Camden Camp No. 13462 Modern Woodmen of America will hold memorial services at the grave of their deceased neighbor, Cornelius C. Cole, at Mount Carmel Cemetery, near Garfield, next Sunday at 3 p. m. The public is invited, and all Modern Woodmen are cordially invited to take part. Hon. Joe F. Odle will make a short address.

Marjorie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Maiden, stuck a hairpin almost entirely through her left wrist yesterday afternoon. The impact of the point of the pin against the cuticle could be seen on the opposite side of her wrist. Mrs. Maiden attempted to withdraw the pin, but her nerve failed her and she hastily summoned a physician. The child pulled out the pin, and in less than fifteen minutes she was at play again.

Camden Camp Modern Woodmen of America met in the Masonic Hall Wednesday evening with a large attendance. Two applications were presented for membership and accepted. The sentry reported four applicants in waiting. The forest was put in readiness, and in a short time Harold Johnson, Gus Totty, Alvin Arnold and J. E. Bonds were lost in the forest. A guard was sent to their relief and conducted them through the various scenes of exemplified woodcraft. Neighbors W. J. Thompson and Barney Holland prepared a treat for the neighbors, which was served—ice cream and cake—after which the camp closed in ritualistic order.

Harve Prewett, who was captured at Denver and tried before Justice W. A. Lashlee Friday on a charge of taking some money and a suit of clothing from parties in the seventh district, was bound over to Circuit Court.

An ice cream supper will be given in the court yard this evening under the auspices of the Camden Cemetery Association, which organization was perfected at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon. Funds are needed to clean off the cemetery, and you can aid the ladies who have the matter in hand by patronizing the supper this evening.

The Postoak church burned down about midnight of Monday. When the fire was discovered the roof of the church was falling in and there is no clue as to how the fire originated. Services were held there that night, and it is supposed a match or lighted cigarette was dropped by some one, but this is only conjecture. The loss falls heavily on the congregation at that place, as there was no insurance.

The attention of our readers is called to the card of Drs. Johnson & Johnson, physicians and surgeons, of Murray, Ky., who will be in Camden August 20 to September 1. They are specialists in their line, and come to Benton County highly recommended. Give them an opportunity to convince you.

At a well attended meeting of the ladies of Camden Tuesday afternoon the Camden Cemetery Association was organized with the following officers: Mrs. W. P. McGill, president; Mrs. Will S. Corbitt, vice president, and Miss Lula Lashlee, secretary and treasurer. An advisory committee, composed of Mrs. Corbitt, Mrs. Minnie Yarbrough and Miss Minnie Lashlee, was appointed and is empowered to confer with those citizens who are interested in improving and beautifying the cemetery. Membership in the association costs $1, payable on admission. New members are solicited and every man, woman and child in Camden is eligible. The association will meet again next Monday afternoon.
