LOCALS

R. S. Dudney, prominent farmer of the Freestate, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Dudney is recovering from a very painful cut inflicted on the muscle of his right leg in a runaway accident, which occurred about three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Montgomery motored to Cookeville Monday.

Attorney, P. J. Anderson has returned from Celina, where he attended criminal court last week.

Edwin Reeves, of near Gallatin, has been visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Reeves.

Judge C. E. Snodgrass, of Crossville, spent Saturday night in Gainesboro, en route home from holding court at Celina.

Noah Hawkins, who has been working in the oilfields near Drumright, Okla., returned home Wednesday. George Strong another Jackson county boy, who has been in the same fields, came the same day. The boys say times are not so prosperous out there at present.

The November term of criminal court will convene here Monday, Nov. 7. The docket show about 100 misdemeanor cases, a number of which, are cases which have been tried, and called back on good showing. There are also nine bound over cases, four of which are murder cases.

Miss Mary Smothermau, a trained nurse, who has been waiting on Mrs. Lee McCartney for the past weeks, has returned to Nashville. She spent a few days with her uncle, Mrs. J. L. McCarver, at Dycus, after leaving the McCartney home.

Halloween passed off quietly in Gainesboro. Only a few little "pumpkin spooks" made their appearance, and they were prevented from visiting many homes on account of the inclement weather. Several social affairs which had been planned, were called off on account of rainy weather.

Mayors, bankers, lawyers, prominent government, state and county officials, prominent business and professional men and Ministers of the Gospel have endorsed Tanlac. Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro, Tenn.

An event which is looked forward to with much interest, is the school meet, or Field Day, to be held here December 2 & 3. A good program has been arranged and from all reports, this is going to be something worth while. Begin to make your arrangements now to attend.

The Ladies Aid will give a Thanksgiving dinner when that day rolls around. Watch for particulars in next paper, and in the meantime begin to get ready for it.

You will want a bottle of the wonderful Tanlac remedy. You can get it from Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro, Tenn.

The only explanation of Tanlac's great success is Tanlac's true worth. Anderson & Haile, Gainesboro, Tenn.

ANNOUNCEMENT

J. M. Chenault, of Hendersonville, Tenn., has authorized us to advertise and sell his beautiful farm of 464 good, rich acres

—AT AUCTION—
Saturday, November 12, 1921

At 10:30 A. M., on the Premises

One-half mile south of the thriving little city of Hendersonville, Tenn., with its splended high school and good churches, 15 miles from Nashville, and only one-half mile from Interurban line, on the Walton Ferry Pike. This is one Sumner County's best and most beautiful live-stock and grain farms--in fact, one of the best in the State--and is known as the Seawright estate. This farm has more than a mile of Pike frontage, with its broad acres covered with blue grass and fine old forest trees. Besides all of its good blue grass and rich fields, it contains 165 acres in cultivation of Cumberland river bottom second to none. This farm is fenced and cross-fenced with woven wire and in a high state of cultivation.

Improvements consist of a beautiful ten-room home lighted with electricity, which sets well back on the lawn, with elegant driveway and clubhouse, two good tenant houses, one silo, four good barns, and all necessary outbuildings. Watered by four good wells, one pond, two springs, and river.

Immediately after this great old estate is closed out at auction all the live stock, corn, oats and hay, hogs and machinery--In fact, all the equipment necessary to handle a farm of this kind--will be sold to the highest bidder.

TERMS: 1-4 cash, balance on equal payments of 1, 2 and 3 years, with 6 per cent interest

Old-Fashioned Barbecue Dinner Served on Grounds.

For any information, or to be shown this farm before day of sale, write, wire, or phone
