WORK IS RUSHED ON MOBILIZATION CAMP

WAR SUPPLIES ARRIVING

Three Train Loads of Military Equipment Being Rushed From U. S. Arsenal—One Train is Already Received.

Nashville.—Work is being pushed in an effort to get Cumberland Park in sanitary condition for the encampment of the state troops being mobilized for service in Mexico.

When the troops arrive everything at the park will be in readiness. The camp will be equipped in every particular, and within a few hours the troops will be ready to be mustered into the United States army by Capt. W. N. Hughes, Jr., who has been designated as the mustering officer.

Capt. Hughes has been notified that in addition to the one train of equipment that has been received, a trainload has been started from each of the arsenals in Philadelphia, St. Louis and Savannah.

The equipment received from Camp John Sevier, Fountain City, has been unloaded and put in place at the park. There is a detail of 50 men from the Second separate battalion on duty at the park caring for the equipment that has been received and doing general guard duty. The equipment from Camp John Sevier consisted of one car of blankets, tents, kitchen utensils, stoves, lanterns, camp supplies and munition.

There were eight flat cars, containing three field ambulances and 24 3,000-pound escort wagons, the equipment of the Third infantry. The three trains which will arrive here from U. S. arsenals consist largely of personal equipment. True, appeared as counsel for Edgington before the high court of impeachment, and F. E. Miller were waiting for him. He waived examination and was held in the sum of $5,000 for the grand jury.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Daughter of Sheriff Keeps Four More From Getting Away.

Trenton.—The presence of mind of Mrs. Lena Taylor, daughter of Sheriff J. W. Davidson, prevented the escape of four prisoners from the jail here, when six other prisoners, negroes, knocked her down, ran over her and escaped. Three of these were soon captured and returned to jail while bloodhounds are in pursuit of the remaining three.

Discovering that they were out of soap while taking a bath, the prisoners notified the sheriff, who went to procure it for them. He neglected to lock the inside door to the cage and after he left the prisoners called for the sheriff's daughter. Thinking the inside door locked, she opened the outside and the prisoners sprang upon her.

HERES GOING DOWN.

"The machine guns were still going. I could hear the bullets whizzing over us. Because of Lieutenant Adair's order we saved a lot of men. But the horses did not have the same luck. The bullets started to hit them, and they were going down as if their legs were suddenly cut out from under them."

"The others, stung by the bullets and kicked by the dying horses, began to rear and plunge. The men in charge tried their best to hold them but they broke away. Some of the men were killed trying to save their mounts."

"When the horses got away we were marooned. We fought back and prevented the Mexicans from advancing in spite of their advantage in numbers and the machine guns. We began to fall back toward the hills as well as we could."

"We recovered four horses and then the four of us were sent here to report. We left the rest of the troops in the hills. The retreat was slow because of the wounded. The Mexicans kept firing, but were kept away by the accurate rifle fire of our men."

George Barnett, commander of the United States marine corps. He is Rev. Ferdinand F. Schultz, pastor of the Church of Christ Disciples, Chillicothe, O., a practical engineer as well as minister.

In offering his services Rev. Schultz expressed willingness to serve in the fire room of a battleship or as chaplain of marines in the field.

The patriotic and versatile Ohio pastor is fifty-seven years of age, but says he is hale and hearty and ready to respond to a call to serve "Old Glory" at any time.

Acosta, the fleet-footed little Cuban with the Washington team last year, is playing a grand game for the Minneapolis Millers.

TELLS STORY OF MEXICAN AMBUSH

Escaped Trooper Gives Details of Tenth Cavalry Fight.

Carranza Troops Mowed Down Men and Horses With Machine Guns After Leading Them Into a Trap.

El Paso, Tex.—No more graphic story can be found in the record of the United States army than that told by one of the couriers from the ill-fated troops of the Tenth cavalry that was ambushed by Carranza troops. His story of the attack was told to General Pershing and included by that officer in his report to Washington. It was as follows:

The following is the story he tells: "We had been marching since early Wednesday morning when we reached the neighborhood of Carrizal. Capt. Charles T. Boyd was riding ahead of the column. Just behind him was Capt. Lewis S. Morey, Lieut. Henry R. Adair was further back with the column. There were 95 men in the troop.

"From our position we could see some Mexican sent forward a messenger under a flag of truce to ask permission to enter the town in search of the bandits that we were hunting. Gen. Felix Gomez sent back word giving permission to enter.

"Gomez himself rode out to meet Captain Boyd. Captain Boyd gave the word for the column to advance. We were just starting forward when we noticed Mexican troops pouring out from behind different kinds of shelter—adobe houses and the like—and deploying to the right and left. It was battle formation. From the first glance we saw that they outnumbered us at least five to one.

"Captain Boyd noticed their movement. To any soldier that sort of thing can mean only that an attack is about to be made. I saw Captain Boyd make some remark about it to Gomez. Gomez wheeled his mount around and signaled with his hands. Then he made a dash for his own lines.

"At the same time a couple of machine guns, one at each end of the Mexican line, opened up on us. We were caught in our saddles in easy range, and we were good targets. I saw Captain Boyd fall. A moment later Captain Morey was wounded in the shoulder.

"Lieutenant Adair gave us the order to dismount. We got out of our saddles in a hurry. Then he told us to throw ourselves on our faces and return the fire. Someone got Gomez just as he was reaching his line. The next minute Lieutenant Adair was hit. Both he and Captain Boyd are dead, I believe.

"The machine guns were still going. I could hear the bullets whizzing over us. Because of Lieutenant Adair's order we saved a lot of men. But the horses did not have the same luck. The bullets started to hit them, and they were going down as if their legs were suddenly cut out from under them."

"The others, stung by the bullets and kicked by the dying horses, began to rear and plunge. The men in charge tried their best to hold them but they broke away. Some of the men were killed trying to save their mounts."

"When the horses got away we were marooned. We fought back and prevented the Mexicans from advancing in spite of their advantage in numbers and the machine guns. We began to fall back toward the hills as well as we could."

"We recovered four horses and then the four of us were sent here to report. We left the rest of the troops in the hills. The retreat was slow because of the wounded. The Mexicans kept firing, but were kept away by the accurate rifle fire of our men."

Investigate the Onion.

The homely onion has been the subject of an inquiry by a British committee whose duty it was to go into the matter of its high cost. The report of the committee reveals the fact that the present high rate of the onion is due to the stoppage of import from Holland and Belgium and to the diminished import from Egypt and Spain.

It is pointed out that onions can be grown in England, and to woman gardeners of even quite amateur experience the contemplative cult of the onion is to be recommended as real and useful war work.

A man and his wife are different—also indifferent after they have been married a few years.

Two women can remain good friends if they don't meet often.

Nothing boosts the value of blessings like their removal.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

BROWN'S LATE HOME-COMING

Striking Clock Registered a Record for Gentleman of Somewhat Convivial Habits.

Brown had come home very late after a convivial evening at a smoking concert and had consumed more cigars and refreshments than was good for him. It was midnight when he reached home, but he did not know it.

"Ah!" he muttered, "if the church clock would only strike, I should know the time. It's too late to see."

But hark! Just as he spoke the clock began to strike. Breathlessly, Brown counted, "One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve!"

But at that moment another clock began.

"Thirteen," counted Brown, "fourteen, fifteen—great Scott!—sixteen, seventeen, eighteen—gracious—nineteen, twenty, (11), twenty-one, twenty-two (11), twenty-three—mercy on us!—twenty-four (11)."

Mopping his streaming brow he exclaimed: "My word, I've never been out so late in all my life!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

A REMARKABLE DISCOVERY

For thousands of years consumption has been considered as incurable. Yet, in the past few years there has been discovered a treatment, which if we are to believe the statements of patients, is proving effective. Here it is: what one lady, Mrs. A. Rippey, 703 North 18th Ave., Nashville, says: "For four years I have had a terrible cough and suffered with tuberculosis. In less than two years I had a number of hemorrhages, and had tried all kinds of remedies with very poor results. Since taking the first dose of Lung-Vita I have not had a single hemorrhage. I am able to do my own work, eat and sleep well, better than I have in many years." Lung-Vita is proving equally as effective in cases of asthma. Try Lung-Vita now. Send $1.75 for thirty-day treatment. Nashville Medicine Co., No. 10 Steger Bldg., Nashville, Tenn. Adv.

Musical?

Bacon—I understand your new neighbors are musical. Egbert—Are what? "Musical." "Who said that?" "Oh, I heard it. Is it not so?" "Well, I reckon he likes to fiddle and the wife likes to yell, if that's what you mean."—Yonkers Statesman.
