JOHN J. GORE ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF G. O. P. STATE COMMITTEE.

After many conferences and hours of bitter argument over the election of a chairman, the Republican state executive committee, in session at the Hermitage Hotel Monday night, elected John J. Gore of Cookeville to the office unanimous vote.

While the election of Mr. Gore came as a surprise to many of the Republican leaders, he was choice of the majority of the committeemen, when they met Monday night for the second time during the day.

At the morning meeting, when the election of a chairman could not be agreed upon, the committeemen were forced adjourn until last night in an effort to agree upon a compromise man. Mr. Gore was not present at the meeting, but was notified over long distance telephone last night of his election.

Three candidates, W. F. Carter, of Johnson City, Dr. R. Q. Lillard of Lebanon, and Paul Kreusi of Chattanooga, who were strongly considered for the championship, at no time during the session yesterday had a chance for victory, despite the threats of several committeemen to bolt and break a quorum.

It was after Republican leaders had held a number of conferences that the backers of the three candidates agreed to withdraw their names in favor of Mr. Gore. The committeemen entered the session prepared to vote unanimously for Mr. Gore.

After Mr. Gore's name had been placed in nomination, Hal H. Clements, retiring chairman, nominated W. F. Carter for the place, but he received only three votes. The election of Mr. Gore was then made unanimous. Owing to his absence, committeemen selected Mr. Clements as temporary chairman, who presided during the meeting.

Following the election of the chairman, W. F. Appleby of Lexington was chosen secretary and treasurer of the committee by acclamation. The committeemen elected Mrs. Walter Jackson of Murfreesboro and Mrs. M. H. Hankins of Livingston as assistant secretaries to Mr. Appleby.

Mrs. James S. Beasley of Nashville was elected vice-chairman of the committee. Her choice was made unanimous.

Mrs. Beasley has been active in Republican politics for a number of years. When her name was placed in nomination she was highly complimented by the committee for services she had given to the party. For several months she has been at the head of the Republican women's committee.

Congressman, J. Will Taylor, who came to Nashville Sunday to be present for the committee meeting, said after the session last night, that he was pleased over the choice of chairman Gore and predicted success for his party under the leadership of new chairman.

Carroll Reece, recently nominated for congress from the First District, said:

"Chairman Gore's election means success and victory in the party. He is the man for the place and his election will be satisfactory to all republicans."

Jesse M. Littleton of Chattanooga said:

"I am well pleased with the election of Mr. Gore and the other selections of the committee. The Republican party will now work in harmony and will be successful under the guidance of such men and women."—Tennessean.

Interesting Letters From Coalinga and Detroit.

Coalinga, Cal.
August, 31, 1920.

Dear Editor,

As I haven't noticed any news from this place for sometime I will write a few items.

All of the Tennessee people here are well and at work, as far as I know.

An electric storm visited Coalinga a few nights ago, but done no damage. It reminded me of dear old Tennessee.

Jennie Reed left here a few ago for home.

Mrs. Bob West, who has been ill for sometime, is improving.

Pat Murphy visited his sisters, Mesdames R. L. Lawson and Auston, Thursday.

A number of the Tennessee people here enjoyed a picnic a few days ago. Watermelons and other good eats were served at lunch.

A car ran into Bob Reed's jitney a few days ago and done considerable damage to the jitney.

Branston Master's house was entered by some one a few nights ago and some clothing was carried away.

Pasco Swearingin visited Bob Reed and Richard Lawson, Sunday.

The people of Coalinga are preparing to celebrate Labor day.

The churches of Coalinga held union service for the summer last Sunday. A large congregation was in attendance.

Virgil Smith broke his arm last Saturday while attempting to crank his automobile.

There seems to be a great change taken place on Sugar creek. Wonder if we will know the place when we return.

Hello! you guy that spoke of the two sisters in Coalinga as being so cheap that they never spend a dollar for their home newspaper and regret it when they do.

An interesting singing was held at L. A. Hensley's Sunday evening.

Fowler Loftis was heard singing "Home Sweet Home" the other day. Wonder what that means.

Robert Allen took a vacation recently and went to Los Angeles and while there accidentally ran his head through a street car window. No wonder we are called hard heads.

Herman Poston arrived here last week.

Slim Lee's car is still in the hospitable as the result of a wreck more than a month ago.

Jessie Mansell when are you coming back to Cal.?

Some one write the news from Morrison Creek.

JOBS SCARCE IN DETROIT.

Detroit, Mich.
Sept. 1, 1920.

Dear Editor:

Spare me space and I will give you a little news from here.

I am back in the city after spending a few days in Gainesboro. I found my job in waiting but have just heard we are liable to shut down at most any time. Several of the big shops have already closed down, and jobs are scarce at present.

We are having some very cool weather.

I see some of the Tennessee boys every day. All are well and holding good jobs.

G A Dudney, if you ever come to this city again and fail to

Tips To The Many "Calamity Howlers."

The "calamity howler" who goes about whispering of disaster is wretched pest from whom few escape. His special delight at present is to assure us that the country is headed straight for a terrific financial crash and he rolls the word "panic" on his tongue as if it was a peice of chocolate-coated candy. The next time he comes your way just fire these at him:

The United States of America has 5 percent of the earth's population, 24 per cent of its agricultural production and manufactures 35 per cent of its goods.

Our natural wealth is more than $225,000,000,000, while England, our nearest competitor, can only total $80,000,000,000.

Our trade balance today is $5,000,000,000. We have purchased about $8,000,000,000 of foreign-placed securities, have loaned our allies $10,000,000,000, and could loan as much more if we wanted to.

Half of the gold in the world is in the United States and our banks hold in deposits billions more than there are in all the other banks in the world.

These figures were hurled at number of Chicago's big business men lately by John Fletcher, vice-president of the Ft. Dearborn bank, and they made even his hearers, men accustomed to talk of millions as other men talk of dollars, sit up and take notice. Mr. Fletcher wound up his broadside with this salvo.

"The real trouble with this country today is that there is a premium on idleness."

Revival At Methodist Church Begins Sunday, Sep. 12.

A series of evangelistic services will begin at the Methodist Church next Sunday, Sept. 12th at eleven o'clock. Bro. Bratcher, of Carthage, who has made a splendid record in revival work this year is to do the preaching. Perhaps he may not get here till Monday. If not, the pastor will preach Sunday morning and evening. He will also preach at Flynn's Lick, Sunday afternoon.

Let me urge that every Christian in Gainesboro get a feeling of responsibility on his or her conscience for the success of the meeting which is to be held for the common good of the town and community. Let us pray and be ready to work in any way we can to help the meeting to be a success. Let your attitude toward the Church and the meeting be "I am ready to do anything that is reasonable and right to help in this greatest cause. Feel free to call on me for anything that I can do."

We would like to have the help of those who do not pretend to be Christians. We would like to help you, and we would like for you to help us. Won't you do it? I feel sure that every citizen in our town would say that the Church has been an important factor in our civilization. That being true, the citizen who fails to stand for such an institution and lend encouragement thereto is lacking in patriotism and loyalty to his country's best institutions. Can one afford not to stand for such institutions?

The pastor was delighted to preach to the largest congregation Sunday night that he has ever had the pleasure of preaching to in Gainesboro. That's right, come again.

It is clear, even to a passerby, that the Devil is not chained down in Gainesboro, and there's no telling what he and his associates will do, if allowed to run at large. Then, let us wake up and call a halt on some things by "over coming evil with good."

A. R. Gibbons, pator.

GLADDICO.

Miss Ola Mai Collier spent Saturday night with Ethel Smith.

Two interesting ball games were played Saturday. Wartrace was defeated by Bagdad the score being 8 to 0. The other game was between Browns ville High School and Gladdico High School. The score was 10 to 1 in favor of G H S.

P V Cornwell, Mack Cornwell and Walter Smith went to Hendersonville Friday.

W V Brooks had a sale Saturday, F A Cornwell was the auctioneer.

G C Huffines, hustling traveling salesman for P & T Co., was calling on our merchants here Saturday.

W H Myers and sons Joe and Gene made a business trip to Gordonsville.

Mrs Booker and daughter, of Defeated, are spending the week with Frank Reeves and wife.

Miss Sallie Myers left last week for Adams, Tenn., where she will teach in the High school.

Flod Taylor, who has been at work at Clifty, for the past few weeks has returned home.

Mr and Mrs O G Fox and John H McDonald were in Granville several days last week.

A F and Z B Dixon and Estell Martin attended the institute at Gainesboro.

Miss Ethel Smith entertained a crowd of young folks Sunday. Among those present were: Ola Collier, Gertie Smith, Hattie, Esther and Lou Dixon, Joe Butler, Lester Murphy, Wilson Mullinax, John H McDonald, Hubert Hasting, J R Smith and Courtney Dixon. Mellons were served and everybody enjoyed themselves.

The Sabbath Day And Its Improvements.

Upon Sunday we all assemble, that being the first of the week in which God set himself to work upon the dark void, in order to make the world and in which Jesus Christ our Saviour rose again from the dead; for the day before Saturday He was crucified and the day, which is Sunday He appeared to His apostles and disciples and taught them what I have now proposed to your consideration with respect to the Sabbath day. It is to be set apart for God. It is God's day and not yours. The day is the Lord's, not merely the morning or afternoon, but the whole day. The command is not "Remember the Sabbath morning to keep it holy, or the Sabbath afternoon, but the Sabbath day." Too, we are informed of the early Christians that they spent a great part of the day together engaged in those solemn exercises which were ripening them for a Sabbath above. The day should be begun with God, be carried on with God and with God. Private prayer, family devotion, self-examination and meditation; reading scriptures, visiting the sick, public worship and religious instructions of the young and especially of one's own children are the engagements that should occupy the Sabbath. If at the head of a family you are commanded by God to let your servants and your cattle rest; and if you are employing these, you ars as much profaning the Sabbath as if employed yourself. The ways in which this sacred day is profaned are innumerable. Some profane it by buying and selling traveling or amusements. The Sabbath is profaned in numberless instances by attending to household business that should be done on Saturday or left until Monday. It is profaned by bakers busy at their ovens; by farmers employing their servants in work that is not absolutely essential; reading of improper books, not only books of profligate tendency, but books not calculated to promote the power of vital piety as works in science, in history or on merely speculative subjects in theology. The Sabbath is profaned in an awful degree by the indulgence of improper thoughts and by conservation of a description unsuitable to the day. What has a Christian who should be improving the Sabbath as means making the soul meet for heaven to do the Lord's day with politics with the state of nations; with the tattling of family affairs; with stole of trade; with passions; are these subjects for such day and for creatures who have a heaven to gain, a hell to escape, a God to glorify, an eternity before them and but few Sabbaths to improve.—V. S. Massey in Carthage Courier.

It is easy to be cheerful when those around you are cheerful—so, from a selfish standpoint, it is worth while to try to make happy those happy you associate with.

LET'S QUIT JARRING ABOUT THE WOMEN FOLKS VOTING. ITS HERE.

Yuby Dam, U. S. A.

More political turmoil seems to be bruing in the domestic camps in Tennessee.

It did look like we had got politics in a good fix, with Luke Lea and Crabtree up Salt river, up a tree. Everything was blooming, but more trouble has begun to bubble.

This time there is a woman at the bottom of it. This is nothing new for woman. She has been on this job of trouble making ever since Eve's dainty little roughish fingers away back B. C. pulled that apple from the tree.

I like woman though in spirit of all her frailties. Doesn't matter what she wants, I say let her have it. Lets not have trouble over her. I like all types of women individually or by the bunch. I adore the modest, unassuming, retiring, gentle-natured creature, that shrinks back from publicity, one that you can wrap around your little finger like a vine; one that worships her husband and is satisfied with her home and is willing to let man's business alone, or I like one that rushes out into the limelight and says she can paddle her own canoe. Develops a heavy jaw, seizes the ballot box, chews tobacco like a man, makes the amber come and can spit out a black cat's eye 30 feet off hand. So, lets don't fall out over this little tempest in a teapot. She is going to vote. The thing has to be. Gov. Roberts couldn't stop her if he wished any more than he could turn back the tides of the sea. If we don't stand together we will turn the state over to the enemy. Remember the man had seven sons that were always quarreling, and the seven sticks, and how things nearly got in a bad fix. Lets stand together through sunshine and shadow and all kinds of weather.

I, and my towns are for Gov. Roberts.

Gad Town, Lower Bill Town, Blue Cut Ruin, Fiddlers Green, and Yuby Dam are for him to a man, one and all will stand like a stone wall.

"Let woman come a blin."

Lovely woman,

The sensible Slicker Snake.

GAINESBORO R. 3.

Fodder pulling is the order of the day.

A large crowd attended the box supper at Flynn's Lick Saturday night.

Anna, Ella and Clara Ragland visited Rhoda Shoemaker.

Mrs Bert Flatt of Nashville is visiting daughter, Mrs Campbell Ragland.

Mrs Cordell Vantrease of Nashville, is visiting her sister, Mrs Carmel Ragland.

Bro. Lenard will conduct a series of meetings at the forks of Flynn's creek, beginning Aug. 12th.

Late authorities on algebraic problems tell us that men should man the hustling type of girls. Girls are willing to hustle for a man who wants that kind of a girls.
