It is therefore ordered that Publication be made for four successive weeks in the Bolivar Bulletin a newspaper published in the town of Bolivar requiring said defendant Lula Perry to enter her appearance in the Circuit Court of Hardeman County, Tennessee, by the first Tuesday in May, 1888, and plead answer or demurrer to the same or the petition will be taken for confessed and she and her heirs be forever barred.

Six pounds good Coffee for $1.00, at J. W. Tate & Co.

A weeks good weather has wonderfully changed the looks of things in this part of the moral vineyard.

Mrs. Hardin Wilson and Mrs. Tom Newburn visited friends at Jackson, Tenn., this week.

The citizens of Saulsburys are talking about having a horse-swapping day.

The owners of large sedge fields in Southern Hardeman are anxious that a broom factory be established in Bolivar.

Miss Minnie Bubank, a charming young lady from New Castle was in town shopping Tuesday.

Miss Annie Baird, the highly accomplished and amiable daughter of Dr. W. L. Baird of Hickory Valley, was hereshopping this week.

Hen. Jesse Norment went to Memphis Tuesday on business, and will be absent several days.

The Star will be pleased to have the farmers call, when in town, and report neighborhood news and the condition of crops.

This month winds up the festive oyster eating in Hardeman town. But "tater" custards and peach pies will soon be here to make up for the loss.

The Star's feverish appetite calls aloud for ice cream. O, that our pocket books were able to hearken unto the call! Dost we wish we were a "savaiety" girl.

Mr. F. C. Neely, formerly a salesman at G. T. Ingram's, now representing the tobacco and cigar establishment of S. L. Lee, Memphis, Tenn., was in town a few days this week.

Mr. Alex McLarty, one of Grand Junction's genial and liberal hearted citizens, was in Bolivar last Monday purchasing a supply of spring goods.

The magnificent announcement of Kahn Bros this week must not escape your careful attention.

Millinery! Millinery! Mrs. Ida Wilson has opened an elegant millinery store at Mrs. Belle Hodge's old stand on Market street. She has a large and beautiful stock of the latest spring styles. Call and see for yourself!

Col. Geo. W. Black, of district 14, reports his district solid for E. L. Taylor. Thus they come.

The merchants, of Boone, informed our local editor this week that district 15 is red hot for Bob Taylor.

Rev. C. C. McDaniel, a distinguished divine, of Pine Top, passed through Bolivar yesterday on his way home from his regular appointment at Saulsburys.

J. F. Hanna, a promising young educator, of Bethel Springs, Tenn., called at this office Wednesday last and handed in his check for a dollars worth of the West Tennessee Star.

We have conversed with gentlemen from several districts of our county, and nearly all of them report that the farmers are anxious that Bob Taylor shall be re-nominated.

Our farmers are happy and smiling—albeit because of the beautiful weather. Our merchants are happy and smiling—all because the farmers are getting a good start. Promising prospects for a big crop make us all smilingly happy, don't they?

The Star has in its possession a five-hundred dollar purse—collected and turned over to us by christian ladies—which is to pay us for killing the first sea-of-a-guano who attempts to get up a base ball club in Bolivar.

While in Jackson this week, we stopped at the New City Hotel, under the management of Mrs. Mattie Houston and Col. Robt. Bradford. We found the house crowded with guests, and everything in trim. This house is destined to be the most popular, and most largely patronized of any hotel in Jackson.

Gather together your fishing tackle. The finny tribe is now invading your river and creek ways. Fill your baskets with leaves' purs in the grass and skillets, arm yourselves with hook and line, carry along a little wine, and catch 'em, confound 'em.

The girls are beginning to talk about evening picnics—about the baskets, and the spreading of the white lines on the grassy plots, and the over bending boughs, and the murmur of the young leaves, and the mouth smacking. Boys, don't you second the motion?

Our popular and stirring tax-assessor, Esq. E. H. Dorris, has completed the assessments in fourteen districts of the county—leaving only six to be worked. This speaks well for our assessor. The fact is, Hardeman has attained a reputation throughout the South for having the best corps of county officials of any county in Tennessee.

Capt. T. C. Spight, of Saulsburys, is at Nashville under the treatment of Dr. G. C. Savage for catarrhal ulceration of the bone over the eye. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

Subordinate Wheel, No. 816 in the 20th district of this county unanimously passed resolutions yesterday evening endorsing R. L. Taylor for governor and calling on our delegates to vote for his re-nomination. The resolutions will be published next week.

Mr. D. E. Durrett's head line ad is certainly an attraction in this issue. He promises to give a special bargain to everyone who will tell him that he or she has read the advertisement of D. E. Durrett. Try him and see if he is true to his word. When you visit his store go up stairs and see his surprise.

I will be at Whiteville on May 1st and 2nd. Cedar Chapel May, 3d. All persons desiring dental work done, will meet me at the above place, on the day mentioned. Reasonable prices charged, and satisfaction guaranteed. DR. S. DICKEY.

Our young friend, Will McCarty drove a black span out to Crainsville last Friday morning and returned that evening, accompanied by one of the fairest in tea thousand.

Tennessee's Supreme Judges, Linton and Snodgrass, spent Saturday and Sunday nights last at the residence of Capt. A. T. McNeal. They rode out to the Asylum Sunday afternoon, and were well pleased with the location, plan of the building, and the way in which the work is being pushed.

The spoke and hub factory movement still lives. The amount requisite for building and equipping the factory will soon be subscribed. This will be a paying institution, and our citizens deserve our heartiest congratulations for their efforts to secure the plant.

Sheriff Yopp has clothed the distinguished John Kenny, Esq. of Bolivar, with all the powers and immunities of jailer for Hardeman county. Col. Kenny has taken charge of the jail and its birds, and will be known hereafter as our celebrated "turn key."

The local editor of this paper while on his rounds for news stents last week, was wrongly informed concerning the concert at Capt. McNeal's. It was not for the benefit of Prof. E. A. Fusch's school at Hickory Valley. We cheerfully make the correction.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brewer, a most estimable lady, who has been a resident of the 13th district, of this county, since 1846, is dangerously ill at the residence of Mr. Lot Breeden. Mrs. Brewer, was a pioneer settler in 13, and one of the first members of Walnut Grove church. The Star hopes to hear of a change of her condition for the better soon.

Rev. G. C. Crowe, a highly educated and talented Presbyterian minister, of Middleton, Tenn., preached at the Presbyterian church in Bolivar last Sabbath forenoon and evening. He is a smooth yet vigorous speaker, and his audience were exceedingly well pleased with his sermons.

At a regular meeting of Subordinate Wheel No. 617, April 14, 1888, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, 1st, That we oppose the discussion of politics in the County Wheel.

Resolved, 2nd, That we oppose testing the strength of any who cler candidates for public office, in the County Wheel.

The closing exercises of the public school took place at Grand Junction, Tuesday night the 17th, which was largely attended. The exercises consisted of recitations, essays, dialogues, and etc. Taken together, we must say, it was a literary feast. The little folks performed their duties with wonderful grace, and their excellent delivery proved, conclusively, to all present, that they had been correctly drilled in elocution. The Star congratulates Prof. J. D. Caselberry, on having such brilliant material in his school, and also congratulates the good citizens of that vicinity for their warm and cordial support, which they always extend to the cause of education.
