ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONGRESS

HULL—We are authorized to announce Hon. Cordell Hull, as a candidate for Representative in Congress from the Fourth Congressional District of Tennessee, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

PREPAREDNESS

There is at present much agitation about military preparedness in the United States and an effort to largely increase both the army and navy. Investigation of the facts discloses that this country has spent enormous sums for preparedness and if we are so nearly unprepared for war that Villa and a few hundred followers cannot be put out of business, the question arises as to what has become of the money spent on our army and navy.

This country spent on its navy from 1794 to 1914 $3,071,179,958, about two fifths of this sum was spent from 1897 to 1914, or in 17 years—$1,464,604,186. In 1879 the navy cost $15,125,126, while the enormous sum of $139,682,186, or nine times as much was spent in 1914.

In 1879 the army cost $40,425,660, while in 1914 it was four times that much—and we are almost wholly unprepared.

Now, get this. In 1914 the total receipts of the government exclusive of the postal, Panama Canal and public debt transactions, was $734,673,187. Out of this income we spent $173,440,231 for pensions, $173,522,804 for army $139,682,186 for navy and $22,863,957 for interest on war debt or a total of $509,509,178 for and because of war. Over two-thirds, nearly five sevenths of our national revenue spent for war in 1914, to which must be added millions more spent by states, and we are unprepared.

Again the total receipts of the government from 1789 to 1915 were $25,039,747,670.45. Of this stupendous sum nearly four-fifths has been spent for war, as follows: Army $7,657,322,205.86; Navy $3,233,862,654.22; pensions $4,940,304,143.05, interest $3,347,554,370.95; a total of $19,179,043,374.98. During its history the government spent only $5,640,185,651.20 for all other purposes. And yet the demand now goes up for the expenditure of hundreds of millions more each year for the army and navy, because we are unprepared. These figures exclude public debt, postal, Panama canal and Indian transactions.

The hue and cry for an enormous army and the biggest navy comes from the millionaires, the only persons who reap profits out of war. Their greed is never satiated.

Shall we spend our entire national revenue for war, or create an enormous war debt in times of peace? Or shall we call a halt and find out why the nation now spends nearly three fourths of its income for nothing—worse than nothing.

NEW ERA FOR TENNESSEE

By J. L. McWhorter, Chairman
Tennessee Constitutional Convention League

Tennessee has long stood in need of a common rallying point, of an event big enough to compel us to forget sectionalism, partisanship and factionalism and rivet our attention on one object, concentrate our united efforts on a common purpose for the welfare and benefit of every man, woman and child in the state. A new progressive up to date Constitution offers us the rallying point, the big event, a new era for our State.

There is no sort of doubt that certain strong interests in the past have encouraged dissensions and divisions among our people, to keep us from turning our attention to the correction of evils and abuse in government, and with results extremely fatal to our welfare and progress. While we engaged in fratricidal strife, prosperity took wings and flew away. But this is not all. Today our antiquated Constitution and laws stand like a great boulder in the stream of progress, around which commerce, population and industry are flowing to other states.

This condition hurts the value of every foot of land in the State and explains to some extent, why neighboring states are growing two and one-half times as fast as Tennessee, and why the agricultural population of our State has well nigh ceased to grow at all. Existing conditions deprive the laborer of employment, the banker of accounts, the merchant and farmer of customers. We have not changed a line in our Constitution for forty-six years, meanwhile seven States that border us have held eight Constitutional Conventions and made nineteen important amendments.

Let us now test the spirit of cooperation and progress. We have stood still long enough; we "have carried the spear that knows no brother" long enough. It's time for Tennesseans to get together.

Let us forget sectionalism, partisanship, factionalism remembering only that we are all Tennesseans; and on Aug. 3 let us vote unanimously for a Constitutional Convention, thereby ushering in a new era for our State; longer be placed upon petty issues and small personalities, but standing shoulder to shoulder let us fight ignorance and lawlessness, and present before the world the example of a great people, moved by a mighty impulse, in a common endeavor, to place our dear old Commonwealth where she formerly stood and where she now belongs—in the very front rank of our American Sisterhood.

Little Girl Was Always Delicate Until She Commenced Taking Tanlac

"I'm certainly very thankful for what Tanlac has done for my little daughter," said Mrs. J. P. Westbrook, who lives at 2508 Thirtieth Ave., North Birmingham, to the Tanlac representative who had called to see her a few days ago. "My daughter, Ansel, who is eleven yrs. of age, has been a sufferer from indigestion and pains in her shoulders and in her chest for a long long time—in fact all her life. We have tried many doctors and most everything we could hear of, but they did not bring her any relief.

"She was so nervous and unstrung and so run-down that I don't believe she could have gone through the winter. She wouldn't eat hardly anything at all and sleep was impossible for her, and it was pitiful to see her in that condition, and to think, too, that we had done everything we could without any benefit from it. Especially in the summer months she would get in a very run-down condition and would lose weight, and you can see that she hasn't any too much weight to lose.

"I had read in the papers about Tanlac, and a neighbor who has taken it insisted that I get a bottle and put her right on it and it looked like from the first half of the bottle that it was the very thing she had needed. She has taken three bottles now, and I am certainly thankful for what it has done for her. She sleeps just as well as could be at night and eat everything she wants. She was eating popcorn and bananas yesterday, and they didn't seem to have any bad effects on her at all. She has gained a little in weight, and I believe now that she is eating and the food seems to be thoroughly agree with her, and she will gain steadily.

"She does not seem to be a bit nervous and doesn't object to taking the Tanlac one bit. She is just as bright and cheerful as she can be and it has made us all mighty happy about her recovery, and we all are glad to recommend Tanlac as being the medicine that has done what lots of other medicines failed to do. I am glad to say a good word for it, and tell others of its merits."

Miss Ansel Westbrook was in the room at the time and remarked, "If I had a thousand dollars, I would spend it all for Tanlac, because I feel so good and eat everything I want, and can sleep so good and sound at night."

Tanlac is sold in Cookeville exclusively by Wyly Drug Co. Adv.

Your Health

DON'T ENDANGER IT WITH CALOMEL

It is generally agreed by experts in this country and Europe that calomel has a very violent effect on the system. This accounts for the familiar disagreeable feeling accompanying a dose, and the weakened condition following it.

LiV-Ver-Lax is a harmless vegetable compound, that is a mild, but effective substitute for calomel. It has all the effectiveness, but not the effect, of calomel. Its splendid value has brought it into such wide use that in some states it has almost entirely replaced calomel.

Just try LiV-Ver-Lax once, and you will never use calomel again. Insist on the genuine, bearing the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by the Wyly Drug Co.
