REV. K. A. EARLY BREAK'S ARM.

Rev. K. A. Early, pastor of M. E. church here, fell from a ladder Thursday afternoon and broke his left arm just above the wrist, while he and his brother, Bill Early, were painting the ceiling of the church. They were using two ladders which were tied together at the top, one working on each ladder, and the ladders became unbalanced and tumbled over. His brother escaped being hurt by jumping. Dr. Loftis, who happened to be at the church at the time, dressed the arm, and Bro. Early was soon feeling alright. His many friends deeply regret his injury and trust that it will not be long getting well.
