

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Judge B. C. Scruggs visited in Decatur County last week.

Messrs. Lewis & Totty put their new stove factory in operation last Monday.

John P. Morris, of Fulton, Ky., was mingling with his many friends here Monday.

Quite a number from this place went to Rockport Wednesday to attend the show.

Mrs. Annie Yarbrough and children, of Box, Tenn., are visiting relatives in Camden.

We publish a list of appointments for speaking by the candidates for representatives, elsewhere.

Mr. A. C. McRae went to McKenzie, Tenn., yesterday to look after some business matters.

Capt. R. W. Ayres, candidate for Congress, will speak at the court-house in Camden to-morrow.

Mr. Allan Waggoner, of Johnsonville, Tenn., paid THE CHRONICLE office a visit last Monday.

Eggs have advanced in this market from 7½ cents to 12½ cents per dozen during the past ten days.

The meetings at Mount Zion, near Eggville, closed last Monday evening, with about thirty professions.

A. J. Fry and sister, Miss Ada, of Coxburgh, left Tuesday for McKenzie to attend school at McTyeire Institute.

Miss Inez Jones, of Brownsville, is visiting in this county, the guest of Mrs. W. H. Evans, 4 miles north of Camden.

Mr. W. F. Harrison, chairman of the county Democratic executive committee, was down from Holladay Monday.

J. A. Barnes and J. W. Jones, both citizens of Big Sandy, called in Monday to see how THE CHRONICLE was progressing.

Several of the converts of the recent revival meeting at Post Oak Church, were baptised at Castile's mill last Sunday evening.

W. R. Herrin, a prosperous and successful farmer of the vicinity of Bristow, was a pleasant caller at this office the latter part of last week.

A team ran away with O. A. Utley and James Caneer Saturday, near Bivens' mill. No damage other than a slight scalp wound to Mr. Caneer.

A number from Camden have been almost regular attendants at Cowell's Chapel this week. Interest in the meetings at that place increases daily.

Little Frank Morris fell from a tree last Sunday and broke his collar bone. Dr. Travis soon relieved the pain resulting therefrom, and the little fellow is doing well.

A paper is being circulated for subscriptions to build a union meeting house, to be located on the line of the fifth and tenth civil districts, near where Nebo Church stood.

Dr. T. R. Luter, of Luterton, this county, was a pleasant caller at this office Monday. He is very favorably impressed with the all home-print make-up of THE CHRONICLE.

A series of meetings will be commenced at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in Camden, to-night. They will be conducted by Rev. Thomas F. Bowman, of Waverly, Tenn.

Mrs. Dr. E. B. Travis happened to the very painful accident of falling and breaking one of the bones of and dislocating her right ankle while returning from the Cowell's Chapel meeting Tuesday evening.

Cooper-Whitley.

W. R. Cooper and Miss F. M. Whitley, of the ninth civil district, drove into town Tuesday forenoon, obtained license, secured the services of a minister, were married before leaving the county clerk's office, and departed at once for their rural home.

Runaway Accident.

Mr. Leonard H. Presson, living about 2 miles west from Camden, met with a painful accident Tuesday. He was driving a horse to a hay-rake when the animal became frightened and ran away throwing Mr. Presson off. He fell on his head and shoulders and received very painful though not serious bruises. The rake is a complete wreck.

Marriage Licenses.

The following couples have obtained marriage licenses from the county clerk since our last paper, to wit: Frank Berry and Kate Graham; Frank Holland and Laura Corbett; P. A. Elmore and M. A. Holland; A. D. Goodman and Delia Cole; Earnest E. Fry and Lively Etta Rushing; W. R. Cooper and T. M. Whitley; T. A. Petty and L. F. Winters.

Public Speaking.

The candidates for representative will address the voters of Benton County at the following times and places, to wit:

Chalk Levy Springs Thursday, September 11.

Coxburgh, Friday, September 12.

Holladay, Saturday, September 13.

Lick Creek Church, Wednesday, September 17.

Big Sandy, Thursday, September 18.

Harmon Creek Church, Friday, September 19.

Speaking to commence at about 12 o'clock m.

Fry-Rushing.

Mr. Ernest E. Fry, one of Camden's most popular young business men, and Miss Lively Etta Rushing were married Tuesday morning at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rushing, residing 7 miles north of Camden. Rev. A. C. McRae officiated. The attendants were Mr. Z. D. Childress and Miss Ida Rushing. The bridal party returned to this place and were given an excellent dinner at the residence of Mr. A. G. McDaniel. In the afternoon Mr. Fry and his bride left on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fry, near Coxburgh, this county. THE CHRONICLE joins a host of friends in best wishes and hearty congratulations.

Political.

During a lull in the proceedings of the county executive committee last Monday, the large crowd present was taken advantage of by the contestants for the Democratic nomination for assemblyman.

Hon. W. P. Morris briefly stated his position on important measures enacted by the last general assembly and what he would like to have enacted by the next general assembly. He advised Democrats to organize and stand together.

A. J. Saunders announced his candidacy, briefly taking issue with Colonel Morris on several questions, and strongly advocating the re-chartering of the town of Camden, ending with an appeal for votes.

In a few pleasant remarks, Asa Swindle withdrew from the race.

Hon. John P. Lashlee next addressed the crowd and made known his views on important questions that will be fully discussed before the people of the county before the campaign draws to a close.

The contest is Democrat vs. Democrat; each of them believes that he is the one his opponents must defeat to secure the coveted prize, and that his claims are a little better than either of his opponents; each man is seeking the support of his constituents on the ground that his selection would result to the best interests of the party; and each one endeavored to impress it upon the mind of the assembled multitude that he had no higher ambition than to become their devoted public servant.

Secretary pro tempore.

A Retiring Official's Thanks.

TO THE CITIZENS OF BENTON COUNTY:—
I this day retire from the office of county clerk for Benton County, which position I have held for three successive terms (twelve years in all.) I have not a word to say of my official acts, but leave them with you to commend, criticize, or condemn, as you may have understood them. I might have done better, and am glad I have done no worse.

I now return to you my sincere thanks for the liberal support given me, and the kindness you have shown me in our business transactions—both official and private, and assure you that I will ever appreciate the same.

From September 2, 1878, to September 2, 1890, I have served as clerk under the following gentlemen as chairmen and judge of the court: J. H. Farmer, J. F. Presson, B. L. Utley, J. K. Wheatley, J. L. Coble, J. H. Combs, L. E. Davis, and B. C. Scruggs, whom I especially thank for their friendship and assistance, and whose associations have been very pleasant.

Justices, too numerous to name, composing the court during my continuance in office have my thanks for the pleasantness that has existed, and the courtesies shown me in official and social life.

With best wishes to my official associates and constituents, I now step down and out.

A. C. McRAE.
