

THE CHRONICLE.

A COUNTY NEWSPAPER.
 PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT CAMDEN, TENN.
 ENTERED AT CAMDEN AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER
 JAMES V. TRAVIS, Editor and Publisher.

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT.

The subscription price of THE CHRONICLE is $1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months; 25 cents for three months, which positively must be paid in advance. All subscriptions will be promptly stopped at expiration of time paid for.
 Ordinary and similar notices will be charged for at the rate of five cents per line. We will furnish rates for display and local advertising on application.
 News communications and articles on questions of public interest are solicited, but we assume no responsibility for the expressions contained in all such communications and articles published.
 Remittances can be made in various ways that are perfectly safe, but all remittances sent are at risk of the sender.
 All remittances and business communications should be sent to
 J. V. TRAVIS, Publisher,
 Camden, Tenn.

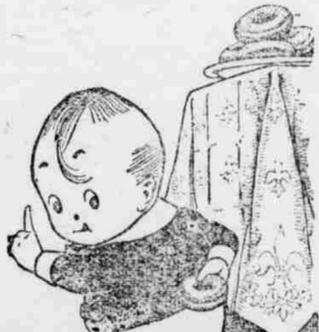

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1920.

SUNSHINE.

The sunshine is God's great agency for health. Disease germs live and lurk in darkness and filth. Sunlight and air destroy them as surely as do the most effective germicides made by man.

For 12 years a "health register" has been kept in every house in Paris. A study of these records shows that overcrowding and insanitary conditions do not favor the speed of consumption as much as the absence of sunshine. Old, dirty and even dilapidated houses with plenty of sunshine showed fewer cases of tuberculosis than some of the new and costly apartment houses with narrow courts and containing rooms from which both sunshine and air were almost excluded and where there were many servants. Many of these expensive houses were found to be veritable breeding places for consumption.

If the sun is shining throw up the shades, part the window curtains, and give its health promoting rays a chance to flood every accessible corner of the room.

The Pirate-

"Sh! What would happen to me if I were your kid? Well, if you're not acquainted with Calumet Baking you don't know what a good excuse I have. I Can't Help Helping Myself—they're so good! Good for me too, because Calumet Baking are wholesome and easily digested.

Millions of mothers use CALUMET BAKING POWDER because of its purity—because it gives the best results and is economical in cost and time. Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

You save when you buy it. You save when you use it.

TELL US ABOUT IT.

A few days ago a most estimable lady met us on the street and with tears in her eyes reproved us for not having mentioned the fact that she had had a friend (maybe it was a relative) visiting her last week.

We told her that she had not let us know anything about it and therefore we did not know she had a visitor. Then she said, "Well you should have known; I thought you were running a newspaper."

Wouldn't that rattle your state? Some people have an idea that an editor ought to be a cross between Argus and Anna Eva Fay. They seem to think that our five senses are augmented by a sixth that lets us know everything that happens even if we see, hear, feel, taste or smell it not.

My dear lady, editors are only human, or, at least, almost human. If you have a friend visiting you, if you are going away or have returned from a visit elsewhere, if Johnie falls and breaks his arm, if your husband chops his toe instead of a stick of wood, if anything happens that makes you glad or sad, happy or mad, let The Chronicle know it. If it is not convenient to call at the office, mail or send us a card. Tell us about it. That's the way to get it in the paper. The editor will appreciate your thoughtfulness and so will your visitor.

A GOOD PROPOSITION.

To keep posted on current events is not only an intellectual pleasure but it is a duty you owe to yourself as well as to your country. No man who does not keep himself and his family informed as to what is transpiring around him can be as good a citizen as the man who reads.

The Nashville Banner is completely equipped to give you all of foreign, general and State news in generous measure, while The Chronicle gives all the home news with thoroughness and in attractive form.

By a special arrangement we can supply both of these high class journals at $7.50 per year, which is just a little more than the price of the Banner alone. Remember you get seven issues of the Banner per week, including the big Sunday issue with magazine, rotogravure and colored comic sections.

J. V. TRAVIS,
 Publisher

The registered automobiles in the four large cities of Tennessee are worth more money than the total assessment of all personal property in those cities. This personally is now being placed on the assessment books and the effort of the tax assessors who are assisted by the statistical department of the State Board of Equalization have been very gratifying so far. It is now apparent that the increase in personal assessments in the State will be as great or greater than that of the realty. Since real estate has been assessed at cash value the personal property tax-payer is willing to give in his personality at its full value. The new law is growing popular in every section of the State where its provisions are fully understood.

Again we say God bless the manly man who, whenever the occasion demands, will dare to speak out and defend the right and condemn the wrong. There are the kind of men we favor for public offices. The man who, in the language of Sam Jones, wears a cotton string where his backbone ought to be, should be laid on the shelf.—Brinkley (Ark.) Argus.

PROPER WAY TO EAT.

At a recent meeting of medical men Dr. F. A. Burrell of Boston, spoke of the amount of mischief done by the very common habit of eating the meal rapidly, according to the farmer's motto of "quick to eat and quick to work."

Thorough mastication was of the utmost importance and of course, this presupposed a proper condition of the teeth. Gastric digestion was often weakened and much distress was caused by the ingestion of too much fluid with the food, particularly at the beginning of a meal.

Another factor in causing dyspepsia was a habit of eating food in silence or without that mirth and good fellowship so necessary to insure a nervous condition favorable to the normal action of the digestive organs. These little details might seem trite and unimportant, but it was the duty of the careful physician to instruct his patients in regard to them.—The Medical Record

APHORISMS.

Flattery is one thing and praise is another.

The devil always fishes in the shallow places.

Don't borrow trouble. You already have a plenty.

The man who errs to please a fool is a fool himself.

Take your food slowly and try to be merry while eating.

Winks speak louder than words—in the mind of a flirt.

More wives than spinsters have been disappointed in love.

A girl who has money in her own name is anxious to change it.

A woman's popularity is often due to what she forgets to say.

Many small sins are hatched from the incubator of idleness.

Life is only a temporary harbor on the boundless shore of eternity.

Thrift and stinginess are no akin and do not bring the same results.

Wit is the wine of intellect, but an ill nature may turn it to vinegar.

The man who minds his own business always has profitable employment.

Some men could be more help to the world by going out of it than by staying in it.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

ANNIE OGLES VS. DOLPHOS OGLES—IN THE CHANCERY COURT AT CAMDEN, TENN.

It appearing from the bill in this cause that the defendant, Dolphos Ogles, is a non-resident of State of Tennessee and a resident of the State of Arkansas so that the ordinary process of law can not be served upon him, it is therefore ordered by the said court, Dolphos Ogles, appear at the office of the Clerk and Master at the court house in Camden, Tenn., on or before the first Monday in May, next, the same being the 3rd day of said month and a rule day of this court, and make answer or demur to the bill filed against him in this cause or the same will be taken for confessed and the cause set for hearing ex parte as to him. It is further ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in The Camden Chronicle.

This February 28, 1920.
 G. M. LESLIE, Clerk and Master.
 S. L. PEELER, Solicitor for Complainant.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Mrs. Emma Thompson et als vs. Mrs. Mary Cowell—In the Chancery Court at Camden, Tennessee.

In this cause it appearing to me from the bill, which is sworn to, that defendants, Fannie Rushing and husband, John D. Rushing, are non-residents of the State of Tennessee and residents of the State of Illinois, they are, therefore, hereby required to appear on or before the first Monday of April, 1920, before the Clerk and Master of said court at his office in Camden and make defense to the bill filed against them in said court in the above styled cause seeking a sale of the lands of which H. B. Bridges died the owner for partition, or otherwise the bill will be taken for confessed. It is further ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in The Camden Chronicle.

This February 12, 1920.
 G. M. LESLIE, Clerk and Master.
 S. L. PEELER, Solicitor for Complainants.

JOHN WHITE & CO.

LOUISVILLE, KY.
 Established in 1857
 Liberal assortment and full value paid

for new FURS

We have Everything to paint your Home and make it look New.

Paints, Brushes, Oils Varnishes etc.

Don't put off PAINTING things. It is economy to paint your house outside and in.

It is economy to buy your paints from us because ours last and hold their color.

Buy your paint from us and KNOW it is right.

DAVIS DRUG CO.

A CURE FOR MALARIA.

"I am told that there is a means of getting the malarial germ out of the system. Is there? And if so, please tell me what it is"

The following cure for malaria is suggested in the North Carolina State Board of Health Bulletin. It may be altered by the advice of a physician to suit individual cases:

"Take 5 grains calomel; 4 hours later take a tablespoonful of Epsom salts. At the time of taking the calomel begin taking 5 grains quinine, every 4 hours, 30 grains a day, for 72 hours. Then reduce to 5 grains of quinine every 6 or 8 hours, 15 to 20 grains a day, for 72 hours longer. Then reduce to 5 grains of quinine morning and evening for a week, after which the person should continue taking 5 grains a day until frost. Strychnine and iron tonics may be prescribed by the physician, if necessary, but do not spend your money and strength on patent medicine and do not prescribe for yourself, for you do not know that your heart can stand strychnine."—The Progressive Farmer.

Political candidates and platforms, this year, must stand up to thrusts of the hard, bare knuckles of reason applied by the thinking, independent voter.

Charged with making a profit of $23.50 on an overcoat costing him $18.50 Otis Clark was bound over to Federal grand jury at Chattanooga,

There are a good many more or less all-seeing eyes here on earth a/so, and some of them are accompanied by all-wagging tongues.

The Chronicle and Progressive Farmer, $1 80.

Farms, Etc., for Sale

Rushing office building and lot, located northeast court square; fronts 34 feet, 4 rooms, well constructed; building easily worth the price asked for house and lot.

The dwelling of John Baker in East Camden, lot 65x370 feet; also one extra lot 65x360; house has 5 rooms, 2 porches, good cypress shingle roof, No. 1 floor, 3 fire places, good cistern, garden and orchard with 40 bearing fruit trees. Bargain for cash.

130 acres, practically all in cultivation; four-fifths of acreage in Creek bottom. Good pasture with running stock water. Medium improvements and in good neighborhood, 4 miles south of Camden on public road. Good terms.

750 acres, 150 acres in cultivation, Eagle Creek bottom; 50 acres in same bottom uncleared; remainder in timbered upland. Improvements: One 5-room house, one 3-room house, two 2-room houses; good barns, orchard, gardens, etc 1 mile from designated road, 15 miles south of Camden and 3 1/2 miles from river landing. Price $7 875. Terms.

House and lot in South Camden (overlooking old depot building) house of 5 rooms, two porches, cistern at porch; lot contains about 3 acres.

A warehouse 80x28 feet, lot 90x110, near old depot; coal shed, 4-ton stock scales; concrete base, galvanized side and roof; good terms and a bargain.

Seven room bungalow near court square, Camden; waterworks in the house; bath; coal, wood and smoke houses, large stove will heat every room.

HOLLADAY & PRESSON.
 CAMDEN, TENN.

TO MY FRIENDS AND FORMER CUSTOMERS

Once more I have entered the mercantile business in Camden. Let me prove to you that I can save you money on groceries. Come and see me.

E. E. Jordan, Camden, Tenn