Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Trousdale and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to the many friends for the kindnesses shown them during the sad hours while waiting for the arrival of their son's body from Greenville, and especially H. C. Counts, S. A. Chitwood, and J. B. Birdwell for their kindness and attention in receiving the body at the railroad station and bringing it here. We pray God to be as merciful to you all and as considerate of your welfare as you have been to us and ours.

Mr. B. C. Trousdale,
Mrs. B. C. Trousdale,

ALL MEDICINES FAIL, BUT VIN HEPATICA CURES MR. LEWIS.

Case of Tennessee Man That Baffled All Medical Skill Until Vin Hepatica Was Used.

"There is nothing in the world that can beat Vin Hepatica!"

That is what Mr. J. H. Lewis, of Daisy, Tenn., had to say to the man at the Vin Hepatica counter in Jo Anderson's Drug Store, Chattanooga, about this great Nature medicine.

"My stomach, liver and kidneys were in such horrible shape," said he. "that I was under the treatment of a doctor all the time and for 15 years I could hardly get about at times. I tried all medicines of all descriptions, almost, without any relief, but after taking Vin Hepatica, I found that I could eat onions, beans, most anything else for supper, and then go to bed and sleep like a child—something I had not done for years. I am feeling better now than I have felt for years, and I owe it to Vin Hepatica.

Mr. Lewis' experience is just the experience of thousands of others who have had weak stomachs, suffered from indigestion, kidney, liver or bowel trouble, nervousness, and were dosing themselves to death with all sorts of medicine. All he needed was Vin Hepatica.

And all you need, if in the same condition, is Vin Hepatica, one of the greatest medicines known to medical science. It is composed of eight herbal remedies which are, day in and day out being prescribed by the best physicians the world over for disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, nervousness, sleeplessness and impure blood.

We strongly recommend this great Nature remedy. Come and get a bottle and try it, on our recommendation. We know it is a real medicine of the highest merit.

Vin Hepatica is being introduced and sold by L. R. Anderson's, Gainesboro, Tenn. adv.

HAYDENBURG R. 2.

T. S. Clark and family visited relatives in Free State Sunday.

Miss Bonnie Wade is visiting at Flynn's Lick.

J. H. Huffines and family took dinner with W. A. Mosley Sunday.

Dube Forkum, wife and little daughter, visited M. A. Gaines Sunday.

A number of boys from this place were visitors in Gainesboro during court week.

Lester Ray and Comer Huffines went to Gainesboro Saturday on business.

Celt Hackett motored to Gainesboro Saturday.

Casper Hackett is getting along nicely with his new dwelling. It will soon be completed.

Harvesting time is nearing a close. People are all getting busy gathering corn.

Thanksgiving is not far in the future, a day in which all rational people will return unto the great giver of all things their many thanks for past blessings.

Many of our neighbor boys left for training camp Tuesday. We lend them our strongest support and best wishes.

Physically speaking, there is usually a great deal of kicking before anything dies, especially animals. We trust Kaiserism is now making her last kicks. The beast will soon lie as a dead carcass before the bleeding panting world, never to be resurrected we trust.

A special war meeting will be held at the school house at Haydenburg Sunday night at 6:30 o'clock. Everybody who is interested in our boys that are in the training camps are invited to attend. Interesting talks will be made by good speakers. If you love the boys who are going to do your fighting come.

GRANVILLE DEPARTMENT.

Chas. Williamson is attending school at Cookeville.

Miss Francis Maddux spent the week-end with home folks.

Miss Clara Watts left to-day for Sparta to visit relatives.

Ben Fowler Baugh was here Thursday transacting business.

John Butler, farmer of Salt Lick, was transacting business here Saturday.

Walter Cooper motored to Nashville, and will be accompanied home by his mother.

Chas. Burton, of Whites Bend, spent the week-end as guest of home folks near Granville.

Tom Maddux and wife and Will Maddux motored to Cookeville on a business trip Saturday.

Eldon Draper passed thru here with a fine bunch of hogs that he purchased from H. S. Holleman.

G. Lee McGlasson, one of Gainesboro's leading drummers called on our local merchants Monday.

Misses Margaret Spivey, of Flynn's Lick, and Daisy Duddy of Gainesboro, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Shanks and little son, George Shores, have returned to their home in Cookeville, after a few days visit with relatives here.

W. C. and F. M. Williamson, Guy Grisham, Luthur Sutton, L. J. Lynch, Carl Huff, Guy Maddux and others accompanied some of our soldier boys to Gainesboro Monday. Other left Tuesday for Camp Gordon, Ga.

A wedding of much interest was that of Miss Ada Pharris and Will Elrod. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pharris, of Liberty. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fate Elrod of Buffalo Valley. We extend to this couple our best wishes for a long happy life.

Otis Fox, of Antioch, was here Sunday.

Edgar Stout, of Nameless, was here Saturday.

Dr. H. L. Baugh, of Flynn's Lick, was here Monday.

N. B. Brown and Dewey Bockman attended the mock wedding in this city given Saturday night.

Alvin Audrey and wife, of Smith county, passed thru here Saturday enroute to Liberty to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Harris.

C. S. Brown and son, Sam Taylor, and daughter, Mandy, accompanied by Tom Tittle spent the week-end in Nashville.

Lewis Simmonds, Jr., and sisters Miss Nina and Mesdames C. G. Gailbreath and D. C. Williamson motored to Cookeville last week.

C. G. Gailbreath and R. E. Daniel left Tuesday for Red Boiling Springs, and other places. Mr. Gailbreath reports good business and many sales.

To rectify the mistake made in last week's news the firm is styled Granville Merc. Co., instead of Brown & Clemons, although they constitute half of the firm.

The "Mock Wedding" held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church on last Saturday evening under the skilled supervision of Mrs. J. C. Jackson of this city, and Mrs. H. J. Shanks, of Cookeville, was very interesting and highly entertaining. It proved quite a success. It was also remunerative. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the Army Comfort League. The amount taken in was $34.60.
