

Old Deestrick Skule

FUN FROM START TO FINISH

The New College Auditorium Tonight

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will stage the local talent entertainment, entitled "Exhibition of the Deestrick Skule," at the new college auditorium tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The cast was given last week.

The play may be said to be in three acts, and with the splendid variety of talent taking part in this mirth provoking comedy the audience is assured in advance of an evening of good, wholesome fun that will make your sides ache.

The entertainment is given for the benefit of the national W. C. T. U. organization, to be used in the great fight for nation-wide prohibition. Admission, adults 15 cents; children 10 cents. Choice seats may be purchased for 10 cents extra.

THE HONOR OF A COWBOY

A comedy drama in four acts will be presented at the

New College Building Friday Night, April 14, 1916

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Harry Morley, a cow boy with a secret.....	A. C. Steele
Jack Stanton, a road agent.....	Joe F. Odle
Bill Jenkins, a Montana Sheriff.....	C. N. Frazier
Judge J. E. Buckley, a frontier magistrate.....
C. Mason Maitland, an attorney.....
Jim Selby, cow boy and friend of Morley's.....	Dr. L. W. Dougherty
Missouri Smith, who has seen better days.....	Fred Presson
Scar Face, Indian with a fondness for whisky.....	G. M. Leslie
Mexican Pete, a road agent and renegade.....	Alvin Arnold
Sam Travers, a deputy of Stanton's.....	J. M. Holladay
Sam Smithers, a Deputy Sheriff.....	Aubrey Gibson
Texas } Members of Stanton's gang.....	Britton Hartley
Mosey }	Aubrey Gibson
Barkeeper of the "Red Light" saloon.....	Wyly Davidson
Mary Buckley, a maid with a fondness for the trail.....	Mrs. A. C. Steele
Lucy Arbuckle, a school teacher.....	Miss Nannie Odle
Susan Trevelyn, of New York's four hundred.....	Miss Maude Weatherly
Jennie Smith, who has a mind of her own.....	Miss Carrie Odle
Cowboys—Earl McRae, Logan McGlohon, Leslie Townsend, Cooper Williams and others.

"The Honor of a Cowboy" is a strong play, full of the old-time Western spirit and atmosphere and arouses genuine heart interest as it unfolds a stirring story of life during the period of 1875. Popular prices. Don't miss it.

Little Locals.

Orrin Lee Peeler spent Sunday with homefolks.

J. M. Oxford of Palestine was in Camden Monday.

W. T. Morris of Nashville was in Camden Monday.

J. A. Clement of Dickson was in Camden Wednesday.

J. F. Lindsey of Eva City was in Camden Wednesday.

Henry Hall of Missouri is here on a visit to relatives.

Dr. Charles J. Bain of Wyly was in Camden Tuesday.

William Allen made a flying trip to Huntingdon Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Peeler were in Nashville last week.

Fred Saunders of Morris Chapel has returned from St. Louis.

Attorney J. T. Peeler of Huntingdon was in Camden Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Odle and little child returned Saturday from Puryear.

Mrs. D. B. White spent the week-end with relatives at Eva City.

Blanty Hubbs of Morris Chapel has returned from a trip to St. Louis.

Charles Vineyard and Willis McCamy left for Memphis the first of the week.

A mule to a buggy shied at an auto yesterday forenoon. Result: Two men thrown out, buggy upset, harness damaged, no one hurt.

The bondsmen of the contractors of the new court house have asked for a stay of proceedings until they can look further into the matter.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of W. A. Stearns

Dr. and Mrs. Tom Cook of Hurlburg are visiting the family of Alma Fry.

Mrs. Alma Fry, who was painfully injured in a fall last week, is some better.

Mrs. C. L. Wright of Rives is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Stubblefield.

Mrs. Martin Waggoner of Denver is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herman Dye.

Arrangements have been perfected to erect a new school house at Chestnut Hill.

Leander Holland and Oscar Pafford of Chestnut Hill were in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Castile of Johnsonville spent the week-end here with relatives.

Mrs. Alvin Lashlee and children of Nashville are spending the week here with relatives.

A. J. Goodman of Eagle Creek spent the week-end with his son, Rudolph Goodman.

Mrs. H. D. Odle and daughter, Miss Nelle, have been visiting relatives at Sugar Tree.

Garvin Goodman and Miss Ada Reeves have been licensed to marry since our last report.

Mrs. Georgie Anderson and Mrs. G. P. Hicks spent Wednesday and Thursday in Nashville.

Robert Shultz has returned from Georgia, where he has been teaching through the winter.

Miss Elah Sanders of Huntingdon was the guest of Mrs. Mary Crocker the first of the week.

All members of Cross Roads church are requested to meet at the church Saturday, April 1.

Dr. G. P. Hicks returned Sunday night from a trip through Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. He was in Paris, Tex., the day before fire wrought such terrible havoc in that thriving city last week.

Mrs. G. P. Hicks and daughter, Brenda Mai, returned the first of the week from Henry County.

Mrs. Emily Lashlee is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. John W. Maiden, in the Bethlehem community.

F. E. Stanley, a leading attorney of Beardstown, was a guest of the family of Rudolph Goodman the latter part of last week.

Mrs. W. P. McGill and L. M. Presson went to Eva City Wednesday to see their uncle, John A. Holland, who is in very feeble health.

The building committee has accepted the new school building from the contractors and it will be occupied next Monday by the school.

The old livery barn on North Main Street east is being torn down this week. Thus one more eyesore is being removed from the town.

Our attention has been called to the vote of D. B. Gossett in the recent primary, which should be 317, instead of 316. We are glad to make the correction.

Pembroke school will present "Dot, the Miner's Daughter," at Morris Chapel Saturday, April 8. The cast is good, and the people of Morris Chapel will be well entertained on this occasion.

We have the earliest, big, high class-strawberry grown. Also the best one of the everbearing kind; bears the best-flavored berries from early spring until snow flies. Free booklet. Wakefield Plant Farm, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Miss Georgie-Lee Jones, teacher of expression, will present Miss Lula Wyly in the recital, "Polly of the Circus," at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, April 11, at 8 o'clock. You are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Johnson, wife of John Johnson, of the Chalk Level community died Tuesday night, of tuberculosis. The deceased had been sick for more than a year, but bore her affliction with much fortitude. We extend condolence to the bereaved family.

"The rejected stone" will be the topic for discourse by Rev. Frank B. Jones at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday at 11 a. m. At the 7.15 p. m. hour his subject will be "Staying the plague." The pastor bids you welcome both morning and evening.

Poultry Wanted.

J. W. Woody & Son and the Camden Produce Co. will pay the following prices cash per pound for poultry delivered at the car today and tomorrow:

Hens and ducks, 13 cents.
Old roosters, 6 cents.
Turkeys, 12½ cents.
Geese, full-feathered, 7 cents.

MILLINERY

An invitation is extended you to visit our

Annual Spring Exposition

of the season's authentic styles in Ready-to-Wear and beautiful Millinery.

Mrs. D. J. McRAE

WEST SIDE COURT SQUARE, CAMDEN, TENN.

THE "PRUDENT MAN" WILL BEWARE OF SMOOTH STRANGERS WITH NICE SEEMING SCHEMES

If all of these schemes which "Smooth" strangers come around to peddle are such great "Money makers" why don't they KEEP them themselves?

When a man is trying hard to sell you a proposition there if something in it for HIM—that's a sure thing.

Is it not better for us to keep our money here at home, invest in and build up OUR OWN community?

The man who does this is properous.

Make OUR bank YOUR BANK.

We pay 4 per cent interest on time deposits.

First National Bank

CAMDEN, TENNESSEE

Take - Your - County - Paper

FRY DRUG COMPANY

Pure Drugs and Chemicals
Druggists' Sundries
Paint, Oil, Varnish
Stains, Glass, Etc.

Toilet Articles
Choice Perfumery
Up-to-Date Jewelry
Fancy Stationery
Modern Fountain

South Side Court Square,

Camden, Tennessee