CHANCERY SALE OF LAND.

D. B. Thomas vs. Joe F. Odle et als.—In Chancery Court at Camden, Tennessee.

Pursuant to a decree in Chancery Court in the above styled cause, rendered at the May term, 1917, I will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the south door of the court house on the following described property consisting of a house and lot in the town of Camden, fifth civil district, and bounded as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a stake 10 12-23 poles south of the south boundary line of the town of Camden as run in the year 1849, the same being the southeast corner of lot No. 47 in the original plan of the town of Camden, said beginning corner being the beginning corner of a lot or parcel of land heretofore deeded by us to A. S. Justice and runs west with said Justice's north boundary line 19 31-33 poles to a stake, the northwest corner of Justice's said lot; thence south with said Justice's west boundary line 6 poles to a stake, the southwest corner of Justice's said lot; thence west 34 poles to a rock and then on west 10 5-33 poles to the land formerly owned by W. P. Saunders; thence north 145 feet to a stake standing 105 feet south of the northwest corner of a lot or parcel of land heretofore deeded by us to R. L. Stockard, said stake being the said Stockard's southwest corner; thence with the said Stockard's south boundary line east 43 poles to a stake; thence north with said Stockard's line 33 poles to a stake; thence east with Stockard's said line 54 feet to a stake, southwest corner of Stockard's said lot; thence south 6 poles to the beginning, containing by estimation 3 3/4 acres.

Also a 10-foot alleyway which is now used for ingress and egress from the barn and lot located and being on the land herein deeded to Joe F. Odle, leading north therefrom across the lot or parcel of land heretofore deeded by us to R. L. Stockard into the street between lots No. 46 and 47 of said town, said alleyway being 72 feet in length.

Terms of sale—Said property will be sold upon a credit of 7 and 15 months and in bar of the equity of redemption; the purchaser will give his interest-bearing notes with approved personal security and a lien will be retained on the said property as further security.

This August 20, 1917.
