Red Hot Prices

Sound corn $6 for 2 1/2 bushel bag; why pay $6.50?

Good flour $1.90 and $1.95; why pay more?

A good match 5c per box; why pay 7 or 8?

Good salmon and kraut for 15c; why pay 20?

Good apples and peaches 25c a pound; why pay 28 or 30?

Good hog lard (large lots) 25c; why pay 27 or 28?

Good cheap coffee 25c; why pay 30? Better coffee for the price can't be found—the same that most merchants sell for 30c. A good 30c coffee others make a 40c seller of it. A 50c coffee—none better on earth.

We have a small line of dry goods, harness and queensware at bargains.

We have just unloaded a lot of fresh flour and feeds and are handling these goods out under the market of today.

It is impossible to say more than we have good fresh stuff at rock-bottom prices and that we can't tell you all the good things we have, for we are adding to our stock daily—but come and see.

DOBSON.
