Prominent Citizen Dies After Brief Illness.

The many friends of James Washburn were shocked to learn of his death, which occurred Friday morning about one o'clock at his home in Gainesboro.

He had been sick only a few days, having taken with pneumonia on Sunday. His condition grew rapidly worse from the beginning and resulted in his death as stated.

Mr. Washburn was one of our leading merchants, having successfully conducted the business left by his father eight years ago. He had made many warm friends of his customers and they will miss him badly. He was always progressive and ever ready to lend a hand in any work that was calculated to upbuild the community.

Mr. Washburn was 38 years old, and leaves a wife and one small son, a mother and brother besides a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death.

The Sentinel joins the many in mourning his death, and we extend our heartfelt sympathy to those who are near and dear to him.

Funeral was held this morning (Saturday) with interment in Gainesboro cemetery two miles south of town.

Lieut. Jona Dudney arrived home this week from Camp Gordon, where he received an honorable discharge from military service. Lieut. Dudney served as private several months at Camp Jackson, previous to entering the Officers Training School at Camp Gordon in May. He was commissioned in August, and since that time has been serving his country faithfully and loyal. We are proud of the record made by Lieut. Dudney and at some future time will have more to say relative to the service he has rendered his country.

PAPER LATE.

On account of sickness the Sentinel is not published until late Saturday evening. If our readers do not receive any paper next week blame it on the Flu.

MAZER'S TOOTH SPECIALTY
Dept. X, 2007 So. 5th St. Philadelphia, Pa.

The most remarkable tree in the world, perhaps, is the Banyan, of India. A tree of this species, on an Island in the Nerbudda River, is believed to be the same one that is mentioned by Alexander the Great. The branches send down numerous "aerial" roots that grow down to the soil and form props or additional trunks, until a single tree often covers so large an area that it will shelter thousands of men. At the time of Alexander the Great's visit, one tree covered so extensive an area that it sheltered ten thousand men. Under the protecting shade of these trees the Indian merchants still conduct their markets. The merchants are known as "banians," because they abstained from meat for many centuries, but modern customs have driven out many of the Hindu's traditions.
