ALDERMEN—G. M. Savage, G. M. Wilkinson, J. R. Sweeten, J. D. Campbell, T. M. Moore, J. A. Foster, T. A. Patton.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—R. N. Mitchell, G. T. Ingram, T. D. Newbern.

MARSHAL—N. F. Hizer.

ATTEND the district mass meetings Saturday to select delegates to the County convention Monday.

THE State Democratic Executive Committee has been called to meet in Nashville, Monday, February 3rd, 1902, for the purpose of fixing the dates for the Judicial and Gubernatorial conventions.

BOLIVAR'S municipal election will be held next Tuesday. The ticket nominated by a large number of democratic voters of the town, at a meeting recently held, and which appears at the head of this column, is composed of good men. Vote for them next Tuesday.

MR. JAMES H. MALONE has been in our county this week. Mr. Malone is one of the ablest members of the Memphis bar and is well known and popular throughout Tennessee. He is a candidate for a position on the Supreme Bench. A number of counties have already instructed for him. He has many friends in Hardeman.

Republicans Scared.

The story that Dan F. Elliott, deputy clerk of the Federal District Court, had left Memphis for Washington to seek the appointment to succeed U. S. Marshal Thomas H. Baker, has been contradicted by Judge Hammond. He has gone to Buffalo to testify in a criminal prosecution.

However, the impression obtained for a while among republicans that Mr. Elliott had been called to Washington by the President to be tendered the office of United States Marshal for the Western District of Tennessee, and very naturally they felt chagrined that the President would ignore applicants in his own party and give a big federal plum to a democrat.

As to who may succeed Marshal Baker is a question. If the party feud is permitted to influence the selection of a man, the chances for Col. Baker appear to be slim. If the President should conclude to ignore the party, Mr. Elliott stands a show of securing the place.—Jackson Sun.

Obituary.

The sweet spirit of Mrs. Eugenia Carter, wife of Mr. Carter, in the nineteenth year of her age, parted from its earthly tenement and journeyed, Oct. 26, 1901, to that bright home above where sin and sorrow never come.

"When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound and time shall be no more,
And the morning breaks, eternal, bright and fair;
When the saved of earth shall gather over o the other shore,
And the roll is called up yonder," she "will be there."

Weep not, dear husband and parents; your loss is Heaven's gain. And we know that God has promised that the faithful shall meet again in that beautiful home beyond the stars where far wells are never said. By her departure from this life our earthly ties are severed and another link is welded in the chain that binds and lifts us up to the brighter life.

We commend the bereaved ones to the care of Him who knows our sorrow and who alone can solace in grief. We rest in the hope that—

"Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall leave her breast;
Sorrow, in eternal rest."

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annapolis, Bay, Jamaica, West India Island. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by W. J. Cox, & Co., Bolivar; J. W. Nuckolls, Toone.

A Wily Filipino's Dream of Wealth.

Pedro Blaza, an enterprising Filipino in Manila just learned of the downfall of the Southern Confederacy. Blaza was ambitious to relieve the financial situation in the Philippines. He had heard of the efforts of the Philippine Commission to secure the passage by Congress of a currency law for the Philippines and he felt the lack of funds.

When he came into possession of several large packages of Confederate notes he concluded that he held the solution of the money problem. He took no one into his confidence and the officials in Manila continued to clamor for a currency law, ignorant for a time that Blaza was working diligently to increase the amount of money in circulation. Then came a complaint from one of the banks that they had received a great many Confederate $100 bills from native and Chinese merchants. According to a report just received at the War Department the complaints became more numerous, and suddenly it was realized that the city had been flooded with notes of the Confederacy.

The detectives went to work, but for a time were unable to find the source of supply. The Secret Service was called upon, and one day captured Blaza. They put an end to his dream of wealth. He protested it was good money, but the wily Filipino failed to convince the Manila sleuths. They declared their intention to search his house. He was delighted. They searched in vain, and he was correspondingly happy, but when three large packages, each containing hundreds of notes, were found, his countenance became impressive and his mouth tightly sealed. The flood of Confederate money had subsided, but the Secret Service men are now looking for a trace of two volunteer soldiers who had the money shipped to them from the United States and used Blaza as a confederate.—Washington telegram to the Baltimore Herald.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved. I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot raise it enough I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere, of Godwin S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by W. J. Cox & Co., Bolivar, Tenn.; J. W. Nuckolls, Toone, Tenn.
