Song, "Star Spangled Banner," by Sixth and Seventh Grades.

Presentation of Flag, Dollie Smith.

At the close of these responses the student body gave the pledge of allegiance to the flag, which is as follows: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic for which it stands—one nation, indivisible—with liberty and justice for all."

STORY HOUR

Dr. McClain told historical stories to the pupils of the third and fourth grades Friday afternoon. Dr. McClain is gifted in telling such stories and children can not help but be greatly benefited from hearing him.

Mrs. McDearman, president of the League told a beautiful story by Mary Stuart, "Prince Scarlett," to the children of the primary department. Mrs. McDearman is equally as good a story teller as she is president, and her story was a treat to the little ones.

Mrs. Algood Carlen and Mrs. McDearman will be in charge of Story Hour this Friday at 1:30 o'clock.

STORY TELLERS' LEAGUE

The regular monthly meeting of the Story Tellers' League was held Friday afternoon at the school house with Mrs. McDearman, the president, presiding.

The attendance at this meeting was splendid and important business was discussed.

Rev. and Mrs. Craig were made members unanimously. Owing to several matters on hand, the program was not given, but will be given at the next meeting which takes place the second Friday in December.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Walter Carlen called a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association at her home Saturday afternoon. A number of enthusiastic members responded.

Manager E. F. Neal of "The Strand" was present at this meeting and made a proposition to the Association in which he makes a splendid and liberal offer, to bring some good, attractive, educational pictures to the school children, as well as to older people.

Mr. Neal is putting forth a noble effort to raise the standard of "leaves" in Cookeville, and the Parent-Teacher Association is delighted to endorse this movement.

The first pictures in this series will be Travel Pictures and the first picture to be shown is an Aeroplane Trip Over Florida Keys, A Sail on Beautiful Indian River Through the Everglades, Palm Beach Scenes and a good animated cartoon which everyone will enjoy.

The "picture show" has come to stay, therefore it behooves the mothers of the town to "choose" the pictures your child sees.

PRESIDING ELDER TO PREACH

Rev. H. B. Blue will preach at Algood Sunday morning, Nov. 21, at 11 o'clock, and at Whiteon Chapel in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at both services. He will preach at Cookeville Sunday night.

THANKSGIVING AT ALGOOD

The Algood school will celebrate Thanksgiving with appropriate services at the school building Thursday morning. The Algood, Presbyterian and Methodist churches will also hold union services at 11 o'clock.

GEN. HARVEY HANNAH SPEAKS

Gen. Harvey Hannah spoke in Cookeville Monday afternoon to an audience that comfortably filled the courthouse. Only a few ladies were present, owing to the bad weather.

Hon. O. K. Holladay presided and introduced Mrs. Rutledge Smith, who presented the distinguished speaker with the following words:

Ladies and Gentlemen, and Young People of Putnam County:—Cookeville is no ordinary town but is a town known for its extraordinary progress. Today Cookeville has taken a most progressive step, it has given a woman the pleasant privilege of presenting to a Tennessee audience a Tennessee speaker in the political arena.

Gen. Harvey Hannah needs no introduction in Putnam county, for he comes not only as a friend and neighbor from across the mountains but his coming is as the homecoming of a favorite son, a glad hand and welcoming smile awaits him everywhere.

Few there are in the audience, who are not familiar with the beautiful word paintings of Gen. Hannah, few who have not been lifted out of themselves, and followed him in his flights of eloquence into the ethereal blue, plucking therefrom starry diadems for poor mankind, few who have not, under the sound of his magic voice felt the milk of human kindness flow faster in the breast; few who have not revered and loved the old soldier more because of his pleading words of sympathy for the wearer of the "jack-et of grey."

As an orator, Gen. Hannah stands without a peer, and should he elect to follow the public platform or pulpit in lieu of the fascinating game of Tennessee politics, all the South would rise up and call him theirs. Today he is ours, let all Putnam county honor its honored guest, Gen. Hannah, who will speak to you.

Gen. Hannah declared he had been honored many times, but never so highly as to be presented by a lady, paying Mrs. Smith a high compliment. He made a great speech, as he always does, putting forth many reasons why democrats should vote for Senator Lea in the coming primary. Declaring that McKeillar was not in the race, he paid his respects to Patterson, urging that by their fruits ye shall know them, clearly setting out the fruits of Pattersonism. The speech was listened to with rapt attention, and made many votes for Senator Lea. Several men came to the Herald office after the speaking and discarding buttons of the other candidates put on those of Lea.

At the conclusion of his address Gen. Hannah was presented a beautiful bouquet by Miss Gladys LaRoche who said:

Ladies and Gentlemen: In days of old when knights were bold and ladies shy, before going into battle every true knight was given his lady's favorite color and he bidden to wear it to victory. Today knights are just as bold, and while ladies are not quite so shy they yet like to have their colors worn.

Gen. Hannah, we want you to know that you are wearing the favorite color of not only one lady but the favorite color of all true womanhood—colors that stand for a higher manhood and the sanctity of home. In the name of the young womanhood of Putnam county, I bring you these blossoms whose every petal, could they speak, would whisper, "Onward, onward, ever for the right," our message of good will and good wishes.

In a well worded reply Gen. Hannah thanked the ladies for their beautiful flowers and stated that he would take great pleasure in sending them to Bennett Jared, the Putnam county boy who was lying in a hospital in Nashville suffering from an accident received in a football game.

Gen. Hannah spoke at Monterey at night to an audience of 250 and was well received.

SCHOOL RALLY AT GENTRY

A most successful and interesting school rally was held last Saturday with the Gentry High School. There was a large attendance of teachers present as well as many other people interested in school work. Every one to whom subjects were assigned made thoughtful and instructive addresses.

Every one came away impressed with the school spirit manifested by the people of the community, and the pupils and teachers of the Gentry school. The sumptuous basket dinner was enjoyably partaken of.

The teachers of the county will next meet in Cookeville, the second Saturday in January, 1916, for the study of the Reading Circle books.

THE STRAND

"HOME MISSIONS IN ACTION" Chapter II: A Reclaiming Force Tuesday, Nov. 16, the United Mission Study Class met at the First Presbyterian church to discuss the second chapter of their study—A Reclaiming Force. Mrs. Colie conducted the lesson under these headings:

1. Reclamation, a work with a two fold process—Elimination, Re-Occupation. She used as an illustration, Christ's parable of the empty house in Matt. 12, showing the interdependence of the two processes.
2. The Need. To reclaim from what? (a) Physical—Poverty, squalor and dirt; disease; evil habits of the body. (b) Mental—Wrong and debasing ideals and ideas of dress, companionship, amusements, reading, business, citizenship. (c) Spiritual—False faiths, and creeds in religion; militarism and war.
3. How? By the organized church, Sunday schools, missionary societies, christian schools and colleges, young men's and young women's christian associations, salvation army and many other ways.
4. The Field. The city; the country; the frontier; the exceptional peoples, as the Alaskans, the Indians, the negro, the mountaineer, the foreigner, the poor and ignorant, and especially the well-to-do and rich are overlooked because appearances are misleading.

We are expecting more ladies to be present Nov. 30, for Chapter III—An Educative Force.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

The time is near at hand again when it is our duty to give thanks to the Great Creator for His wonderful blessings and tender mercies shown us during the past year. Cookeville has been wonderfully blessed during this time, as possibly never before, materially and also spiritually. One of the greatest institutions of learning the State has yet founded is located in our midst. The United States government has erected one of the best Federal buildings in the state, in our town. Business generally has been prosperous. Our people are successful and happy.

Now, therefore, I, O. K. Holladay, Mayor of the Town of Cookeville, hereby join the President of the United States and the Governor of Tennessee in designating and setting apart Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November, as Thanksgiving Day, and I respectfully and earnestly request that all the people of the town observe this day in a manner that will show their appreciation of the blessings that have been brought to us the past year. I trust that in the homes, churches, and such other places as may be most fitting, the people will gather and in an appropriate way give grateful thanks to Almighty God for the wonderful blessings we have been permitted to enjoy.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Town of Cookeville to be affixed, on this, the sixteenth day of November, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

O. K. HOLLADAY, Mayor.

By L. M. BULLINGTON, Recorder.

A least twenty-five rahs for Cookeville and the T. P. I.

THOROUGH WORK

How a Cookeville Citizen Found Freedom from Kidney Troubles

If you suffer from backache—From urinary disorders—Any curable disease of the kidneys, Use a tested kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills have been tested by thousands. Cookeville people testify. Can you ask more convincing proof of merit?

H. M. Mackie, barber, R. F. D. No. 4, Cookeville, says: "My kidneys were weak and caused me a lot of annoyance. My bladder was inflamed, too. The kidney secretions passed too often and were scanty and filled with sediment. When a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a supply at J. H. Watts' Drug Store. They regulated the action of my kidneys and fixed me up in good shape, after everything else had failed."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Mackie had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THANKSGIVING

Because it is the very old custom to observe Thanksgiving day, and because the President of the United States suggests that the day, Thursday, November 25, be spent in some way appropriate to the occasion, the teachers of the county are not expected to teach on that day unless they so desire. I suggest, and strongly urge that there be some kind of exercises instructive to the children, in which they can take a part, be held either the evening before, or on Thanksgiving day. Where it is possible to get the assistance of a minister of the gospel, a short exercise might be given by the children followed by a short religious service. I think there is something wrong either with the teacher or the school where some such exercises can not be held. The resourceful and efficient teacher will have no trouble in working out a program for the occasion.

Respectfully,
J. M. HATFIELD, Co. Supt.

THE ROSARY

The Strand announces that the Rosary, one of the sweetest stories ever written will be shown in their theatre on Thursday, December 2nd. The production is in seven reels, and gives nearly two hours of delightful entertainment. The Strand is certainly holding to its determination to give us the best pictures that can be obtained.

THE SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN.

The most remarkable political campaign ever waged in Tennessee will end Saturday with all indications pointing to Luke Lea as the Democratic nominee to succeed himself in the United States Senate. The vigor with which he has prosecuted the campaign, covering practically the entire state in an unprecedentedly short time, has been a matter of surprise to his friends and of consternation to his enemies.

The plan was arranged by the primary board, under the control of Lea's enemies, with the deliberate purpose of making Lea's defeat inevitable. Senator Lea's time had been fully taken up with his senatorial duties. He has not had the opportunity of thoroughly traveling over the state and meeting the rank and file of the voters. The primary was fixed for a date which gave him only sixty days to make his canvass.

During that very brief time, Senator Lea will have covered by November 20, ninety of the ninety-six counties of the state and has probably spoken to and personally met more voters than any other candidate who ever canvassed the state. He has made from two to six speeches a day, preaching the doctrine of Democracy, untrifled and undefiled. He has been received everywhere he has gone as the restorer of harmony to the Democratic party in Tennessee as the man who, when Patterson had wrecked the party and fled from the ruin he had wrought, took up the task that others regarded as impossible and a year ago brought Tennessee Democracy out of the wilderness united and victorious.

The enthusiastic support given Senator Lea by the leaders of both the former factions in the party is remarkable. Notable among the independent leaders who are actively engaged in Senator Lea's behalf in this campaign are former United States Senator Webb, Hon. Newt White, Former Speaker of the State Senate, Judge Sam M. Young; Judge Sam Holding and James A. Tate. Among the equally prominent regulars who are giving him active and earnest support are Col. Joel B. Fort, Judge W. P. Cooper, Speaker of the Lower House in the last general assembly; Former Congressman Rice A. Pierce, Col. L. D. Tyson and many others.

Senator Lea has grown steadily stronger from the first day of the campaign to the present. His managers, as well as his friends throughout the state are confident that he will receive a clear majority over both his competitors on November 20 and that there will, therefore, be no run off.

There are voters who have hesitated about going into the primary because of an antipathy to Mr. Patterson so strong that they would not want to support him in the event he should win the nomination. Those voters should no longer hesitate. Mr. Patterson cannot be nominated. As matters stand today, there seems no possibility of his even getting in a run off with Senator Lea. Those Democrats, therefore, need no longer have any fears. All of them should participate in the primary. It is a duty they owe their party, their state and their country. If a full vote is polled, Senator Lea will receive one of the largest majorities ever given a candidate in Tennessee.

Mt. View Lodge No. 179, I O O F was opened at the usual hour, 7 p. m. Nov. 13, 1915. Jas. M. Quarles, N G, presiding with a moderate attendance. The usual routine business was disposed of. Bro. Chas. Bradford is still improving slowly. Bro. Norman Massa seems much encouraged since his last trip, last week, to consult with his surgeon at Nashville, he now thinks he is doing well. Bro. John Choat is now convalescent. Bro. S. Pincus has transferred his membership to St. Charles' Lodge, Nashville.

Quite a lot of business has been set for our next meeting which unfortunately occurs on Friday night, the 19th inst., as our Friday night meetings are pretty generally lightly attended. There is in this, as in perhaps most other lodges too much of a disposition to leave everything pertaining to the management and advancement of the Lodge to its officers, the members don't seem to comprehend that it is their duty to attend meetings and familiarize themselves with the great work. Come, get a hustle on yourself.

CARD OF THANKS

The juvenile automobile contest has just closed at the Strand Theatre, and while I failed to be the lucky winner, I want to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my many friends who were so loyal to me, and I also want to thank those at Algood who helped me by purchasing the ticket books from me.

Homer B. Gibbs.

There will be preaching at the Church of Christ in Cookeville at 11:00 a. m. on Thanksgiving Day, November 25th, by W. L. Karnes, to which everybody is cordially invited.

LITTLE WOMAN GAINS 35 POUNDS

Another Frail, Thin, Sick Woman is Restored to Health

Mrs. Nettie McGarr, who lives at 1806 Eighteenth avenue, North, Nashville, has gained thirty-five (35) pounds in weight after being an invalid for years and practically unable to attend to the smallest duties. Even moving about the house, she says, made her weak and dizzy. Three bottles of Tanlac produced this almost unbelievable result. The patient, who is well known in Nashville, tells this interesting story of her own free will and accord, and many of her friends and neighbors are also in possession of these facts.

"Yes," smiled Mrs. McGarr, when questioned "I weighed only 105 pounds when I began taking the medicine, and I now weigh 140 five pounds more than I ever weighed in my life—and if you don't believe it I will go right to the scales and let you see for yourself. Honestly, I am getting so fat I am really ashamed. I have had to have every dress I wore last winter let out. They're too little now."

"For years," continued the grateful woman, "I had suffered from indigestion, having to avoid all sweets and live on very light diet. I would have burning sensations in my stomach and those awful pains in the back and side. I just felt like I was no good to myself or anybody else—was always tired, couldn't sleep good, and was restless, nervous and dizzy headed. I could not walk any distance without being swimmy-headed and panting for breath. I could hardly eat anything at all and I was mightily out of heart when my weight began to go down and down, and I could see that my husband was uneasy about me."

"My sister, Mrs. Minnie Hall, came to see me about this time, and I couldn't help saying something about how well she was looking. She said, yes, she was feeling mighty good, for she had found a good medicine that had helped her a lot, and that she felt better than she ever had in her life. I asked her what it was, and she said it was Tanlac. She wanted me to get a little right away, and I did."

"I have taken three bottles now," she said with great satisfaction, "and I don't have to envy Minnie her health any more. The yellow color has gone out of my face and everything I eat tastes good. I don't have that nasty bad taste in my mouth any more. I feel like I am just beginning to enjoy life. You have to be sick for a long time like I was to know what a great blessing health is."

"I was so happy about Tanlac that I told my neighbors and several of them are taking it. My father-in-law, who has been sick for a long time, is taking it, and I will certainly remember this good medicine the longest day I live."

Tanlac is sold in Cookeville exclusively by Wyly Drug Co. adv.
