

HOW WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Escape the Dreaded Sufferings of that Period by Taking Mrs. Block's Advice.

Hopkins, Minn.—"During Change of Life I had hot flashes and suffered for two years. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and got good results from taking it. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish this fact as a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT BLOCK, Box 542, Hopkins, Minn.

It has been said that not one woman in a thousand passes this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. These dreadful hot flashes, sinking spells, spots before the eyes, dizzy spells, nervousness, are only a few of the symptoms. Every woman at this age should profit by Mrs. Block's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., about your health. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

STRAIGHT LINES NOW FEATURE CLOTHES FOR STREET WEAR

ALONG with new suits for fall, come the new cloth dresses, the one-piece daytime frocks that have made a secure place for themselves among street clothes. They employ the same fabrics as suits do—the same sort of decoration and finish—with more latitude in the matter of trimming—and have become a necessity in the wardrobe. They have an advantage because they are worn without a coat for early fall and under heavy wraps for midwinter.

The new arrivals in street dresses disclose designers to be of one mind, at least in the matter of the straight-line silhouette. They have developed their ideas in many ways, but the foundation of the styles lies upon the straight-line figure, even when plaits are employed in the skirts. Some of these dresses have the effect of skirts set on to bodies, under narrow strap belts, placed at a low waist line; but this belt does not break the line from shoulder to hem. Bell sleeves, elbow or three-quarter length appear to have captured the fancy of their makers—but collars and the neckline are much varied.

The dress pictured here is of navy tricotine. Its half-length sleeves are slashed and faced with crepe-de-chine. The wide opening is bordered with the crepe and ornamented with buttons—one square, white button following another from neck to hem, in two rows. They also outline the bottom of the sleeve. A black patent leather belt, piped with white, could hardly be narrower, and is loosely adjusted about the waist.

Many street dresses have panels that emphasize the straightness of their lines. Narrow braid and small beads in neat rows, maintain the tailored character of these frocks on many of the smartest models, and the strap belt adds its testimony to the same feature of the style. Small fur neck pieces, for crisp autumn days, will be added when the time comes to wear these graceful substitutes for the suit.

SMART STYLE IN KNITTED THINGS FOR FALL WEAR

STYLES have become so important in knitted things for outerwear that garments are named after them—as "tuxedos," "slip-overs," "tie-backs," and so on, rather than by more revealing terms. In wool, silk and fiber silk manufacturers have made smart things for outer wear that deserved to be re-named and are. The sweater-coat has become the "tuxedo," our old favorite the surplice waist is now a "tie-back," and the sweater pure and simple almost is no more—the "middy"—with various descriptive words preceding this title, the tuxedo and the semi-tuxedo have replaced it, aided by new sweater-blouses.

This movement to emphasize style has resulted in the most attractive outer wear for fall that has ever been presented by the knitting mills. These knitted things are for everyone—young or old—but they fit the youth of school girls and young women at college as surely as smooth cheeks and sparkling eyes. Worsteds middles in white with collars in navy or cadet blue or jockey red are turned up about the bottom, with flat pearl buttons calling attention to the fact, and made with elbow-length sleeves also provided with turned-up cuffs. As sure as fate someone will invent a knitted hat to complete this snappy affair for fall.

A plain tuxedo is shown above. Full length revers and cuffs are provided by knitting the yarn in a different stitch and there is a detachable knitted sash finished with small tassels

Dotted White Vells Poplar.

It is surprising how the colored chenille dot holds its own in fashionable velling. And now that the white veil is having such a tremendous vogue we see white vells dotted in bright colors such as jade, cornflower blue, cherry, coral, etc. Even the new nine-inch vellings that are becoming so popular are being shown in white.

CAP and BELLS

LATTER-DAY PUGILISM.

"I understand the young pugilist rejected an offer of $25,000 for 40 minutes' work."

"With extreme hauteur, too. He informed the fight promoter that his hotel bill last year amounted to that much and a person of his prominence couldn't think of working for his room and board."

Mismanaged Fame.

"Did Bacon write the Shakespeare plays?"

"I don't know," replied Mr. Stormington Barnes. "Whoever wrote 'em showed carelessness in not employing a press agent to look after his personal interests."

Practical Interchange.

"A soft answer turneth away wrath," remarked the expert in quotations.

"True," replied Mr. Dustin Stax; "but in regular business a soft answer isn't as valuable as a hard bargain."

Maybe So.

"That doctor must know his biz. I feel better already."

"That's the result of stepping out of his gloomy old anteroom into the sunlight."

"Well, maybe he knows his biz, at that."

The Ruling Class.

The Depositor—What's the idea of this new clearing house association rule fixing noon for your opening hour? Think it'll suit the public?

The Bank President—No, not that. But our cooks and chauffeurs object to getting up so early.

HAD TO FOLLOW

"I wonder where that candidate stands?"

"Doesn't seem to stand anywhere. Keeps running around in circles."

Transferred.

He pressed the maiden's ruby lips, But he was soon to find That when she took her lips away The ruby stayed behind.

Gyped for Each One.

"Any uplift movements going on in this town just now?"

"You'll have to ask Mr. Grabcohn about that."

"Why so?"

"By consulting the stubs in his checkbook he can name them all."

Social Blunder.

"Pa made a terrible break at the wedding feast."

"What did he do?"

"After they had handed him his plate of chicken salad and the finger roll and the cup of coffee he actually grabbed a chair and sat down to eat."

A Discovery.

The Women's Dean—Remember, young lady, that billions of bacteria are propagated through the practice of kissing.

The Senior—That's funny. How did they ever find out that bacteria indulged in kissing?

Where Ignorance Is Bliss.

"If you read more you would know more."

"Yes, and miss all the sensational cases by getting rejected for jury duty."—American Legion Weekly.

Liberal Donation.

Stella—How many kisses do you allow Jack when saying good-night?

Mayme—Oh, any given number.—Cartoons Magazine.

Tax on Credulity.

"The Jibways must be a remarkable couple."

"In what respect?"

"She had most of the money when they married, but I understand she never reminds him of it."

Terrible Blow.

"The banker's daughter turned me down."

"Did it break your heart?"

"Worse than that. It ruined my credit."

DODSON WARNS CALOMEL USERS

You Cannot Gripe, Sicken, or Salivate Yourself If You Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition, and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

Decided.

"Jones and I have made a bet and you are to settle it. I say that—"

"What are the terms of the wager?"

"Oh, the loser is to buy a good dinner for the three of us. I claim that—"

"Never mind that, I never knew Jones to pay a bet. You lose."—Judge.

Important to Mothers

Humor in Humidity.

The easier it gets to stick to the office chair literally, the harder it is to stick to it figuratively.—Boston Transcript.

Beneath Him.

"But didn't Opportunity ever knock at your door?"

"Probably."

"And you didn't answer it?"

"I? Certainly not! What do you think the servants are for?"—Boston Transcript.

FOR SUNBURN OR SORENESS

Apply Vacher-Balm; it relieves at once. If we have no agent where you live, write to E. W. Vacher, Inc., New Orleans, La.

Athletic.

"Thomas—'Life is such an obstacle race.' Brett—'It is to those who jump at conclusions.'"

The Set.

"Yes, I am telling you she is a Jewel." "Ah. Set in her ways, eh?"—Cartoons Magazine.

NO LOSS IN THAT VENTURE

Darkey Got More Out of Garden Than Ever the Owner Was Lucky Enough to Get.

Not long ago a couple of negroes who had long before been neighbors in a southern state rather unexpectedly met in Philadelphia. Of course, they talked of old times in the South and one of them remarked:

"How 'bout dat truck garden, Joe? When I left you had jest taken it over. Did it pay?"

"Well," said Joe, "I didn't have nothing to complain 'bout."

"I always had a mighty pore opinion 'bout dat truck garden," continued the other darkey. "You remember I told you before you got it that you would never get your money back."

"But I did get my money back," returned the other. "I made more out of that garden than the owner ever did."

"You don't say so?"

"I shore does," continued the other. "I got the rent out of it, and that's what the owner never got!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Biological.

Teacher—And what is an egg?

Rupert—An egg is a chicken not yet.—London Answers.

The sword swallower should tackle a saw occasionally; it would be more toothsome.

GAVE VILLAGE SECOND NAME

Boy's Rejoinder to Puzzled Tourist Responsible for Distinction Enjoyed by Kentucky Hamlet.

"A village in my state," says a Kentucky representative, "had for many years the unique distinction of possessing two names. It received the second but more popular name in this way:

"A stranger who had lost, or thought he had lost, his way, found himself at a point on the turnpike where two ramshackle cottages, a blacksmith and an incognito postoffice stood. The only human being in sight was the traditional barefooted boy.

"'Boy,' said the stranger, 'can you tell me how far it is to Orangeburg?'"

"'Mister,' said the youngster, with admirable sententiousness, 'you're plum sock in it.'"

"'And Plum Sock it became and remained.'"—Exchange.

A Mixed Metaphor.

Speaking of mixed metaphor—an ex-doughboy was relating his experience somewhere over there.

"'I'll say it was some battle. I was up in the air for the time being with my back against the wall, but I resolved to die in the ditch rather than yield an inch, so I continued to advance regardless of the Jerries who were pressing me from the rear.'"—Hartford Times.

Mental butterflying at 2 a. m. A great indoor sport for thoughtless people

One of the surest ways to become physically incapable of doing your best work is to get only snatches of sleep—broken by disturbing dreams.

If your sleep is being disturbed by drinking tea or coffee, you may be sowing the seeds of a nervous breakdown.

Do not wait until your nerves are affected by the drugs, thein and caffeine, in tea or coffee. Protect your strength, vitality and endurance.

Have sound, restful sleep, and wake refreshed and fit for any task.

Postum, the delicious cereal beverage, with its golden-brown richness and coffee-like taste, will let Nature restore your coffee-irritated nerves, and bring you sound, refreshing sleep.

Postum is wholesome and acts in a normal way. It possesses the advantages of a hot drink, without the ill effects of tea or coffee.

Drink Postum for a week or two. See what a difference it will make in you!

"There's a Reason."

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

At all grocers.
