It is only a little more than a hundred years since anthracite coal has been used as fuel, the first attempts to burn it proving unsuccessful. Judge Jesse Fell, of Fell House, Wilkesbarre, Pen-sylvania, was convinced that "stone coal," as it was called, would burn; but his arguments were laughed at. Finally convinced that what was necessary was a strong draft. Judge Fell built a fireplace of brick with a bottom and front of iron grating.
Piling the coal in this, he built a wood fire under it. Soon the coal was a red hot mass, and the neighbors flocked in to marvel at the sight and revel in the grateful warmth. That was in February, 1808.

returned home from Free State.

Bud Lynch, of Woodrow, was here Tuesday buying hogs. He found some big ones here.

Mill At Auction.

On the first Monday In January, 1919, I will offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, for cash, or good notes, one grist mill equipped with I2 H. P. International engine. This is the mill formerly owned and run by Young and Crowder, who purchased the outfit direct from factory, 2 years ago. The engine and mill are in first class running order and as good as new. The mill will be sold to satisfy a debt of $150 in favor of G. W. Chapmau, and $83.50 in favor of L. B.
Anderson, together with interest on same. Balance coming from sale of said mill, is to be paid to J. L. McCawley. Terms fixed on days of sale. The mill is located on the North-side of of Gainesboro, opposite the post office.

LOCALS

You can find all kinds of Christmas tricks at Quarles & Sadlers. Candies and fruits galore. Come and buy now while they are plentiful. Lots of other nice things for the grown ups.

H. G. Young came in Thursday to spend holidays.

T. L. Gist has returned from a brief stay in Nashville.

L. B. Anderson has returned from a brief stay in Nashville.

Riddle Young has gone to California on a prospecting tour.

R. A. Montgomery has returned from a busines trip to Nashville.

L. W. Wooten who has been critically ill for some time, is improving.

Miss Georgia Carter is at her home in Lafayette until after the holidays.

Misses Lillie Brown and Lucile Gist are visiting friends and relatives in Celina.

J. D. Loftis and wife of Cookeville were recent visitors in Gainesboro.

Following our usual custom there will be no issue of the Sentinel Chistmas week.

The Flu situation has about cleared up, no new cases. It's gone we hope, never to return.

Nathan Roberts has returned from Nashville, where he carried a shipment of swine.

Join the Red Cross, one dollar makes you a member of the greatest organization in the world.

R. H. Johnson and family who have been in charge of the Gainesboro Hotel for the past year, have moved to Nashville.

H. Y. Tinsley has returned from Climpton College, N. C. where he has spent the past 3 months taking special military training.

I. B. Pate, who has been traveling in the western states for the Oriental Oil Co. of Dallas Texas, arrived home Tuesday to spend the holidays.

C. C. Gore has returned from the S. A. T. C. of Knoxville.
He received his appointment as Sergeant on the day the Armistice was signed.

On account of sickness in the editors families, the Sentinel was not published last week. We regret very much of having to disappoint our readers, but it was "cases of flu and measles."

Bird Lee Quarles has returned from the S. A. T. C. at Knoxville. Mr. Quarles studied military tactics, and is highly gratified over the opportunity of attending this school.

Lieut. E. W. Mabry of Tipton Okla., after a brief visit to friends here, has returned home. Dr. Mabry has been in the Medical Officers Training Corps at Ft. Riley Kan., His many friends here were glad to see him.

Johny Gipson is in Montgomery, Alabama, at the bedside of his cousin, Desoto Gaw, who is in a hospital there. Mr. Gaw was stricken with flu followed by pneumonia, and his condition is critical.

The epidemic of measles tha has been prevailing in Gainesboro for the past two weeks, is abating. Practical every child in town has been a victim of the disease, but there has been no deaths from it. In another week the disease will have run it's course.

Old Santa Clause will give the little folks a surprise on Christmas day. He will visit them at their homes and deliver their candies, furits and other presents that he may have for them. He will be in a nicely decorated vehicle, accompanied by a band of Carrol singers, who will sing appropriate songs at every home. So all the little folks must be ready for his coming, and have your baskets ready to receive the gifts that dear old Santa brings.

Barton Minchey Writes From France.

Somewhere in France.
Nov. 14, 1918.

Dear Father:

Just a few lines to let you know that I am in good health, and hope this letter finds you the same.

No doubt the people at home were glad to hear of the Armistice, and I would like to have been at the celebration when the good news came. You cant imagine how glad we boys were when we heard it. We were up in the line and it was pretty tough business, especially the cold weather setting in.

There are lots of things that I could write about, but I will have to let it go until another time.

We are bilited in wooden shacks in a forest, but now that the fighting has stopped we can build big warm fires and make things pretty comfortable.

The main thing the boys are worrying about now, is, when are we going to start home.

The more a man travels over here, the more he realizes that there is only one good place to live, and that is the dear old U. S. A.

The reason I have not written sooner, is, because we have been moving from one place to another for the past few weeks and it is hard to write under such conditions.

I saw Leslie Canter and Lige Carver the other day for the first time, and both are getting along fine.

I will close, hoping that this finds every one at home in good health. Write soon.

Your son,
Barton Minchey.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady.
Five Bottles of Cardal Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time..."

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr.
—about my taking Cardal. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles...After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardal a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardal has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. R 74

Low Meat Prices vs. High Cattle Prices

If the farmer cannot get enough for his live stock, he raises less, and the packer gets less raw material.

If the consumer has to pay too much for his meat, he eats less of it, and the packer finds his market decreased.

The packer wants the producer to get enough to make live-stock raising profitable, and he wants the price of meat so low that everyone will eat it.

But all he can do, and what he would have to do in any case to stay in business, is to keep down the cost of processing the farmer's stock into meat so that the consumer pays for the meat and by-products only a little more than the farmer gets for his animals.

For example, last year Swift & Company paid for its cattle about 90 per cent of what it got for meat and by-products (such as hides, tallow, oils, etc.)

If cattle from the farm were turned miraculously into meat in the hands of retailers (without going through the expense of dressing, shipping and marketing), the farmer would get only about 1 1/8 cents per pound more for his cattle, or consumers would pay only about 2 1/4 cents per pound less for their beef!

Out of this cent or two per pound, Swift & Company pays for the operation of extensive plants, pays freight on meats, operates refrigerator cars, maintains branch houses, and in most cases, delivers to retailers all over the United States. The profit amounts to only a fraction of a cent, and a part of this profit goes to build more plants, to give better service, and to increase the company's usefulness to the country.

Dudney--Birdwell.

A Wedding, which will be of much interest to their friends, was that of Miss Bennie Birdwell of Whitleyville, and Jona Dudney of this city, which occurred at the mouth of Roaring river last Tuesday afternoon. Rev.
Marion Harris of Meagsville, officiating. Only a few special friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B.
Birdwell. She is a young lady of many graces of mind and person, who is capable of filling the home she will adorn with happiness, and will prove to be truly a help mate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand.

The groom is from one of our best families, and by those who know him, he is considered one of the substantial and coming young men of the county, who will make his mark as a worthy son of honorable parents.

They left Wednesday for Spencer where they will visit the groom's sister, Mrs. W. C. Heady.

They will make their home at Whitleyville. Mr. Dudney will resume his duty as cashier of the Whitleyville bank first of the year.

Congratulations on the happy event are numerous, and this paper is greatly pleased on this occasion to add its hearty good wishes to those so freely extended.
