY speaking, the Quincy Union says: "Under our form of Government some one must direct affairs. This coming Summer we are to elect a successor to President Lincoln. Who shall it be? Seward is shrewder; Chase is a better financier; Grant is a better General. Each of these gentlemen have specialties, but Lincoln possesses what neither of them has, the absolute confidence, the unwavering trust and affection of the people; and by a wave of popular opinion, we believe he will be carried almost without opposition to the succession in the Presidential chair."

WASHINGTON WAGON ROAD

Portland to the Cascades.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the traveling public that the above named Wagon Road is now in traveling order for light loaded wagons, from the mouth of SANDY to CASCADES. Persons wishing to travel from Portland to the Dalles, will find it to their advantage to cross the Columbia River at the mouth of Sandy and haul their wagons over this Road to the Cascades, as it will save the price of freight on the lower steamerboat, and also over the Cascade railroad. There is a good trail from the Cascades to the Dalles for loose stock, crossing the river back again near Little White Salmon. Ferries are now kept at both these crossings. From and after the 15th of February next, the undersigned will keep the above Ferries in connection with the Road, and will pass the travel through as cheap as any other route. There being better grass, less rocks, and generally a better Road on this route, I flatter myself that I will receive a liberal patronage from Drivers and Packers. In addition to the U. S. N. Co.'s steamers, the steamer Celilo is running from the Cascades to the Dalles, and will carry wagons cheap.

Rates of Toll over the Road:

For each wagon, with two horses, mules, or oxen... $1 00
For each additional pair of horses, mules or oxen... 50
For horse and buggy... 75
For each additional horse... 25
For each man and horse... 50
For each pack animal... 37 1/2
For each head of animals, other than sheep, hogs or goats... 25
For sheep, hogs or goats, each... 10

We, the undersigned immigrants, hereby certify that we passed over E. C. Hardy's Wagon Road, on or about the 25th day of September, 1863, with the Bethel Train of thirty-four wagons; and do consider said Road a good Mountain Road for light loaded wagons.
