 J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay st. Sharpburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of La grippe, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robt. Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr.
 King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble; noth-

 Blood Balm, (B. B. B.) which has been made in Atlanta for the past seven years, never fails to give satisfaction as a superior building tonic and blood purifier. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician. The bottle is large and the dose small. See our advertisements and buy that which is thoroughly endorsed by thousands of grateful patients whom it has cured. A trial bottle will test its merits.

McElree's WINE OF CARDUI for female diseases Mr. Edgar Cherry has gone to Nashville.
 James Williams, Jr., is again the typo in the COURIER office.

Wyebe went to Adamsville Saturday to do some painting.

There will be preaching at the Christian church Sunday night at 6:30.

Col Baker went down on the Savannah and will return on the Sheffield.

John Merrill went to Tuscumbia, his old home, Monday for a short visit.

Capt. T. H. Paine, of Jackson, came over Friday evening and returned Monday.

Parties owing D. J. Hughes & Co. will please come and settle at once. We mean you.

T. W. Bolin, the fisherman who was here a year ago, is here again to furnish the town with fish.

T. L. Callens, a prosperous farmer of the Cerro Gordo community, was in town Saturday.

A trombone, cornet and two violins have been added to the choir at the Methodist church.

Miss Stella Barlow, after spending the holidays at home, returned last week to school at Pulaski.

The City of Paducah took 28, 000 feet of lumber and eleven passengers from this port Friday.

Miss Sarah Rowsey, of Shilohville, was a passenger on the Savannah Wednesday for Saffilla.

Arch Walker, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ella, left Wednesday for Lebanon where the latter will enter school.

Mrs. D. W. Herring came over from Jackson Saturday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hamilton.

G. F. Benton has gone to Great Barrington, Mass., to spend a few weeks at the old home of his father and visit some relatives.

Take a good look at Venus the first clear evening. She is in the southwestern sky and at her most brilliant period of the year.

Ed Patterson and Jack Williams missed the Nisbet on her down trip last week and left on the City of Paducah Friday to return to school at Franklin.

D. M. Street, first clerk of the City of Savannah, when in the St.
 Louis trade, came in Monday to spend the time until his boat gets back to her old place.

Miss Mary Patterson went to Pulaski last week to take a postgraduate course. After completing this course she expects to attend Harvard University.

Rev. W. B. Lowry is expected here next Wednesday night and will stay over until the following Sunday, which will be the occasion of the quarterly meeting.

Misses Belle Patterson and Gaston Broyles left Friday for Cincinnati to attend the Conservatory of Music. Miss Patterson was there a few months before Christmas.

Mrs. Warren Smith brought her son Frank to town Monday and left him to study law. He will be in the office of Will J. Watson and is domiciled at the Hughes House.

We understand the heirs of the late J. C. Mitchell will bring suit against the Evansville, Paducah & Tennessee River Packet Co. for damages for the killing of the deceased in the Nisbet blow up.

J. G. Russ lost his fine residence in Clifton early Thursday morning of last week. The light from the burning building was seen here by several of us early risers. We sympathize with Mr. Russ in his loss.

The time of the arrival of the mail from Bethel Springs has been changed from 1:30 p. m. to 7 a. m., but the difference between its arriving time and time of arriving would be a considerable quantity to a man tied up by the thumbs.

The Nisbet Disaster.
 Our report of the Nisbet disaster last week located her in the Ohio river when it should have been at Panther Creek Island in the Tennessee river, 60 miles from Paducah. The Nisbet got aground at that place on Sunday night and had never gotten off when the accident occurred. Fuel was scarce on the boat and the donkey boiler was being used to spar with when it exploded, wrecking the front end of the cabin, demolishing the roof, breaking the larboard hog chain and tearing off both chimneys.
 Besides killing J. C. Mitchell, Jim White was right badly hurt and Marshall McMechan, son of Capt. McMechan, was also badly hurt. Capt. George Brown was shaken up and bruised some and others whose names we did not learn were more or less hurt.
 A few hours after the accident the City of Paducah came along and pulled the Nisbet off the bar and landed her against the shore, and rendered what other assistance it could.
 The City of Sheffield has been chartered for two or three weeks to take the place of the Nisbet and will be up tonight or tomorrow.
 The W. F. Nisbet was taken to Evansville to be repaired.

Mrs. Harriet N. Anderson.
 "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." Mrs. H. N. Anderson the beloved wife of Mr. James Anderson of this place, after a brief illness departed this life in the afternoon of the 4th day of January, at the age of 78 years, and was interred in the Savannah Cemetery the following day.
 During her illness, though racked with suffering, her heart was so filled with appreciation of the kind and sympathetic attentions of her many friends, that she made an earnest request that the same be acknowledged through the columns of the COURIER, with her fervent prayer that the Lord would recompense and bless them who had been so kind to her. She realized that her "sickness was unto death" and spoke beautifully of her hope in Christ and of the joy it would be to exchange this home for one of the "many mansions" in Our Father's house. She was a zealous member of the Christian church. Her daughter, Mrs. Miles Burns, who resides near Clifton, was summoned to her bedside and she rejoiced in the consolation and pleasure, though mingled with pain, of having her devoted daughter with her during her last days on earth.
 Her only regret was leaving her husband. Ah! soul had been knit to soul and heart to heart by the joys and sorrows of more than half a century of years and when death broke the strong tie of conjugal love her devoted husband drank the bitterest drops the cup of life could hold for him.
 Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, in former years accustomed to all the comforts of life and even many luxuries, in their old age, by the reverses of fortune, were deprived of this "world's goods but were rich in that wealth of heart and character which ever wins esteem.
 They bore their changed circumstances with such cheerful resignation, all the time practicing self-denial and taxing their strength in an effort to be self-sustaining, that they won the admiration, the sympathy and the staunch friendship of the entire community. A loving Father's providence, through human agency, ministered to the needs which their labors could not supply. In Mrs. Anderson's last illness Mr.
 B. Bruce and family, who live in adjoining rooms, gave her as devoted attention as if she had been a near and dear relative. Miss Cora Bruce ministering to her as tenderly and constantly as only a whole-souled noble-hearted girl would do. The bereaved husband and daughter have the deep and earnest sympathy of a large circle of friends, but only the "earnest of the Spirit" in their own hearts can give them that "peace that passeth understanding," which awaits the Resurrection Morn.

McElree's WINE OF CARDUI for Weak Nerves

In the Interest of Education.
 Mr. Editor:—
 The COURIER will please say in its next issue to its many readers, that our effort with the County Court, however futile, for increased Public facilities was productive of much good. It brings us as a public servant of the children of Hardin county to a more serious consideration of our duties to them. We see more clearly the sentiments of the Court and are hopeful of meeting them more favorably in the future. The idea that the present system of public schools only fosters a lot of teachers should be dismissed, and a more elevated view of the matter be taken. It is true we have many persons among us who would fain call themselves teachers but lack every qualification, but such is not the case with all of them.
 The teaching fraternity compares favorably with any other class.
 We, who thus watch the course of events, I hope are more able to see the good results of the small expenditure made than some who would only pronounce the effort an empty offering. We acknowledge that many of those for whom the public schools are kept do not avail themselves of the privileges as they should. Many parents, we are sorry to know, have no very well defined ideas of what their children's interest is, or else they would look more to their education than they do. A parent who wantonly deprives his child of attending the public school or wilfully neglects to put him in the school is a traitor to his own flesh and blood and deserves him "a drawer of water and a heaver of wood" and places him "an implement in the hands of the crafty with which to do dark deeds." The success of the public school depends largely upon the Directors and we would say to them that their dealings should at all times be from an unbiased standpoint.
 We suggest for their consideration the propriety of maintaining good attendance at their schools.
 No school should be kept in session with fewer than 60 per cent of the district in attendance.
 We think the grade of the certificate that your teacher bears should be a scale upon which to fix the salary. Teachers with a low grade certificate should have some good school recommended to him and his place filled by the best teacher that can be procured under the circumstances.
 Since we have been accused of issuing certificates to teachers who were not qualified we propose to be careful in the future and look only to the interest of the children. JOHN T. HARDIN, County Supt.

 T. J. Atkins, Memphis: "The E-lectropoise is the family physician at my house."
 Prof. A. M. Burney, Gallatin:
 "Speaking from experience, I have no hesitation in saying that the E-lectropoise possesses great curative powers." J. Jack Wilson, Memphis: "Unless I could replace it no amount of money would tempt me to sell my Electropoise."
 A. B. Robertson, Beech Grove:
 "I have used the Electropoise for over two years, and would not take $500 for it if I could not get another."
 Travis Winham, Nashville: "I consider it the greatest medical discovery of the age."
 Hon. T. H. Baker, Huntingdon:
 "For paralysis and that class of diseases I can say from experience without hesitation that the effects of the Electropoise border on the miraculous."
 Mrs. Ed H. Smith, Somerville:
 "I believe that the time will soon come when the Electropoise will be considered an indispensable article in the family." W. E. Burton, Henrietta: "It is an unpleasant duty to parade one's complaint before the public, but I think it is a duty I owe to suffering humanity to tell them the good the Electropoise has accomplished for me, and if I could not get another one all the money in Tennessee would not buy mine." Prof. R. W. Jennings, Nashville:
 "I have found after two years use that the Electropoise is simple, efficacious and convenient."
 Maj. G. G. Conner, Chattanooga:
 "I have taken no medicine this year, consulted no physician, need the Electropoise and am in better health than I have been in five years."
 Rev. G. A. Loftin, D. D., Nashville: "Judge East told me that after having exhaustive speaking that he found the Electropoise of great value in equalizing the circulation and restoring the nervous equilibrium, and I found the same effect under like circumstances."
