

JACKSON COUNTY SENTINEL

VOL. 23, No. 41

GAINESBORO, TENN., THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1921

$1.50 A YEAR

CLEAN-UP SQUAD AT COOKEVILLE, OCT. 24.

Disabled Soldiers To Be Aided In Securing What's Due Them From Uncle Sam.

A Clean-Up Squad, consisting of a representative of the Red Cross, the Veteran's Service Bureau American Legion, and a Medical Officer, will be in Cookeville, October 24-25-26, for the purpose of assisting ex-service men who have not already done so, to file their application for Compensation, Vocational Training, Insurance, Back Pay or Mileage due them.

Any one who has knowledge of any disabled man who is entitled to Government benefits should communicate with S. L. Gipson, Red Cross Representative, Cookeville, Tennessee, giving the man's name and address. Upon receipt of this address, the men themselves will be communicated with, and advised of the coming of the Clean-Up Squad. In supplying these names, you may be assisting a worthy disabled man who does not know his right under the law. Your assistance will be greatly appreciated by the Cookeville, Red Cross Office.

Cookeville Items.

C. K. Darwin is spending a several days in Nashville.

Mr. J. T. Anderson will leave on Wednesday for Baltimore, where he will be under the care of a specialist at Johns Hopkins. Mr. Oliver Anderson, of Oneida, will accompany him.

Mr. Ray Maloney of this city, and Miss Mary Byers of Jackson County, were married last Sunday. Rev. W. B. Gentry officiating. Mr. Maloney is engaged in the automobile repair business in this city, being a member of the firm of Maloney and Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Maxwell have gone to Atlanta, where they accompanied their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, who will be a student at Washington Seminary. Mrs. Maxwell will return the latter part of the week, but will leave soon for a visit of some weeks in East Tennessee. During her absence Miss Clarissa will be at the girls' dormitory of T. P. I.

Dr. W. H. Ragland of this city, the oldest physician in Putnam county, is today celebrating his seventy-ninth birthday—he having been born on Sept. 22, 1842 in Sullivan's Bend, in Smith county. While he is well preserved and enjoys good health, he is not now actively engaged in the practice of his profession, having retired a few years ago. He is one of the few surviving Confederate veterans of this county.—Putnam County Herald.

An exchange warns to beware of the woman who agrees with you. What's the use of wasting time in warning us against something that will never happen.

Lawyers have learned that it is not wise to put a man and his wife on the same jury.

Shall We Join The League of Nations and Stop Warring.

Yuby Dam, U. S. A. Looks like we have fought long enough. We certainly have been scrappers. We have fought well. We fit one another in many a war, with only a little recess now and then to get ready to fight again.

I notice on all of historie's pages that the battle-axe and tomahawk have dripped with blood down through all the ages. Cain was the first to start the bloody game, when he beat down Able with a bamboo rod, jumped his bond and fled to the land of Nod.

Then comes tussel after tussel. Sampson got mad about something and tore his hair and went on a tear. Didn't take time to get a gun, but grabbed up a jaw bone and in one of the worst of fights beat a thousand Philistines down upon the ground and beat out their livers and lights. Joshua fought all day and didn't get done and stopped the sun so that he could see to kill them everyone.

Xerxes tried his hand and did his best, lost a million men more or less.

Alexander fought and fit and sit down and wept quite a bit, because he had whipped them all and had to quit. Then came Caesar, the way he did fight was a sight. Multitudes of men batted their eyes on the "Big night." After this the fur flew, the dark ages through. Then bobbed up Napoleon Bonapart perfect at the fighting art. It was just awful bad. He killed a million scad.

Washington and Lee also had a finger in the pie and many a man had to die.

Then Kaiser Bill started in to paint the whole world red, meant to kill everybody dead.

The like was never seen before, the way he fit, until the United States had to make him quit.

And now we are heading toward the battle of Armageddon. The blood will run up to the bridle-bit, unless we sign up and agree to quit.

The historical Slicker Snake.

P. S. Yuby Dam will co-operate with the United States in any plan for permanent peace. We are in favor of joining England and Japan in the plan of chopping the army and navy down.

I'll send "Little Jimmy Crow" to Washington on Nov. 11, to sign up for Yuby Dam.

Bible 206 Years Old.

TULLAHOMA, Tenn., Sept. 26.—The story that a Bible recently discovered at Red Springs, printed in 1818, was probably the oldest Bible in the state is a wrong assumption. The late James G. Aydelott had on exhibition at the Tennessee Centennial an old Bible 11x17x4 inches, oak boards and pig skin back, printed in London in 1715. It contains the Book of Common Prayer, the Psalter of David and other interesting features as three two-page maps. Mrs. James G. Aydelott has loaned this Bible to be exhibited at the Tullahoma fair October 7 and 8.—Nashville, Tennessean.

COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS FROM OVER THE COUNTY.

DYCUS.

Several from this place attended the State Fair last week. Rev. Madewell conducted a series of meetings at Camp Ground last week.

Who's complaining of the dry weather now?

Noah Nesbit was a pleasant caller at R. L. McCues' Sunday.

Making molasses is the order of the day at this writing.

Fred Forkum and Lillie Mai Williams were married Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, John Williams and wife.

Clifton McCue and Bill Cox reported a good time at the show at Willette Saturday night.

H. L. DeFison has traded for a well machine.

Nan and Dave Williams and their mother, Mrs. Rhoda Williams were the week-end guests of Mrs. Jim Williams at Goodletsville.

Rev. Hunter will begin a meeting at Bagdad next Sunday. Dycus has made an offer to meet Celina at Red Springs Oct. 1.

MEAGSVILLE.

Am Hamilton and wife spent Sunday with O. L. Scantland and wife.

Georgie Mai Flynn has returned from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Calvin Mabry near Butlers Landing.

Author Murphy, wife and children spent Sunday with his parents, A. J. Murphy and wife.

Alice and Thomas Scantland entertained a crowd of young folks last Sunday week.

Preston Crowder and wife were the dinner guests of Wesley Swan and wife Sunday.

Comer Whitaker, wife and little daughter, Jewel Clyde, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Vick Whitaker.

The party given by Inez Hamilton Wednesday night, in honor of Maiford Hall, who will move from here real soon, was enjoyed by a number of youngsters.

Morgan Murphy and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Murphy's parents, Lee Phillips and wife.

Turney Bybee and wife spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Vick Whitaker.

Jewel Clyde, the little daughter, of Comer Whitaker and wife is recovering from her recent illness.

Sarah J. Whitaker spent her vacation with Alice Scantland.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Will Barlow held Thursday morning at 10:30 by Rev. Tom Berry. The remains were interred in the family cemetery at Antioch, near her home. She leaves a husband nine children, a father and three brothers to mourn her death. The bereaved ones have our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. A. J. Murphy spent Monday with Mrs. O. L. Scantland.

Dillard Lynn, the assistant teacher at this place, was married to Miss Jennie Pruett, Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. We wish them a successful life together.

Clio Spurlock, of Gainesboro, spent Saturday night with Cleo and Bill Moss.

Elna and Inez Hamilton, Sarah J. Whitaker, Agnes and Joe Murphy, Frank Flynn and Elbert Hall spent Sunday afternoon with Alice Scantland.

Luther Roddy, wife and children, Mrs. Albert Gaw and Mrs.

Verda Hall spent the week-end with their parents, Perry Crowder and wife.

A large crowd of young folks visited Will McDearman and Maiford Hall Thursday night.

Mrs. Eula Coe spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Melvin Allen.

We are having some rainy weather at present everybody seem to be taking it easy as they are getting plenty of rest and can read about Fatty Arbuckle.

Austin Terry, wife and children have returned from Livingston, where they have been visiting his brother, Flander Terry.

WHITLEYVILLE.

The sick are all improving.

We are having plenty of rain. Lula and Foster Crowder, Theo Cason and Kate Hix spent Saturday night with Stella Painter.

Mrs. Miles Anderson and children attended church at Haydenburg Sunday.

Jasper Carter and wife visited relatives at North Springs.

Mrs. Harley Jenkins and Miss Ida Hix spent Thursday at J. Keith's.

Several from here attended the state fair, among whom were: J. Gaines and wife, Dr. Quarles and daughter, Miss Nola, Jona Dudley and wife, Walter and Ruby Birdwell, Glyn Gaines, Mai Page and Ruby Draper.

Johny Mercer and wife of Brimstone, visited the latter's parents, Pat Painter and wife, Sunday.

Jordan Myers of Gallatin, are visiting Mrs. Myers' brother, Rad and Fine Willmore and sisters, Mesdames J. D. Quarles and John Sadler.

If anybody has a calf to sell, see S. T. Hix.

Mrs. Kirk Herod has been very sick, but is some better at present.

Malden Hix is on the sick list. We may have some weddings to report right soon.

BIG BOTTOM.

Making molasses is the order of the day here.

Gracs Hall entertained a crowd of young folks Saturday night.

Clio Hall is visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Smith.

Born, to Herman Moss and wife Sept. 25, a nine pound boy. Clio and Grace Hall, Lora Rogers and Hiram Crabtree took dinner with Bud Mayton and wife Sunday.

Mrs. Verda Hall and son, Chas. have been visiting her parents, Perry Crowder and wife at Meagsville.

Franklin Spivey, wife and daughter, Mai, have been visiting at Stone.

Frank Bailey, of Gainesboro, has been visiting Grace Hall.

Hubert Pailey, wife and daughter, Mabel, spent Sunday with Rad Bailey and family.

The married man is the happier—not because he has no troubles, but because he has no time to worry over them.

Be natural. Do not try to impress people with your importance. If you are really important they will find it out.

Commissioner Peck Writes On Rotation of Crops.

We have found in feeding farm animals that we get better results if we feed a properly balanced ration. We have also found, in growing crops, that we get better results if we have the proper elements of plant food in the soil. While there are a great many elements of plant food entering into the growth and maturity of plants, our soils are abundantly supplied with all but three of them—nitrogen, phosphorus and potash.

Nitrogen is the most expensive if purchased in the form of a commercial fertilizer. But nature has made provision to forestall this expense if we will but comply with her laws. She has provided a class of plants we call legumes, whose roots go deep into the ground. These plants can take in nitrogen from the air and store it in little nodules on their roots.

The non-leguminous plants cannot take nitrogen from the air, but must depend on the supply in the ground for this necessary element in its growth. In that we have the fundamental principle for crop rotation. Grow the legumes to store nitrogen in the ground and follow with crops that depend on the nitrogen in the ground for their growth.

Among the legumes we have all the different clovers, we have beans and peas and alfalfa. We can store the nitrogen by selecting the legume that fits in with our plan of farming. Then we can grow corn, wheat, oats, rye, barley, the grasses for hay, and they will feed on the stored up nitrogen in the soil. But we should not grow the shallow rooted crops year after year, but rotate with legumes.

Crimson clover is a legume and can be grown as a winter crop and turned under and have the land available for a money crop during the summer. The essential thing for us to remember is that we have the legumes or deep rooted plants that can take nitrogen from the air and store it in the soil, and we have the shallow rooted plants dependent on the nitrogen in the soil. To prevent the nitrogen supply being exhausted in the soil it is cheaper to the legumes to restore it than it is to buy the nitrogen in the form of a commercial fertilizer.

Granville Defeats Buffalo Valley In Fast Game.

Puckett Pitches No Hit, No Run Game.

Granville defeated the strong Buffalo Valley team, Saturday, Sept. 24th, on the latter's diamond in the best game of the season.

The feature of the game was the excellent pitching of Puckett who pitched a no hit, no run game, striking out fifteen batsmen, and allowing only one runner to reach third base. Johnson starred with a home run and two singles out of five times up. Score by innings: R—H—E Granv. 1-0-0-2-0-1-2-0-0 6--8--1. B. V. 0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0 0 0 4. Batteries for Granville; Puckett, Dowell and McDonald. Batteries for Buffalo Valley, Lefevers and Alcorn.

HOME BREW LID CLAMPED ON HARD

Only Fruit Juice Can Be Manufactured in Man's "Castle" Is Ruled.

Instructions were received here yesterday from the department at Washington to arrest all manufacturers of wine, cereal beverage or distilled spirits in the home for home use, it was announced by W. A. Smith, federal prohibition director for Tennessee.

Mr. Smith said that there is no provision in the federal liquor statutes which allows the manufacture of home brew. Although this is true, prohibition officials say that it has been almost impossible in the past to secure an indictment in Middle Tennessee of persons arrested for manufacturing home brew.

"Non-intoxicating fruit juice may be manufactured by the head of a family" the director said, "but prior to such manufacture he must register with the collector of internal revenue at the custom house. Intoxicating wine, home brew and distilled spirits may not be made in the home."

The director's statement was made upon the receipt of the order from Washington.—Nashville Tennessean.

Monroe Taylor of Pleasant Shade Seriously Wounded.

Monroe Taylor, from near Pleasant Shade, Tenn., is in a critical condition at St. Thomas hospital, having been brought there late yesterday, with a bullet wound through his stomach and a bullet wound in each leg, following an alleged altercation between himself and Bose Law, a neighbor.

According to advice from Carthage, near the scene of the shooting Taylor ordered Law to remove some cattle from a lot, it is alleged, and Law claims that Taylor threw stones at him before the shooting.

Law was arrested and had a hearing before a magistrate, after which he was required to make a $2,000 bond. He will appear for trial on October 3.

Dr. W. D. Haggard is attending the wounded man.—Nashville, Tennessean. Tuesday Sept. 27.

(Note—The Bose Law referred to in the above article, is not the one living near Haydenburg, this county.—Ed.)

MEETING AT FLYNN'S CLOSSES.

The revival services conducted at Flynn's Lick Methodist church last week resulted in several conversions and three addition to the church. Rev. S. R. Bratcher of Carthage, Tenn., did the preaching. He delivered some fine sermons and they were much enjoyed by the people who attended. Large crowds attended and the meetings, and attention was excellent.

According to a recent report from F. C. McCuskey agricultural agent for Franklin County, the community organization at Center Grove has assisted in securing a preacher for that community, and the organization of a Sunday school, and at a recent meeting raised $75.00 to help pay the preacher for the next six months. This is another demonstration of the good that can be accomplished when people of community will act as a unit.