

PROF. BURNETT MADE CARSON-NEWMAN CHIEF

Jefferson City, Sept. 8.—Carson and Newman college attendance has started in large, and a good term is expected. At a recent meeting of the college's executive committee Dr. Jeffries offered his resignation as president, which was accepted, and Prof. J. M. Burnett was elected chairman of the faculty. No president has been elected, and Prof. Burnett will have charge until one is elected.

Dr. Jeffries will probably leave here and enter either the ministry or school work elsewhere.

nozzles, one cut off nozzle and other things to go with such an outfit. The board finally got the price down to $1750 and are holding the letting of the contract under advisement until other prices can be secured. It is said that the Eureka company is supplying most of the towns and cities of this section.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MISS KATE BROWN

Mrs. Jno. M. Stokely entertained a few friends Saturday as a farewell to Miss Kate Brown, one of the assistants of her primary department, who left Wednesday for Bristol where she enters school. The guests were the assistants of Mrs. Stokely, at the First Baptist Church. In a contest, Miss Nell Dukes was the successful one and was given a hat pin, the prize.

Miss Brown was presented with a hand embroidered handkerchief as a remembrance of the occasion.

Those present were: Misses Inez and Nell Dukes, Nell Rowe, Letha Burke, Claudie Holder, Ortelie Delozier, Fannie Stokely, Edna Stuart and Kate Brown and Mrs. Jno. M. Jones.

HARRISON-HOLLAND ANNOUNCEMENT

Another wedding of much interest will be that of Miss Johnnie Holland to Mr. Lute Harrison. Both families are prominent. Invitations are in the hands of their friends reading as follows:

Mrs. Reuben A. Holland requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her niece Johnnie to Mr. James Luther Harrison on Wednesday, September twentieth nineteen hundred and eleven at two o'clock Del Rio, Tennessee.
